Tiny Feather Proves Undoing of Hunters

Yakima, Oct. 26 (AP)—A tiny feather proved to be the undoing of a pair of Yakima hunters.

When James Layne handed a punch card to game department inspectors a grouse feather dropped out. It led to discovery of three grouse in the hunting car of Layne and Clarence Patrick.

The Yakima men were fined $35 each for possession of grouse out of season.

Ellsworth Asks for Car Shortage Probe

Roseburg, Oct. 26 (AP)—Rep. Harris Ellsworth said yesterday he would ask the interstate commerce commission to probe the freight car allocation policy of the Southern Pacific.

The commission Tuesday met without Pietro Belluschi, architect, being present. Another meeting will be called for the near future with Belluschi present when, it is understood, the matter of the exterior will come up for further consideration.

U. S. Marine Dan Daly had the rare distinction of twice winning the congressional medal of honor, the nation's highest award. He received the first award for service in China in 1900 and 15 years later won the medal again for action against Haitian bandits. The famed leatherneck died in 1937.

TAKES BEATING OVER WHISKERS

Wearing Beard Earns Him Money, but Displeasure of Wife

Hollywood, (AP)—Whenever you see a man in the movies with a fancy beard, the chances are it's Robert Adler. Adler's been cutting, trimming and re-growing his beard to so many specifications that he feels like a French poodle being clipped for a dog show.

Adler has been bearded constantly since 1946, when he first sprouted for "Captain From Castle." The bosses liked it so well they haven't let him shave since. "My roles have been getting better and better," he admitted, "and my beards have, too. I don't grow just ordinary beards. They have to be plucked and trimmed to definite specifications."

"My first beard was supposed to be a copy of one worn by an aide of Cortez named Verry de Mendoza. That required a full growth with a scooped out, scalloped effect on each cheek. And I had to shape it with a tweezers! A razor might have cut off one hair too many."

Ever since that beard, Adler has been growing them in 20th Century-Fox films like "Fury at Furnace Creek," "Yellow Sky" (in which his beard made a national picture magazine), "Broken Arrow," and now "Ticket to Tomahawk."

"I'm wearing an uncomplicated full 'bum's beard' in that," he added. "I hope the director like it. I'm tired of being plucked like a fowl."

Whether the director likes it or not, Adler is sure of one thing. Mrs. Adler will not. "We celebrated our 14th wedding anniversary recently," Adler said. "She insisted on staying home, didn't want to go out. She says she can't stand the titters that follow me in public."

His son, Robin, 10, doesn't like the beard either.

"The first time I took him to the school bus was the last," Adler observed. "The other kids made some penetrating comments on my appearance. Things like 'weed face.'"

As a result of his beards, Adler never has to take the little woman out nights. She won't go with him.

"She won't even let me go shopping with her any more," he said. "Two years ago we went shopping together so she could pick her gift for our wedding anniversary. We went to a pretty expensive store. While we were going up in the elevator someone whispered: 'He must be an Eskimo gold miner on a big city spree!'"

And as for kissing her, Mrs. Adler's statement is: "It feels like those metal-mesh sponges I scrub the pots with."

Picture or no, Adler says, his wife has demanded that he be clean-shaven by next June 14, their 15th wedding anniversary. Otherwise, she said, he'll be single on June 15.

"I've requested my annual vacation," he said, "for next June."

14 Injured in Apartment Blast

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 26 (AP)—Fourteen persons were injured, three seriously, when an explosion late last night ripped apart a four-apartment building in a housing project.

The blast and what residents of the stucco structure called a flash of flame left it a mass of debris—caved-in walls, smashed furniture and crazily crumbled roof.

It threw some persons in nearby units in the Cedar Springs housing project in North Dallas out of bed. Every one in the building was hurt.

Battalion Fire Chief J. W. Owens said he had no idea what caused the explosion.

Leroy Shannon, 28, said the blast occurred in his apartment. He said he had smelled gas for several days and had reported it to the maintenance man.

Shannon said "workmen repaired the stove in Mrs. Ballard's apartment today."

Mrs. Herbert Station, another of the less seriously injured, said she had been smelling gas for several days in the housing unit.

Eight of the 14 injured were children.

State Treasurer Divorced by Wife

Oregon City, Oct. 26 (AP)—Elizabeth C. Pearson was granted a divorce in circuit court here yesterday from State Treasurer Walter J. Pearson.

The decree was issued by Judge E. C. Latourette. Property settlement calls for sale of property in Portland with the first $10,000 being awarded to Mrs. Pearson. She will also receive $280 a month alimony until January, 1953.

clean-shaven by next June 14, their 15th wedding anniversary. Otherwise, she said, he'll be single on June 15.

"I've requested my annual vacation," he said, "for next June."

To Ask New Trial on Boat Accident Verdict

Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 26 (AP)—Phil Davis, wealthy auto dealer, said today he would seek to overturn his conviction for negligent operation of a speedboat which allegedly severed the legs of 14-year-old Imogene Wittsche of Lake Tahoe last summer.

Davis, of Oakland, Cal., said he would ask for a new trial or appeal the verdict.

Davis was found guilty Monday by a jury which took only an hour to determine that he was negligently operating the boat when its propeller cut off both legs of the young girl while she was swimming.

Timber-cut Receipts Up

Eugene, Oct. 26 (AP)—Willamette National forest timber-cut receipts increased in the third quarter, but slight decreases in volume and appraisal on timber sold during the period were reported. Ending Sept. 30, timber cut this year totaled 66,426,000 board feet with a valuation of $747,079.

Last year's totals for the same period were 69,985,000 board feet valued at $715,329.

Ex-Film Director Looking for Job

Hollywood, Oct. 26 (AP)—A man who once made a half-million dollars a year in the movies now is advertising for a job.

He is B. P. Schutberg, who between 1925 and 1932 was managing director of production for Paramount Studios. He ran full page ads in film and trade papers yesterday, citing his third of a century service to the films and adding: "Industry loyalty is a two-way street."

In one ad he said: "Some of my friends who are not top executives tell me that doors are closed because I have in my time talked back to some of the big boys."

Asked about his financial status, Schutberg told a reporter: "I'm not broke. But I need to start being active in business—and right now, too."

Talmadge Zoning Bill Defeated 47 to 12

Independence, Ore., Oct. 26—By a margin of approximately four to one the proposed Talmadge zoning district was defeated at a special election Tuesday. The tally was 47 to 12.

The district involved property bounding the Independence-Monmouth highway for a distance of 1000 feet from each side of the highway and between the city limits of each town. Only land owners living in the proposed area were eligible to vote. Approval of the district would have brought regulation of future construction.

Reading Club Hears Oregon History Bits

Dayton—The Pleasant Hour Reading club met at the home of the president, Mrs. Lloyd Shawver. There were 16 present. Mrs. A. J. French had charge of the lesson which was Oregon history. She chose southwestern Oregon as she had lived for many years in the Coos Bay area. She gave a book review of "Destination West" by Mrs. Lockhart, who spent most of her early days in that section of the country. As conclusion, Mrs. French read her own original poem, "Coos Bay."

Following the club collect, refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Vernon Foster November 4.

BE SURE TO GET COMPLETE CONTEST RULES AT SAFEWAY

It's our family's whiskey, neighbor—and it's sure tasty and mild!

Look what our neighbors went and did to celebrate our 63 years of whiskey making!

I don't mind telling you when all our well wishing neighbors lugged that handsome horseshoe to our front stoop, I couldn't hardly speak up to say thank you. Even our dog Jessie never let out the least little bark at them. She only just looked kind of proud, like maybe she understood it all.

You folks sure act grateful for getting extra tasty whiskey!

It's the selfsame whiskey as us old time distillers enjoy amongst ourselves.

—they're all of the same mind when it comes to enjoying Our Personal Recipe. Well—that's what comes out of our sixty odd years of distilling experience I expect. Ever since Grandpa Wilken's day we've been picking up a little here and a little there concerning everything that puts extra tastiness into a whiskey. And in Our Personal Family's Recipe, you've got all that those sixty or so years of distilling taught us. I'm plumb certain when you taste it, you'll almost feel like hugging yourself for having stopped to buy a bottle!
