

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Monday, October 24, 1949

Federation Event Set At Aurora

Planned for Friday of this week is the meeting of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs.

The event will be in the Aurora Lutheran church with the Aurora Woman's club and the Hubbard Woman's club as host groups.

Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliff of Salem will be guest speaker and will tell of her recent trip to Europe.

A large group from all parts of Marion county is expected to attend, the federation having many groups on its roster.

Sigma Chi Host to Group

Members of Delta Zeta chapter of Sigma Chi at Willamette university will entertain with an informal picnic lunch Monday evening honoring the remaining candidates in the chapter's contest to find the "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" at Willamette.

The 12 candidates chosen from the initial 25 appearing in the preliminary selection include the following to be honored at tonight's informal event:

Misses Doris Ewen and Sue McElhinney, Salem; Miss Gerry Gossett, Bremerton; Miss Jean Kell, Burlingame, Calif.; Miss Grace Connell, Hillsboro; Miss Norma Drews, Newberg; Miss Audrey Bliss, Palo Alto; Misses Nancy Marks and Delores Fisher, Portland; Miss Dona Mears, Roseburg; Miss Shirley Griffin, Vancouver; Miss Gay Hoisington, White Salmon, Wash.

Jason Lee WSCS Circles Meeting

The Circles of the Jason Lee Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock for dessert luncheon as follows:

January-July with Mrs. E. W. Gallagher, 710 Highland Ave.
February-August with Mrs. George Pro, 1915 Maple Ave.
March-September with Mrs. Roy Roberts, 855 Shipping.
April-October with Mrs. Earl Ayle, 1808 N. Summer.
May-November with Mrs. M. W. Ready, 1555 Madison.
June-December with Mrs. E. Kitzmiller, 1660 N. Church.
Members are asked to bring articles for "Pieces for Peace" packages.

Social Called Off

The social afternoon planned for Tuesday afternoon by members of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will not be held, due to the death of Mrs. Frank E. Wilson, mother of Mrs. D. M. Eby, the worthy matron of Chadwick chapter.

AMONG Salem folk leaving this week for trips south are Mr. and Mrs. Ward Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bowers, who are all to go to Los Angeles, the two men to attend the meeting of the National Institute of Accountants. Mrs. Davis plans to leave Wednesday to visit her mother in Oakland before going on south to Los Angeles.

Salem Girls Named

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 24 (Special)—Miss Marjorie Becke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Becke, 730 North Summer, Salem, and Miss Barbara Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Bates, 520 Rose St., Salem, have been elected officers in their units in Carson hall dormitory on the University of Oregon campus for the school year of 1949-50. Miss Becke, a freshman liberal arts major, was elected secretary-treasurer; and Miss Bates, a junior art major, was elected standards chairman.

Engagements Told at OCE

Monmouth—A party was held in Brainerd parish hall of St. Hilda's Episcopal church at which engagements were announced as follows: Miss Ruth Denney to Hendrick Oorthuys, a professor at Purdue university in Indiana. Miss Alice Pendlebury to Bryan Gouldstone, a section officer in the British merchant marine.

The party was sponsored by Miss Mildred Kane, supervisor of the kindergarten at Oregon College of Education and by Miss Joan Seavey, Oregon College of Education dean of women. Guests, composed mainly of college faculty women and wives of faculty men, were greeted at the door and handed scrolls on which the engagements were announced in gold letters.

Dates for the weddings were not announced but the Denney-Oorthuys service will probably be in the holiday vacation time and the couple will live in Indiana. The Pendlebury-Gouldstone wedding will follow the expiration of Miss Pendlebury's exchange teacher arrangement here which will be in the early summer of 1950.

Mrs. Pearl Heath poured at the refreshment table. She was assisted by Miss Ruth Carter and Miss Minnie Dixon.

Walker-Gustafson

Silverton—At a home ceremony Wednesday evening, October 19, at the Lyons residence of the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Walker, Miss Clara Gustafson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gustafson of Park River, North Dakota, and Walter Walker exchanged their marriage vows in the presence of a few personal friends and members of the family.

The couple plan to make their home in Lyons.

The bride has been a house guest for several months of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gustafson in Silverton.

About 80 local friends met informally Thursday evening at the Drake street home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans spending the hour socially and presenting a shower of gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Walker.

VICTOR POINT—The Silver Cliff Woman's club met at the home of the president, Mrs. William DeLaugh, for the first meeting of the year. Committee chairmen were appointed as follows: Flower, Mrs. Geneva Hubbard; membership, Mrs. W. F. Krenz; hostess, Mrs. F. T. Fox. The hostess served refreshments following the business meeting.

Miss Post and Mr. McCauley Wed Sunday at Church Rites

Bride Sunday afternoon was Miss Shirley Post, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Post, who was wed to Harold W. McCauley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. McCauley. A setting of white, yellow and orchid chrysanthemums was arranged for the wedding in St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. George H. Swift reading the vows at 4 o'clock. For the music, Mrs. Anthony Becker sang and Miss Ruth Bedford played the organ.

For her wedding costume the bride wore a two-piece dusty pink dress of satin. It was fashioned with a rolled low collar, small buttons all the way down the front of the jacket, long pointed sleeves and semi-flared street length skirt. With the dress the bride wore a strand of pearls, a pink satin hat trimmed in brown and brown veiling, and brown accessories. She carried a prayer book on top of which was a white orchid with stephanotis and streamers. Mr. Post gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Charlotte Post was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a steel gray two-piece satin dress, street length, made with buttons down the front and with cape sleeves. She carried a nosegay of pink flowers with streamers and stephanotis.

William Barlow was best man and ushers were Donald Skeelar and Donald Farnam.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a brown silk crepe dress, trimmed with pale blue satin, and brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a wine dressmaker suit with white blouse and black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of roses.

The reception following was at the Argyle drive home of the bride's parents. Fall flowers in yellow, pink, white and orchid shades decorated the table and reception rooms for the event.

Mrs. Jacob Foss served the bride's cake, assisted by Miss Patricia MacNamara. Mrs. Charles Shaw presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Claude H. Post was at the punch bowl. Mrs. Donald Baker passed the dream cake. Miss Jean Doolittle was in charge of the guest book and at the gift table were Miss Lois Burris and Miss Vonna McBride.

Mrs. Leslie H. Leffler greeted guests at the door. Serving were Mrs. Gordon Conrad of Medford, Miss Dorthea Kerns of Vancouver, Miss Shirley Lively, Miss Margaret Sweetland and Miss Lola Mae Windecker.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue silk crepe dress with gray coat and all navy accessories, and corsage of white orchids.

Following a trip through the redwoods and San Francisco the couple will be at home at 1240 Center, after November 2, Mr.

Official to Visit Club

Mrs. L. W. Wirenus of Albany, secretary of International Toastmistress, will be a guest speaker at the regular meeting of Salem Toastmistress, Thursday evening, at 6 o'clock at the Golden Pheasant.

Mrs. Wirenus will give a report on the International Toastmistress convention held in St. Paul. She will also act as general evaluator for the evening.

Acting Toastmistress will be Miss Ada Ross. Other speakers scheduled are Miss Amanda Anderson, Miss Juana Holmes, Mrs. Edward White, Miss Maxine Heringer, Mrs. J. M. Hartley, Mrs. Sue Beech will be hostess.

Garden Group

The garden study group of American Association of University Women is meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. I. Sargent, 225 Forest Hills way, at 7:30 o'clock. Ernest Luffer is to be guest speaker to talk on landscaping. This is a new group for the AAUW and those interested are asked to call 28013.

THE PAST PRESIDENTS' club of Marion auxiliary Veterans of Foreign Wars, met at the home of Mrs. Genevieve Olson for a hobo party last week. Games were played and the prizes went to Mrs. Leon Hansen.

Some table covers for the Veterans hospital at Medford were turned over to Mrs. Ivell Haley, sewing chairman. Prizes for the best costume went to Mrs. Willie Boone and Mrs. Henry Sim.

The next meeting will be at Mrs. Loyal Adkison's home, 1915 N. 24th st., November 17. Present were Mrs. Henry Sim, Mrs. Floyd Blackmore, Mrs. Anna Davis, Mrs. Ivell Haley, Mrs. Russell Mudd, Mrs. Leon Hansen, Mrs. Loyal Adkison, Mrs. Willie Boone, Mrs. LeRoy Simpson and Mrs. Olson.

THE INTERIOR decorating class of the arts and handicrafts group of the First Congregational guild will meet with Mrs. F. E. Gaskins, 2490 North 5th street, Tuesday, at 2 p.m.

Early October Wedding—Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Haynes, (the former Jean Taylor) were married October 2 in Trinity Lutheran church at Astoria. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Taylor of Astoria and is with the Red Cross office staff in Salem. Mr. Haynes, who is with the state police, is the son of Mrs. C. A. Searcy of Beaverton. (Nolan studio, Astoria)

Benefit Thursday

First of the benefit card parties in St. Vincent de Paul parish will be held Thursday in the school hall at 8 p. m. Bridge pinocle and 500 will be played, prizes to be given for every five tables. Refreshments will be served.

Co-chairmen are Mrs. Edmund Weisner, Mrs. Edward Tobin, Mrs. Richard Upjohn, Mrs. Carl Vogl, Mrs. Cletus Woods, Mrs. Sidney Trott. They will be assisted by members whose names begin with T and those letters through the alphabet from there.

MR. AND MRS. Gordon O. Leonard returned the latter part of the week from a trip to California. They are moving to Santa Rosa to make their home. Mr. Leonard to leave Monday. Mrs. Leonard and daughter to be here until November 7.

THERE WILL be no meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America Sewing club this week nor until further notice.

Benefit on Tuesday Eve

Hanna Rosa court, Order of the Amaranth, is holding a benefit card party Tuesday night, October 25, at 8 o'clock at the Mayflower hall, Bridge. 500 and pinocle will be in play. Reservations are being made with Mrs. William Wilson and Mrs. Don Patton. Players are being asked to bring their own table accessories.

The interested public is invited. Mr. and Mrs. Flynn Faught are in charge of the party.

MRS. JESSIE SINGLETON was hostess last week to the Salem Writers' club. Mrs. Flora Enders conducted the meeting. Mrs. Lloyd A. Smith became a member. Mrs. Grace W. Covey was a guest. Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Anderson will be hosts to the club on November 16. Reading original work in poetry were Mrs. Frances Anderson, Mrs. Grace Covey, Miss Marjorie Marriott, and Mrs. Blanche Jones. Prose was offered by Miss Renska Swart, Prof. M. E. Peck, Mrs. Effie Maye White, Mrs. Flora Enders and Mrs. Jessie Singleton. Perry Reigleman read a dramatic play. Others present were Mrs. M. E. Peck, Mrs. Robert Hutchison and Mrs. Charles A. Lytle of Lebanon.

AFTERNOON literature group of the American Association of University Women is to meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. S. Ankney, 2095 South Winter, dessert to be at 1:15 o'clock.

$$$ MONEY $$$

FHA

4 1/2% Real Estate Loans
Farm or City
Personal and Auto Loans

State Finance Co.
153 S. High St. Lic. 8-216 M-222

Two Couples Plan at Home

Among those entertaining at the late week will be Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. William Schlitt.

The two couples have invited friends for an informal at home on Saturday at the North Summer street home of Mr. and Mrs. Simmons for an at home, guests being asked to call between 7 and 11 o'clock.

WOODBURN—The regular meeting of St. Mary's Episcopal Church Women's auxiliary will be held Tuesday, at 2 p.m. in the parish house, according to Mrs. C. W. Kersten, president. Preceding the business session the vicar, Rev. Clarence C. Slocum, will give a short talk on some phases of the nature and work of the church life and mission. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lyle Skiller and Mrs. Matthew Mochel.

FROM KLAMATH FALLS comes news of the birth of a daughter, Michele Ann, to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nelson, Jr., on October 20 at Klamath Valley hospital. Grandparents are Mrs. Helen E. Taw of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nelson, Sr., of Salem, and the great grandmother is Mrs. Hallie Hinges, also of Salem.

★★★★★★

DULL! DARK! GLOOMY!

Depressing, words aren't they? Can you apply them to your HOME? ... OR OFFICE? If so, brighten up! Lighten up! Consult Salem's own LIGHTING ENGINEER'S SERVICE... SALEM LIGHTING AND APPLIANCE COMPANY for a survey of present lighting, layouts for modern, IMPROVED lighting plans WITHOUT COST OR OBLIGATION! DIAL 3-9412... today!

★★★★★★

Salem Lighting & Appliance Co. 238 N. High

NOW!

IT'S HERE — COME ENJOY THE BENEFITS OF

PENNEY'S BIRTHDAY

WOMEN'S CHENILLE ROBE VALUE

There are just 99 of these fine chenille robes available at the low, low birthday feature price of

3 98

PENNEY'S SECOND FLOOR

- Lovely Aqua, Blue, Red Shades
- Thickly Tufted Chenille
- Collar With Belted Front
- Long Sleeved Styles

PENNEY'S

SALEM, OREGON

don't waste another minute get your

TOPCOATS-OVERCOATS

beautifully drycleaned and finished

NOW!

MAN'S or LADIES'

Come clean — it's gettin' cold outside! Your coats will be cleared of every bit of dust — and finished with meticulous care! Save time — and save money — bring 'em in now!

Electric Cleaners

565 Highland Ph. 3-4821

THIS OCTOBER DISCOVER OUR FINER DRY-CLEANING

Johnson Casuals

Our city and college separates, to be donned and worn from this day forward for school, office or any pursuit your schedule indicates.

Left, a short-sleeved lamb's wool slip-on. Soft as cashmere, it looks like cashmere, it feels like cashmere. Hand fashion in lush shades of brown, green, wine, beige, grey and heather. Sizes 36 to 40. 10⁹⁵

Right, a Bermuda classic slip-on of fine gauge knit. Long sleeved and hand fashioned in green, aqua, wine and jade. Sizes 10 to 16. 6⁹⁵

With a knife pleated, 100% wool skirt in gay Scotch plaid. Sizes 10 to 16. 8⁹⁵

To wear with it, an all around pleated shadow check skirt of hard finished wool and rayon. Sizes 10 to 16. 8⁹⁵

Accent them with a small scarf, all silk in lovely solid colors, and only— 89c

Johnson's
Store for Ladies
Salem, Oregon