

Vikings Prepare For Home Finale With Corvallis

Coach Loren Mort's Vikings knuckled down to work Monday to prepare for the tough Corvallis team which is scheduled to meet them Friday at Waters park in the final home game of 1949.

The Vikings face Corvallis, then Astoria and finally Eugene on successive week-ends, but the Friday night game here and the season closer are the only games which count in district of Big Six league standings.

Corvallis has suffered only one set-back in Big Six league play this season, and that a narrow loss to Eugene, a club which was upset Friday by Albany.

A victory for Salem would leave Salem still at the top of the standings, while a loss would throw the league into a likely four-way tie.

The task for the Viking coaching crew is to find some way to fire the team to game pitch from the starting whistle. Friday against Hillsboro, the slow start of the Salem team was the greatest factor in the loss.

New Managers Join Sacs and Suds for 1950

(By the United Press)
Ralph "Red" Kress and Paul Richards joined the managerial ranks in the Pacific coast baseball league today.

Kress, former head coach of the New York Giants, has been hired as manager of the Sacramento Solons, replacing Del Baker who resigned the post last Thursday, club owners announced.

At the same time, General Manager Earl Sheeley of the Seattle Rainiers announced that Richards, former general manager of the Buffalo, N. Y., Bisons, had been signed as manager of the Rainiers. He succeeds Bill Lawrence, who took over the reins near the end of the season after the resignation of Jo-Jo White.

Kress, who started baseball with Tulsa in 1927, has been the Giants' No. 1 coach for the last four years. In the intervening years, he played with the St. Louis Browns and managed St. Paul in the American association. He now resides in Santa Monica.

Richards, one of many Rainier manager prospects sounded out during the summer, signed a two-year contract at an undisclosed salary.

He was nicknamed the "miracle manager" last year for his success in leading the Bisons to the international league pennant. He formerly was a catcher with the Detroit Tigers, Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants in that order.

Sewell Signed To Manage Reds

Cincinnati, Oct. 24 (AP)—Luke Sewell, who led the St. Louis Browns out of baseball's wilderness, today has shouldered the task of trying to do the same for the Cincinnati Reds.

Sewell, a veteran major league catcher, yesterday was named manager of the Reds for 1950 and 1951, succeeding Bucky Walters, who was relieved of his duties in the last week of the 1949 season. Sewell was a coach under Walters during the past season.

Sewell directed the Browns to their one and only American league pennant in 1944.

Capot, Coaltown Meet at Pimlico

Baltimore, Oct. 24 (AP)—Capot and Coaltown—magic names of the turf—meet next Friday in the $15,000 winner-take-all Pimlico special.

Greentree Trainer John Gaver quickly affirmed the speedy Capot would be at the post after Calumet Farm informed the Maryland Jockey club last night that Ponder would not be entered.

Gaver said if Calumet threw both horses at him, he wouldn't enter his Preakness and Belmont winner. That would have given Calumet its third walkover in the 13th running of the race.
