

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Wednesday, Oct. 26, 1949

Salemites To Attend OSC Game

Many Salem folk will be journeying to Corvallis this coming Saturday for the annual Oregon State college homecoming and the football game that afternoon with Washington State college.

On the homecoming calendar for the day is the barbecue luncheon given at the armory preceding the game. The various classes will gather at the armory during the luncheon, each one having a section marked off with its numerals. Following the game the alumni also gather at the armory, the Corvallis alumni group serving coffee and doughnuts. Also, that evening the various fraternities and sororities have their events honoring alumni.

Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay are among those going from here for the homecoming festivities on the college campus and the game.

Among others going are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guerin, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Maple, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bever, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gartz, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hann.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Chambers, Miss Doratheia Steusloff.

THE NINTH GRADE Teen Queens, a Y-Teen group of the Salem YWCA, under the leadership of Miss Louisa Lamb, have resumed fall meetings.

The officers for the year include Carol Van Hess, vice president; Lynn Gilstrap, secretary-treasurer; Dona Stewart, worship; Sherry Brinkley, social chairman; Doris Starrett, song leader.

The group, under the guidance of Miss Geneva Phillips, student at Willamette, is planning a no-host dinner to honor new members.

THE WOMEN'S Bible class of the First Methodist church is meeting for its social, Friday, at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Oren Stratton and Mrs. Addie Park, 239 South Cottage. Mrs. Bertha Cook is to lead the devotions.

HOME from a few days in Longview are Mrs. Wayne Hadley and children, Eileen and Alan. Mr. Hadley accompanied them for the week-end, the family being guests at the home of Mr. Hadley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hadley.

WOODBURN—The regular meeting of the Mothers' circle of DeMolay will be held in the Masonic parlors, Thursday evening, October 27 and new officers will be elected. All members are urged to be present. Refreshments will be served to the DeMolay boys by Mrs. J. B. Gay, Mrs. C. H. Ahrens and Mrs. George Rogers.

The mothers are busy sewing on the new DeMolay robes and have six robes completed. They have also completed a new altar cloth.

Miss Simon Recent Bride

Miss Maxine Carole Simon and John Allen Bond, both of Salem, were married at a morning ceremony on October 22 in the fireplace room of the Calvary Baptist church, the Rev. Victor Hugo Sword reading the double ring ceremony.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brassfield, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

For her wedding the bride chose a gray tailored suit with green accessories, and her carriage was of gardenias.

A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's mother, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Simon, aunt of the bride, who also served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Bond is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Frank Simon and the late Mr. Simon of Salem and Mr. Bond is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Bond of Rupert, Idaho.

After a wedding trip to the beaches, the couple will be at home November 1 on South Liberty street.

Community Service Listed by Unit

Unit No. 136, American Legion auxiliary, held its meeting last evening. Mrs. I. N. Bacon, president of district No. 2, being a guest to discuss membership quotas.

In the reports it was revealed the unit has given 315½ hours of community service through the Community Chest and the Red Cross blood program.

Homer Smith, Jr., past commander of Post No. 136, American Legion, dedicated the colors given by the post to the unit.

The program featured a talk by Farley Mogan on his recent trip to Germany where he was on special assignment with the secretary of army as consultant on German rural police administration.

Miss Ann Gibbens played piano selections.

At the social hour, Mrs. I. N. Bacon and Mrs. Harlan A. Judd presided at the tea table.

Secretaries Meet

National Secretaries' association held its dinner meeting Tuesday evening at the Senator hotel. Guests included Miss Doris Albin, Miss Edlyn Holmquist, Miss Loretta Muhs, Miss Mildred Stookey, Mrs. Pearl Victor.

Mrs. Evelyn Whitmaker of the information department, state department of aeronautics, was guest speaker and told of her non-stop flight from Vancouver to Tijuana.

DETROIT—The Detroit Woman's Civic club met at the high school home economics room with Miss Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, as guest and speaker. She showed the film, "It's All Yours." There were 29 present including three or four guests. Mrs. Joe Wright and Mrs. Ray Sophy were hostesses for the evening. Miss Stephens spent the following morning helping Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Earl Parker in the Detroit library which is also sponsored by the Civic club.

Mid-October Bride—Mrs. Raymond Dalton Davis, the former Elizabeth Joan Beck, was married October 15 at the Canby Methodist church. Mrs. Davis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beck of Silverton. Mr. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davis. (Kraft studio, Canby)

Berning-Jackson Rites Solemnized at Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—Autumn leaves and chrysanthemums in shades of yellow, bronze, and mahogany lighted by candles, decked St. Mary's Catholic church in Mt. Angel Saturday morning for the marriage of Miss Elsie Mavis Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Jackson of Silverton, to Louis Berning, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Berning of Mt. Angel. The Rev. Vincent Koppert, OSB, officiated at the nuptial high mass and read the vows before the large gathering of relatives and friends at 9:30 o'clock. Miss Helen Keber was organist for the processional and recessional marches. She also was accompanist for Mrs. W. P. Scarth, Jr., of Silverton, who sang before the bridal group entered the church and preceding the recessional, and for the St. Mary's choir singing the mass.

Mr. Jackson escorted his daughter down the aisle and gave her in marriage. The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with a sweetheart neckline, self covered button down the back of the tight fitting bodice, long sleeves pointed at the wrist, Chantilly lace at the shoulder line, and a peplum bordered with Chantilly lace extending to a deep vee on the full court train. A Juliet cap dotted with seed pearls, held the fingertip veil of illusion and the bride carried a white shower spray of stephanotis and bouvardia centered with a white orchid. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Gale Jackson was maid of honor for her sister, wearing a gown of sage green satin. A braided satin halo held the shoulder length net veil, and her ensemble, all in sage green satin, included mitts, and a satin muff which held a crescent spray of bronze pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Sisters Attend
Sisters of the couple, Miss Donna Jackson and Miss Mary Alice Berning, were the bridesmaids, wearing antique gold satin gowns. They wore antique gold satin braided headresses which held the matching net veils made shoulder length, and matching satin mitts. Each carried a satin muff with crescent spray of mahogany pom-pom chrysanthemums. All the attendants' gowns were fashioned identically with fitted bodices topped by double collars in portrait style and full gathered skirts made floor length. They all wore a single strand of pearls.

Cousins of the bridegroom, Leon Berning, served as best man, Aymard Berning and Victor Berning as the groomsmen, and Al Berning and Wallace Estenson, uncle of the bride, served as ushers.

Mrs. Jackson chose a brown mixture wool suit for her daughter's wedding, with green and brown accessories, and a Talisman rose corsage was pinned to her coat lapel.

The bride's grandmother,

BPW Dinner On Tuesday

An international relations program featured the dinner meeting for the Salem Business and Professional Women's club last evening.

Miss Hattie Bratzel was guest speaker, commenting on her 18 months in Europe when she went to Germany to serve as secretary to Justice James T. Brand when he was on the war crimes tribunal. She showed a large collection of pictures she took while in Germany and on some of her travels to Italy, France, Switzerland, Norway, England, etc. Miss Bratzel remained in Europe several months after Justice and Mrs. Brand had returned to the United States.

Special guests of the evening were five students from foreign countries at Willamette university. Mrs. Regina Ewalt, dean of women on the campus, was a guest at the meeting and introduced the following students: Miss Ursula Boysen, Philippine islands, originally of Germany; Miss Genowefa Krzyzkowska, Poland; Mrs. Zdenka Pospisil, Czechoslovakia; Miss Astrid Tarem, Estonia; Miss Taneko Tsubaki, Hawaii.

Other guests at the dinner, attended by more than 80, included Mrs. Jack J. Biller, Mrs. Gracye Stewart, Mrs. I. A. DeFrance, Mrs. J. C. Herron, Mrs. Lowell Stien, Mrs. Robert Drager, Mrs. Pat Lehto.

Reports were given on the recent district conference at Lebanon for the BPW clubs of this district, and a business session followed the dinner.

Mrs. Bertha Estenson of Silverton, was dressed in a gray ensemble, with which she wore a mauve chrysanthemum corsage. Mrs. Hester Jackson, who came from Arcadia, Calif. for her granddaughter's wedding, was dressed in a blue and pink silk print afternoon dress, and navy accessories. Her corsage was of white button chrysanthemums.

The breakfast for 25 guests was held at the Mt. Angel hotel at 11:30 a. m. An arrangement of white candles and chrysanthemums guarded the wedding cake which centered the bride's table. Ardis Estenson and Ruth Kaiser, cousins, served at the breakfast.

Reception Given
The couple was honored at a reception held at the Silverton armory during the afternoon. Pouring at the coffee urn was Mrs. Wallace Estenson. Mrs. Hillary Etzel of Salem, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. James Paulsen of Silverton, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Harold Wellman passed the guest book. Mrs. Anthony DeSantis of Silverton, Mrs. Ray Elliot of Eugene and Mrs. Homer Kuper of Salem had charge of the gift table. Assisting at serving were the Misses Annella Bauman, Joanne Berning, Ruth Kaiser, cousins of the bridegroom, and Miss Ardis Estenson, cousin of the bride.

When leaving for a two-weeks wedding trip the bride was wearing a gray satin dress, gray hat, a green fitted coat with the white orchid pinned to the lapel, and black accessories. The young couple will reside at Mt. Angel.

Named on Staff

University of Oregon, Eugene (Special)—Two students from Salem have been appointed to the editorial staff of the 1950 Oregon book on the University of Oregon campus. Miss Marilyn Archibald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Archibald, 1530 Ferry street, is executive secretary and Miss Jeanne Hoffman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman, 515 Rose street, is assistant editor of activity clubs and honoraries section and the women's sports.

Miss Archibald is a senior advertising major and Miss Hoffman is a sophomore sociology major.

New Member in VFW's Auxiliary

Mrs. Lloyd Grim was welcomed as a new member in Marion auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Monday evening at a regular meeting at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

Committee reports were given by Mrs. Don Stupka, Mrs. Mel Clemens, Mrs. Joe Horneffer, Mrs. Iva Hamilton and Mrs. Alice Siewert. Presentation of the washing machine for polio patients will be made by the president, Mrs. Mae Wilder, when it arrives. The sewing committee met at Mrs. Ivel Haley's home Friday evening and a meeting is planned for the third Friday of each month. The audit committee met with Mrs. Lena Osborne recently.

Mrs. Mae Wilder, president of the auxiliary will entertain the Macto Animo club, Tuesday, November 1, at 530 N. 17th street. Marion auxiliary will sponsor two Brownie troops. The auxiliary did this last year and Mrs. Irene Meier gave a short talk on troop No. 28. Plans will be made at the next meeting about sponsoring them.

Following the meeting the auxiliary joined the post for pictures shown by Mrs. Clayton Jones on Yellowstone park.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Virginia Aeschlemann, Mrs. Willie Boone, Mrs. Neils Jensen and Mrs. Kenneth Frad.

MARIO—A miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Miles Arthur was given at the home of Mrs. George Kiks with Mrs. F. Thirkele assisting. Present were Mesdames Jake Kneiling, J. L. Calavan, E. Hampton, W. Metzler, F. C. Schermacher, A. Millard, C. Guess, Virgil Baxter, H. DeLaugh, W. Mayors, T. Edward, G. Hageman and B. Woolridge.

Reception for Mrs. Robinson

Independence—Mrs. Paul Robinson, grand conductress of the grand chapter of Oregon, Order of Eastern Star, will be honored at a reception to be held in the Masonic hall, Independence, Saturday evening, October 29 at 8 o'clock.

Guests from all parts of the state are expected.

Mrs. Robinson is on the teaching faculty of Bush school in Salem, teaching the fifth grade.

Rebekah Lodge

Salem Rebekah lodge was presented a program of music and dancing at its meeting Monday evening.

Mrs. Martha Hrupetz gave two vocal selections. Mrs. Teddy Jenks of Van's school of dancing and several of her pupils gave several numbers. Miss Dorothy Pederson played piano numbers.

Mrs. Clarence Kimball gave a report on the Salem Council of Women's Organizations.

The Three Links club was announced to meet on Friday at 1:30 p. m. instead of the usual time, a card party being planned.

The Ladies auxiliary is meeting Thursday evening at the IOOF hall.

A Halloween carnival, in charge of the F. L. club, will be given at the lodge meeting next Monday evening.

90th Birthday Event

Mrs. Regina Weston was hostess Monday evening at her home on North Commercial street for a family gathering honoring her mother, Mrs. Katherine Domogalla, on the latter's 90th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Domogalla entertained the group with tales of her very early life in Wisconsin, where she was born; of traveling as a little girl by covered wagon to Minnesota, and of her honeymoon to Oregon 70 years ago with her husband, Frank Domogalla. Mr. Domogalla, who was well known in Salem and surrounding country, passed away in 1932.

Besides Mrs. Weston, Mrs. Domogalla has four other living children, Frank of Pomona, Calif.; E. A. and Joseph M., of Salem, and Mrs. Johanna Westley of Astoria.

PAST PRESIDENTS club of the American Legion auxiliary, Capital unit No. 9, are meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. James H. Turnbull, 1365 North 21st, dessert to be at 7:30 o'clock.

GOTTONS

have such endearing young charms!

Fashions as gay as a rhapsody in swing! Designed with smooth sophistication for young sizes! These are the clothes that go places. Be in style around the house on these colder days with colorful autumn plaids that have those winning ways.

Prices range from the perky $2.98er's to The Highly Styled $7.98er's.

The Moderne

305 Court

Phone 3-3808

SEAMPRUFE

sizes you up!

in the slip that's "figure proportioned"

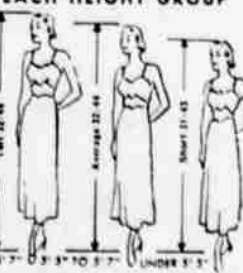

Just give your height (with shoes on) and bust measurements... and SEAMPRUFE "sizes you up".

The SEAMPRUFE is made from finest BUR-MIL multifilament rayon crepe... enhanced with dainty embroidered scalloped detail or Alencon type lace embroidery. In Alabaster White and Black Pearl.

2.98

3.98

SEVEN SIZES FOR EACH HEIGHT GROUP

NOTE: Height Measured With Shoes On.

You'll find SEAMPRUFE where you find "the highest consideration for the lowest price always" at

Johnson's

SEARS ROEBUCK AND CO.

Shop 'til 9:00 P. M. Friday

stunning lustrous

velour hats

special purchase!

$4

Yes, ladies! Dollars less than you'd expect to pay for velour! Here are fashion-new side-drape berets, manipulated turban effects, off-face brims, many other important styles too, in rich, luxurious velour you've always wanted. Lovely new shades, sizes 22 to 23.

Plenty of Free Parking
9 N. Capital, Phone 39191
Daily 9:30 to 3:30
Friday 9:30 to 9

Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back