

Try Cheese for Zest Favorite Pancakes

Cottage Cheese Filled Pancakes . . . Luncheon Treat

Good news for cheese lovers! Cheese is one of the dairy foods now in plentiful supply. You'll find all sorts of fascinating varieties in markets all over the country. For dessert or an evening party arrange grapes and pears with an assortment of cheese. Or arrange a tray of wedges of blue, cheddar, and Munster cheese, a baby Gouda (sliced part way through), a roll of smoked cheddar, and a pineapple cheese (in the center), with the top cut off in a scalloped design.

For a luncheon menu try the following pancakes prefaced with a hearty soup:

Cottage Cheese Filled Pancakes

Ingredients: For Filling—1 pound dry cottage cheese, 1 egg, dash of salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoons finely crushed cracker crumbs or cracker meal. For Batter—2 eggs, 1 cup cold water, 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon salt. Butter for frying, sour cream, currant or guava or peach plum jelly.

Method: Prepare filling first—press the cheese through a strainer, add the egg, salt, sugar, and cracker crumbs or cracker meal and mix well.

To make the batter—Beat the eggs well in a mixing bowl with an electric mixer or rotary beater; add the water and beat again to combine. Add the flour gradually, and the salt, beating to make a smooth batter. (Strain batter, if necessary, pressing out any flour lumps.) Heat about 1/2 teaspoon butter in a 6-inch aluminum skillet over low heat until very hot. Pour in just enough batter (about 2 tablespoons) to cover bottom with a thin film; lift the pan from the heat with the left hand as you pour and tilt and swirl batter around bottom of pan so it will until package is set—about 1 minute; it should not brown. Run evenly. Cook over low heat

Turn out on waxed paper, fried side up, to cool. When all pancakes have been turned out place 2 level tablespoons of the cheese mixture in the center of the fried side. Fold lower half of pancake over cheese, fold over side sections next pressing them down, then fold over onto remaining section. When ready to serve put about a teaspoon of butter in the skillet over low heat, then carefully put in 4 of the pancakes. Fry slowly until they begin to get golden brown, then turn and fry on other side. Keep hot while you fry other pancakes. (Or use large size skillet and fry as many as possible at once.) Serve immediately with sour cream and jelly. Makes 12 pancakes.
