

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Monday, October 10, 1949

Plans Told For Wedding

Among October brides-elect announcing plans for their weddings is Miss Shirley Post, who is to be married October 23 to Harold McCauley.

The ceremony is planned as an afternoon one that Sunday, at 4 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. George H. Swift officiating.

Miss Charlotte Post will be her sister's only attendant. William Barlow is to be best man and ushering will be Donald Scheeler and Donald Farnam. Mrs. A. J. Becker is to be the soloist for the wedding.

The reception following is to be at the Post residence on Argyle drive.

Liberty Woman's Group Plans Year

Liberty—The Liberty Woman's club held its first meeting of the year last week as a get-acquainted tea at the Liberty luncheon room. Mrs. Wayne Blaco was in charge of the tea, Mrs. Roland Seeger and Mrs. Don Griffith poured, Mrs. W. J. Hall was in charge of the table decorations. There were 32 present with the president, Mrs. Wilbert Kurth, presiding.

Named on the delegation for the County Federation to be held on October 28 at Aurora were Mrs. C. W. Stacey, Mrs. Harry Knepper, Mrs. Wilbert Kurth, Mrs. Letitia Clark, Mrs. Lester Clark and Mrs. John Dasch.

Mrs. Paul Wishart reported from the sick committee, and Mrs. Roland Seeger reported from the card committee. Mrs. C. W. Stacey reported on child welfare and told of the new cottage at the Children's Farm home at Corvallis.

Honored guests were principal and Mrs. Marion Miller, vice principal, and Mrs. Louis Bartlett and Mrs. Ellyer Parrish, wife of the pastor of the Liberty Christian Church of Christ, Mrs. Florence Whelan, Mrs. Agnes Palmer, Mrs. Robert Hammond, and Mrs. Mary Lovett were also introduced.

A prize was won by Mrs. Louis Kurth for the member inviting the most guests. Membership dues were paid by Mrs. Wilbert Kurth, Mrs. Walter Schendel, Mrs. C. W. Stacey, Mrs. Harold A. Rosebrugh, Mrs. Roland Seeger, Mrs. Fred Browning, Mrs. Harry Knepper, Mrs. Letitia Clark, Mrs. Lester Clark, Mrs. W. J. Hall, Mrs. Mervin Seeger, Mrs. H. Kolaky, Mrs. S. B. Davidson, Mrs. Don Griffith, Mrs. Henry Kamings, Mrs. Paul Wishart, Mrs. Carl Bell, Mrs. James Falk, Mrs. Alvin Poole, and Mrs. Emil Dress.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lester Clark on route 9 and the club will hold a planned shower for Mrs. Wayne Blaco who is building a new home.

Toastmistress Club

The regular meeting of the Toastmistress club will be held at the Golden Pheasant on Thursday, October 12 at 8 p.m. The Toastmistress will be Miss Amanda Anderson. Speakers slated for the evening are Mrs. Mabel Hayles, Mrs. Roy Lockenour, Mrs. George Beane, Miss Marie Bosch and Miss Constance Weinman.

President Feted by Club

Salem Business and Professional Women's club opened its observance of "National Businesswomen's week," Sunday morning with a charmingly arranged breakfast to honor the club president, Mrs. John Versteeg.

Forty-three attended the event, given in the Cave room at the Senator hotel. The tables were profusely decorated with gold and bronze chrysanthemums, the same flowers also being caught in wide bands of maline in the same colors down the center lengths; and ever so often were clustered gold, blue and maroon candles. Handmade programs in the gold and bronze colors marked each place.

Miss Eleanor Roberts gave the tribute to Mrs. Versteeg as the president, the presentation concluding with a duet by Mrs. Alma Werstein and Mrs. Mildred Neuman with Mrs. Mae DuVall at the piano.

Mrs. Cecelia Galey of Sweet Home, second vice president of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, was the guest speaker. She gave an interesting review and discussion on Overstreet's book, "The Mature Mind."

Miss Alberta Shoemaker, first vice president of the local club, presided at the program and presented the gavel guard pin to Mrs. Versteeg to wear with her club pin. Mrs. Arthur Weddle, regional chairman for BPW clubs and a past state president, led the collect for the close of the program.

Following the breakfast members of the club attended services at Jason Lee Methodist church, Mrs. Versteeg's church.

SALEM F. L. club No. 14 held its regular business meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Keith Rebo. Members present included Mesdames Lawrence McClure, Forrest Greenfield, Keith Rebo, Harry Way, Harold Bressler, R. L. Applegate, Victor Koop, Chester Lanktree, Evelyn Hamby and Miss Edlyn Holmquist. Visitor of the evening was Mrs. Sam Peyton, formerly of Astoria. Prior to the meeting the members attended Miller's Fall Fashion show. The next meeting is to be held Oct. 20 at the home of Mrs. Lawrence McClure, route 1, Salem.

Engagement Announced—The betrothal of Miss Lois Shepherd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Shepherd, to Donald Bisbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bisbee of Independence, was announced recently. No date is set for the wedding. (Jeston-Miller studio picture)

Betrothal Told

The engagement of Miss Maxine Muckle to Al Pietschman was announced at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house at Willamette university last week.

Miss Muckle is to graduate in January from Willamette where she is majoring in political science. She is the daughter of Mrs. Fern C. Muckle and R. J. Muckle of Portland. Mr. Pietschman, also of Portland, is a graduate of University of Oregon and a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

No date is announced for the wedding.

MR. AND MRS. Lester Den Beste are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, Friday evening, October 7, at Salem Memorial hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lang of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. William Den Beste of Crawford, Colo. The Rev. and Mrs. Fred C. Taylor of Salem are great grandparents. Mrs. Lester Den Beste will be remembered as the former JoAnne Lang. Mr. and Mrs. Den Beste moved to Salem from Denver this past summer, both having been students at University of Denver.

MISS SUSAN FAHERTY left Sunday for San Francisco to be gone for this week, attending an area conference for executive secretaries of American Red Cross chapters.

MR. AND MRS. W. B. Stacey returned the latter part of the week from a week's trip through eastern Oregon, visiting friends at several cities.

Wedding Is Sunday Event

Wed Sunday afternoon were Miss Cornelia Strayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Strayer, and Frank Osborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Osborn, Sr. of Gervais.

The service took place at 3:15 o'clock in Jason Lee Methodist church which was decorated in a fall setting for the wedding. Rev. Louis Kirby officiating. Miss Loretta Lentz was the soloist and Mrs. C. A. McClure the organist.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Mildred Sellard and Miss Beverly Shaff, who wore pink and blue dresses.

The bridal attendants wore pastel taffeta frocks fashioned with scalloped necklines and sleeves and full skirts. They carried pastel nosegays, and wore matching lace covered hats. Miss Faye Crawford was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Owens, Miss Lela Conboy, Miss Joyce Conboy, Miss Marcella Messmer and Miss Evelyn Bishop.

Mr. Strayer gave his daughter in marriage. The bridegroom was of white satin fashioned tunic, long sleeves and a net yoke on the fitted bodice enhanced with a wide band of lace. The fingertip veil cascaded from a tulle band adorned with iridescent sequins. The bride's old fashioned nosegay was of roses and baby chrysanthemums.

Caroline Jones, in a pink frock, was flower girl.

David Woods stood as best man and ushers were Waldo Unruh, Wakne Osborn, Robert Strayer, Ray Cummings and James Lawson.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Strayer wore a teal blue gown with corsage of white carnations and Mrs. Osborn attended her son's marriage in a hazel blue gown and her flowers were pink carnations.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Miss Verda Crook and Mrs. Frank Kolsky poured and Mrs. Jacob Conboy cut the cake. Assisting were Misses Joyce Kirby, Janet Maguren, Roberta Klempel and Dorothy Dyke.

After a trip to the Oregon beaches the newlyweds will be at home in Salem. For going away the bride wore a forest green suit with black accessories.

AMONG those entertaining Saturday evening following the Waverly club dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Krueger, who have invited guests for a buffet supper at their Kingwood Heights home.

PYTHIAN SISTERS club is to meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George W. Thomas, 225 South 17th, Mrs. Nora Pierce assisting.

"Vince's Electric" Vacuum Cleaner

On All Types Household or Commercial Also Waxers ALL WORK FULLY GUARANTEED Free Pick-up and Delivery PHONE 3-9239

Installation of officers will be held. Mrs. Nick LeRud is the new president. Mrs. Wilmer Brown will lead devotions. There will be reports on the state convention.

VISITORS from Eugene in the capital Saturday were Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Donahue who were en route to the Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland.

Mothers Plan Tea

Highland Mothers' club met last week for the first session of the year in the school auditorium.

The group is planning a tea for the teachers on October 20. Room mothers will be in charge of arrangements.

Glade Follis, principal, gave a special welcome to new mothers of the school. Frank Bennett, city superintendent of schools, was guest speaker, discussing the building program for Salem schools.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served in the cafeteria by the following officers and committee chairmen: Mrs. Russell Shipman, Mrs. Gibson Follis, Mrs. H. W. Scoggin, Mrs. Arthur Boyle, Mrs. Harley Cordray, Mrs. H. A. Hazel, Mrs. A. B. Chapman, Mrs. Ernest Russell, Mrs. Oren Chambers and Mrs. Howard Roberts.

ST. AGNES Troop of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America held its first meeting for the year at the home of Miss Grace Corey. Election of troop officers was the highlight of the meeting.

Officers elected are: Dorothy Wenda, president; Rosemary Dougherty, vice president; Dolores Haener, secretary; Rita Lange, treasurer; Frances Jackson, reporter and Mary Lou Saddler, sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. H. E. Corey, troop counselor related the activities for the coming year.

BACK IN Salem following a week at Neskowin are Mrs. George F. Rogers and her daughter, Mrs. James Hutchison, visitor from Vancouver, B.C. Mrs. Hutchison will be here another week.

SHRINKAGE SOLVED!
Yes... your clothes will not shrink when you send them to STANDARD! Proper sizing is but a part of STANDARD'S usual fine service! Try STANDARD today!
We Give S&H Green Stamps For Better Appearance!
Standard Cleaners and Dyers 362 N. Commercial

Miss Price Entertained

Honoring her daughter, Miss Marjorie Annette Price, and the latter's fiancé, James Richard Zigler, Mrs. Wayne M. Price will entertain at a supper this evening at the Price home. The supper will follow the rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Price and Mr. Zigler.

The wedding is to be an event of Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the prayer room at the First Presbyterian church, the reception following to be in the church fireplace room.

Shower Given
Honoring Miss Price, fellow office workers with her in the state tax commission gave a surprise party at her home, Friday evening. Varied fall flowers were used in decorating and following the informal evening late refreshments were served. The bride-to-be was honored with a miscellaneous shower of gifts.

At the party were Miss Price, Mrs. Don Eshleman, Mrs. Jack Watkins, Mrs. Marvin Totland,

Mrs. Robert Price, Mrs. Jack Fullerton, Mrs. Floyd Lilling, Mrs. Donovan Morisky, Mrs. Frank Rhoads, Mrs. Fred Plesning, Mrs. Darrell Johnson, Miss Ruth Rae, Mrs. Wayne Price.

FRIENDLY NEIGHBORHOOD Garden club met last week at the home of Mrs. William Thomas. Albert K. Wiesendanger, executive secretary of the Keen Oregon Green group, was the guest speaker and showed colored slides also.

The group made plans for the exhibit at the Men's Garden club show, also, it voted to give $10 to the iron lung fund of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Mrs. Helen Grabenhorst and Mrs. Kenneth Bartell were guests at the meeting.

RECEIVING a congratulatory note on the birth of a son Sunday night, October 9, at Salem General hospital are Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. G. Wallace Hug. The little boy, who has been named Wallace Lee, is the grandson of Mrs. George Hug and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee, all of Salem. His mother is the former Patricia Lee.

Madame, are your birthdays showing?

Dorothy Gray Cellogen Cream

Specially priced $1.75 for the first time Regularly $3.50

Now, for the first time, you can have famous Dorothy Gray Cellogen Cream at this special low price! Count on its content of active, estrogenic hormones to help you hide birthdays. You women over 30, who've discovered the modern magic of this fine cream, will surely want to stock up and save. If you haven't yet tried this boon to mature skin, seize this chance—at great savings!
All prices plus tax
Limited time only

Capital Drug Store
State and Liberty
"On the Corner"

PENNEY'S IN SALEM SCORES AGAIN!

Corduroy SUITS

THIS SEASON, IT'S

SEE THIS CALIFORNIA STYLED CASUAL SUIT AT THIS SPECIAL FEATURE PRICE.

You'll see more corduroy worn this fall than for many years — and you'll like it! So come to Penney's tomorrow, for a first-look at corduroy suits the California way, they're really smart! Made of unlined pinwale corduroy, the boxy-style coat shown above has a pencil-slim skirt, cuff and button treatments women of college age will like particularly. It's new, it's distinctive — and so fashion-right, right now!

C&C FEATURE
In Grey Forest Green Royal Brown Red
10⁸⁸
Sizes 10 to 18

AT PENNEY'S
SALEM, OREGON

A Proud Announcement

Alexander's Jewellery

Is newer, larger and better equipped to serve you with the finest jewelry items available.

Diamonds, Silver, Watches, Rings

The most respected brand names. A complete stock for your inspection. Friendly service from a highly skilled sales staff.

These Are the Bywords at Alexander's

Finally... but MOST important... you STILL need never sacrifice to own the finest things at

Alexander's Jewellery

44 COURT

DOUBLE FOR THIS EVENT