

Displaced Estonian Educators Accept Janitorial Work Here
—Mr. and Mrs. Agu Ounapuu, displaced Estonians brought to Salem by Rev. John L. Baglein, accept janitorial duties at St. Marks Lutheran church, 343 Church street. In Estonia Mr. Ounapuu was a teacher of engineering in a technical school and during the war Mrs. Ounapuu served as an interpreter. During the war the family was in Germany. A son perished in Siberia, a daughter recently arrived in the United States.

Four Corners Girl Scout Troop Formed This Week

Four Corners, Oct. 21—Mrs. Raymond Hough as leader and co-leader Mrs. Earl Thulin organized their Girl Scouts troop 42 at the Community hall. The following officers were elected. President Donna Meyers, secretary-treasurer Janet Kleen; scrapbook, Shirley Thulin. Halloween party plans were discussed.

New girls joining at this meeting were Charlotte Smith, Sharon Eggleston, Twila Rickman, Joyce Brant, Denise Miller, Janet Kleen, Diane Keenan and Donna Meyers. Hostess for the day was Charlotte Smith. There were 19 girls present. The next meeting will be October 24 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Hough, 4140 Beck avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Terch and sons Larry and Jimmy who have been residing at 3790 LaBranch avenue, are leaving this week for Berkeley, Calif. Mr. Terch has accepted a position with the California Redwood Association of San Francisco. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota School of Forestry. While here he was employed by Campbell's Rock Wool and Insulation Co., of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Igleheart 2880 LaBranch avenue had as their house guest for a month his sister, Mrs. W. D. Ward of Paradise, Mont. While the visitor was here he held a reunion of relatives, some of whom hadn't seen each other for 26 years. There were Mr. and Mrs. J. Pankey of Phillipsburg, Mont., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cadell of Kirkland, Wash., Mrs. Justis Akers and sons of Ephrata, Wash., Mrs. John Leseal of Sioux City, Iowa, and Mrs. Hilda Burke.

Dr. Willard Stone, Dr. Margaret Dowell and Miss Claudia Donnelly, Marion county health nurse held a health clinic at Lincoln school for first grade students. Assisting were Mrs. Jess McIlvay, Mrs. C. A. Lossner, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Harold Snook.

Princess Margaret May Wed on Birthday

London, Oct. 21 (AP)—Princess Margaret and the American girl with whom she shares her dates were back in London today for a winter social whirl that may bring wedding bells for one or both of them.

Mayfair gossips already were speculating whether Sharman Douglas, 21-year-old daughter of U.S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas, is engaged secretly to the Earl of Westmoreland, who also is considered in the running for Margaret's hand.

Friends of Sharman say it isn't so, however. She and Westmoreland are the "best of friends," but there is no engagement—at least yet, they say.

Margaret, youngest daughter of King George VI and the world's most eligible girl, also is free of romantic entanglements as the social season nears. But the odds in Mayfair are three to two that she will announce her engagement before spring.

Just who the lucky man will be, no one will venture. However, King George has said that Margaret may marry at 20—her 20th birthday is next Aug. 21—and it is known that she is eager to take advantage of the royal concession.

North Salem Community Seeks Drainage Solution

Glenn M. Slentz, North Salem business man, has written the state engineering department for advice and possible assistance in the drainage problem facing the northeast part of the city.

The city of Salem, which had hoped to complete a drainage project there before arrival of the wet season, dropped it temporarily because of refusal of some property owners to give easements, and also because of doubt about legality of paying for it with sewer funds.

To meet the situation this winter the city council authorized the purchase of four pumps and a sewer cleaning machine. It also voted to plan a thorough drainage problem, including financing, for next year. Plans are to be made during the winter so they can be acted on next spring.

The north Salem people, however, want to make sure something is done this winter. Slentz, who lives at 1245 North 18th, and has an implement business at 30 Lana avenue, believes a project might be the business of the state and the county as well as the city, and information about that is one of the things he wants from the state engineer.

Also active in getting people interested is Mrs. H. J. Lowmiller, 3460 Donald way, who said it is a mass movement by the whole north Salem community.

The residents are being assisted by Aldermen Tom Armstrong and David O'Hara, whose wards are in the district that feels distress from water overflow. They have told residents of their wards that they will help them arrange a conference with city officials, and it is possible a conference may be had next week. O'Hara was critical of the city administration for not applying sewer money to the project as first voted by the council. This action was rescinded at the next meeting because of doubt about its legality.

"It was rescinded in about three minutes," O'Hara said, "while 20 minutes was given a parking meter salesman, and the city wasn't in the market for parking meters."

Family of 16 Gets Ovation on Return

Troy, N.Y., Oct. 21 (AP)—A Troy family of 16 who made a 6,000-mile vacation trip to California and back in a school bus received a rousing ovation last night on their return home.

Harry Bayly, his wife and 14 children were met by more than 100 cars which lined up in a triumphal parade. Bayly said, "It was the biggest and finest thrill of the whole trip."

It was just 23 days ago—Sept. 27—that Bayly loaded his family, his parents and Miss Rosemary Warnock of Troy aboard the second-hand bus he had purchased for the trip and started west.

Bayly said the only incidents marring the trip were three flat tires and an arrest at Santa Rosa, N.M.

Bayly had parked the bus at the roadside to fix a flat and police said he should have flares

LET US DO THIS . . .

1. Drain and flush radiator, check heater and connections, install antifreeze.
2. Drain, flush and fill crankcase with winter-weight oil.
3. Replace differential and transmission lube.
4. Check battery and entire ignition system.
5. Install front shields all around.
6. GIVE YOUR CAR AN "UNDERSEAL" Treatment!

"UNDERSEAL" is the rubberized coating we spray on the underbody of your car. It shuts out chilling drafts, protects against rust and corrosion, deadens road rattle, muffles squeaks and rattles, and nullifies body and motor vibration. "UNDERSEAL" is guaranteed for the life of your car.

Sawyer Says U.S. Not to Devalue

Mexico City, Oct. 21 (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer says the United States will not devalue the dollar and does not plan to boost the price of gold.

The American government is not thinking about changing the relationship between the dollar and other currencies in the world, the cabinet officer told a press conference Wednesday night.

Blonde Homecoming Queen

Seattle, Oct. 21 (AP)—University of Washington students are relying on slender, blonde, blue-eyed Joan Harris, 21, Seattle, to dazzle the University of Southern California football team out of victory Oct. 29. The sociology senior was selected homecoming queen yesterday. Her duties include flashing a "welcome back" smile at alumni and sitting on the sidelines charming the Trojans to a standstill.

Mrs. Perkins of Brisbane Sees Veterans at Silverton

Silverton, Oct. 21—With her ever-present address books bulging with more than 800 addresses of GIs, Mrs. Amy Perkins from Brisbane, Australia, is a visitor here.

This is why Mrs. Perkins, lovingly called "Ma Perkins," by her boys, happened to be a local guest:

Mrs. Frank M. Porter (Bessie Benson) has a brother, Bill. Bill has a wife, a former Australian girl, niece of Mrs. Perkins. En route to practically every section of the United States in search of her family of boys, guided by their addresses, Mrs. Perkins is using Mrs. J. A. Starr's Salem home address, 1455 Marion street, Salem, Ore., to which her travel letters are to come and be saved for her.

Mrs. Starr is the mother of Bess and Bill.

The distinguished woman left a few days ago, south. She has letters from every state in the union urging her to visit at homes of Australia-homesick lads who came to her spacious home in Brisbane, always welcome for a night or longer, for meals, and a touch of home contacts that meant much to them. She will see many of them.

Mrs. Perkins said that two doors were always open at her home for the incoming and the outgoing guests.

One Silverton young man, Don Palmer, now in Eugene and not knowing of Mrs. Perkins' Silverton and Salem visit until he saw the story in the Capital Journal, too late to meet her again, is terribly disappointed. Don was one of her favorite visitors in Australia. The disappointment was two-fold, according to Mrs. Perkins.

Mrs. Porter held almost continuous open house at her North
