

Judge Tooze to Hear Labor Case

Chief Justice Hall S. Lusk of the Oregon supreme court today assigned Circuit Judge Walter L. Tooze of Multnomah county to The Dalles to hear the petition of the port of The Dalles for a temporary injunction against picketing of the port by the CIO Longshorem.

The port of The Dalles is seeking the injunction against picketing of the port after apparent settlement of the recent "hot pineapple" dispute which flared into violence at The Dalles.

Longshorem say the current picketing has nothing to do with the pineapple dispute, but is in an effort to organize Longshorem at The Dalles, where they say the present pay rate is below that at Portland and other organized coast ports.

The union requested that Wasco County Circuit Judge M. W. Wilkinson be replaced for the hearing of the injunction. Justice Lusk then assigned Judge Tooze to hear the case in place of Judge Wilkinson.

The Hawaiian Pineapple company sent a barge load of pineapples to The Dalles, to be unloaded for transfer to California canneries after, its spokesmen said, AFL longshorem at Tacoma, Wash., had refused to cross CIO longshore picket lines to unload the pineapple in that Puget Sound port. When violence flared at The Dalles, the pineapple firm made no further attempt to unload the barge until after terms for settlement of the longshore strike in Honolulu had been announced.

Schoolboy Charged Killing 4-Year-Old

London, Oct. 27 (AP) — A 12-year-old schoolboy was charged today with murdering a boy of four.

The accused, George Crick, appeared in Ealing juvenile court with his father while police searched the Brent river shores for the body of Stanley Graves.

A hearing was set for next Wednesday. Police officials gave no hint of the motive and did not say how they knew the child was dead.

Young Matrons Meet

Monmouth — The Young Matrons club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Winegar, with Mrs. Marie Jacobson as co-hostess. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Irene Barry, Mrs. Margaret Crider, Mrs. Jean Loomis, Mrs. Rose Baker, Mrs. Marjorie Woods, Mrs. Amy Marr, Mrs. Joyce Winegar, and a guest, Mrs. Dorothy Sugden. The next meeting in November will be at the Van Crider home with Mrs. Baker as co-hostess.

Keizer School Double Shift Is Now Matter of Routine

Keizer, Oct. 27—School at Keizer resumed Wednesday morning after a two-day holiday for the students while the teachers were attending the Institute in Salem. There are at present over 260 students enrolled in the school.

Double shifting of the four first grades has settled down to routine with the early shift yawning its way to school in order to be there at 7:45. The first shift works until 12 o'clock and at 12:15 o'clock the second group and their teachers take over the school rooms until 4:30.

There are three groups of all the grades above the first with the exception of the third where, so far, there are only two grades. This makes a total of 24 classes in operation. The three buses are kept very busy transporting the students to and from their own Keizer school and to the junior high and high school in Salem.

The fire department seems to like the false alarms which had plagued the district for so long and of recent date have had to drop their work and dash away for only legitimate calls. The false alarms were a nuisance and costly prank for someone and everyone in the entire fire district is thankful that the volunteer fire department continues to function smoothly and with speed.

Keizer Parent-Teacher association has assumed the task of taking the school census for the year 1949. They are registering all children up to and including those who are 19 years old. In this way the school board anticipates they will be better able to judge the future school needs. If a representative has not called at your home before October 30, please report this fact to Mrs. C. B. Benson, 3-1353. The P.T.A. plans a complete coverage of the district but some new families may move in who could not be contacted when the census-taker made her rounds. Since this record is to be the basis for future growth of the school district it is important that every family register.

Strike Averted
Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 27 (AP)—Settlement of differences between British Columbia's Lumber Inspectors union (CCL) and the Pacific lumber inspection bureau was reported last night. The agreement headed off a strike which threatened to halt all lumber exports from the province.
