

Miss Bull, Mr. Hjort Wed Saturday

The First Congregational church was the scene for a wedding Saturday evening when Miss Darline Grace Bull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney L. Bull, was married to Robert Carl Hjort, son of Mrs. Halldan J. Hjort of Salem and the late Mr. Hjort.

Lavender, yellow and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the church for the wedding. The service took place at 7 o'clock. Dr. Seth R. Huntington officiating.

Mrs. Jack Brown in an ice blue gown and Miss Mavis Beck wearing a peach formal, lighted the tapers. For the music, Miss Beverly Kenney sang, Jean Hobson Rich at the organ.

Mr. Bull gave his daughter in marriage. The bridegroom was of white satin, fashioned with long sleeves and a train. The double veil was edged in lace and was arranged from a pearlized crown. For her flowers she carried an arrangement of white chrysanthemums with an orchid.

Mrs. Robert Guthner was honor attendant for her sister. She wore yellow and her flowers were lavender chrysanthemums and she wore some of the same flowers in her hair.

Miss Jeannie Bull, sister of the bride, and Miss Winona Breuninger of Seattle, both in lavender formal, were the bridesmaids. They wore yellow chrysanthemums in their hair and carried bouquets of the same blossoms.

Dennis R. Guthner, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Ronald Bartlett was best man for Mr. Hjort. Roy Rice and Ralph Lisle were groomsmen and the ushers were Raymond Crumme and William Perlich, Jr.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bull wore a brown afternoon dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a cinnamon brown afternoon dress.

The reception was in the church parlors. Mrs. Raymond Crumme, sister of the bridegroom, served the bride's cake. Mrs. Earl Bull presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Glen Roberts was at the punch bowl. Serving were Miss Barbara

Miss Hauth Wed Oct. 15

Mt. Angel—In afternoon ceremonies, October 15, Miss Rose Theresa Hauth was wed to R. Stanley Ferrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Ferrell of Newberg, at the St. Mary's church, Mt. Angel. The Rev. Damian Jentges, O.S.B. read the service for the double ring rites in a setting of large baskets and bouquets of chrysanthemums and lighted candelabrum. Her brother, Fred Hauth, gave her in marriage. Miss Helen Keber played the marches, and was accompanist for Miss Pauline Saalfeld and Miss Eustelle Bauman who sang.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Wendell Hauth, and the late Mr. Haut, wore a gown of traditional white satin, fashioned with pointed waistline and basque bodice, deep yoke of marquisette, wide French lace ruffle at the low shoulder line, long sleeves, and a court train. A headress of the tulle and seed pearls held the veil, made double, and fingertip in length. She carried a white pearl rosary with a white orchid and satin streamers.

Miss Mary Ann Hauth stood as honor maid for her sister, and Miss Eleanor Hauth was her sister's bridesmaid. Both attendants were dressed identically in gowns of orchid satin. They were styled with a three-fold tailored shawl collar of matching satin on fitted bodice and floor length skirts. Their ensembles included matching mitts, satin bandeau headdresses, and gold crosses on chain. Their yellow and white fall flowers were in colonial bouquets.

Charles Ferrell was best man for his brother and Frederick Douglas was the groomsmen. Ushers were Donald Hauth and William Anderson.

The reception was held in the St. Mary's dining hall. Mrs. Charles Deal and Miss Georgiana Hauth, sisters of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Charles Ferrell and Miss Caroline Ferrell opened the gifts, and the guest book. At the punch bowl were Miss Annela Bauman and Miss Bertha Hasting. Pouring and serving were the Misses Mary Diehl, Donna Diehl, LaVonne Frey, Phillis Wolf, and cousins Bernadette Hauth and Marilyn Hauth.

The couple will reside in Salem upon their return from a honeymoon trip to California. The bride chose a wine dress, blue coat and blue and gray accessories for her going away. Her white orchid was pinned to her coat lapel.

LANSING Neighbors' Garden club has planned a meeting for Thursday at the home of Mrs. Daisy Tobin, 81 Lansing avenue. Dessert will be at 1:30 o'clock.

HUBBARD—The Hubbard Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. A. W. deLospinase for an extension demonstration by Miss Betty Ann Boettcher, assistant county home demonstration agent. Her subject was Window Treatments. Guests of the day were the seven women teachers of the Hubbard grade school, Mrs. Roy Duncan, Mrs. J. H. Redden, Mrs. Odgers, Mrs. Axtel, Mrs. Cyril McNary, Mrs. Fern Foster and Miss Ruby Kennedy, also Mrs. Harry Scher, Mrs. Charles Vredenburg, Mrs. Wensell Donbrava and Susan Jane, Mrs. Ben Miller and a former member, Mrs. Grace Kramer. Mrs. Cramer and Mrs. Lester Keller presided at the tea and coffee urns. The club voted to have charge of the Community Chest drive.
