

Galileo Greats

The big stick of New York Yankee sacker Bobby Brown in the World Series brings to mind a high school here which has produced a good share of the nation's top athletes.

Brown is one of the latest in a procession of Galileo high school greats.

Here's the athletic "who's who" of the school in the past two decades:

1929—Lawson Little, national amateur golf champion in 1934 and '35, and national open titleholder in 1940. He also won the British amateur in '34 and '35.

1934—Angelo (Hank) Luisetti, Stanford basketball star from 1934 through 1937, who held national intercollegiate four-year scoring record and often has been called the greatest collegiate player the game has seen.

1934—Dominic DiMaggio of the Boston Red Sox—star center fielding brother of Yankee Joe.

1938—Larry Dee, who twice won the national intercollegiate doubles tennis title while at Stanford—he partnered with James Wade in 1940 and Davis Cup ace Ted Schroeder in 1942 for the tandem crown.

1939—Grover Klemmer, who tied the world record of 46.4 for the 440-yard run while at the University of California in 1941.

1947—Patsy Elsener, a member of the last Olympic women's diving team, and third place winner at London.

1948—Grant Butcher, 1948 winner of the National AAU light heavyweight boxing title.

It seems Galileo has a top claim to the most consistent high school production of outstanding athletes.

Color Guards to Highlight 'Cats' Homecoming Show

Regardless of which side the tide of battle may favor, Willamette university's 28th annual homecoming football game will have the maximum in color, judging by plans of the rally staff.

A color guard from the various branches of the armed services will take the field a few minutes before the opening kickoff between Willamette and Lewis and Clark.

Half-time activities will include marching maneuvers by the university band, Pep Cat strutting and presentation of the wagon wheel trophy by members of Blue Key.

The program will be staged on Sweetland field at 2 o'clock.

Russell to Get Golf Trophy at Dinner Thursday

Jack Russell will be presented Thursday night with the trophy that goes along with the Salem Golf club championship.

The ceremony will be the high light of the monthly dinner meeting of the Men's club. Russell won the right to wear the crown when he defeated Leo Estey in the final round of competition for the fall tournament.

Other flight winners will receive appropriate trophies.

Heavy Workout Prepares Beavers

Corvallis, Ore., Oct. 27 (AP)—The Oregon State Beavers took a heavy scrimmage yesterday in preparation for Saturday's game with Washington State.

The scrimmage was designed to help the Beavers learn to handle Washington State's speedy backs.

Ex-Oregon Grid Star Suffers Knee Injuries

Pittsburgh, Oct. 27 (AP)—Halfback Don Samuel of the professional Pittsburgh Steelers was scheduled for an operation today in the McKeesport hospital to tie up knee ligaments torn in last Sunday's game.

Samuel, an ex-Oregon State college star, will be lost for the season to the National football league team.

KUHEL INKED ON YANKEE FARM TEAM IN KANSAS

New York, Oct. 27 (AP)—Joe Kuhel, former Washington manager, was named manager of the Kansas City Blues, a Yankee American association farm, yesterday.

DOAK BACK IN ACTION AFTER SEIGE OF FLU

Dallas, Oct. 27 (AP)—Doak Walker, SMU's All-America back, was dismissed from the hospital yesterday after a flu attack. He may play against Texas Saturday.

Cougars Taper Drills for OSC

Pullman, Wash., Oct. 27 (AP)—Football Coach Phil Sarboe let his Washington State squad taper off yesterday with a dummy scrimmage in preparation for the game Saturday with Oregon State at Corvallis. Sarboe said WSC would win if they could bottle up OSC backs Dick Gray and Ken Carpenter.

Firemen at Canby Using Code System

Aurora—Canby firemen and telephone officials have devised a system whereby firemen will have a code word with which to identify himself to the operator in the event of a fire, and after the fire siren has sounded.

Heretofore, curiosity seekers have jammed the telephone lines with calls to find out where the fire was. From now on, anyone calling without the code word will be told nothing by the operator, thus avoiding many unnecessary calls.

Monday night when a barn burned down in the Twilight district, 18 calls about the fire went into the telephone office almost at the same moment. This was not an unusual number, but it was enough to delay getting the information to actual firemen.

Michigan State's Lynn Chandnois carried ten times against Marquette this fall for 159 yards—an average of almost 16 yards per try.

Air Force Games In NW Nov. 4-14

Washington, Oct. 27 (AP)—Major air force war games, stressing defense training, will be held in the Pacific northwest next month, Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg announced yesterday.

The air force chief of staff said the tests would be held Nov. 4-14 and would involve 200 planes and more than 5000 officers and men. The games will test the newest type of jet fighters in the interception of high altitude bombers.

Vandenberg said B-29s and B-50s of the 15th air force will fly to the Pacific northwest from bases in other parts of the country, using controlled courses to give the maximum possible training to the radar defense network of the area.

He added that the exercise was primarily designed for training purposes and not as a test of the defense system or of the bomber's ability to penetrate the warning network.

Control center for the defense will be the 25th air division headquarters at Silver Lake, Everett, Wash.

College Grid Records Show Attendance Boom in 1949

New York, Oct. 27 (AP)—The college football boom continues with a four per cent attendance increase for the first half of the 1949 season.

A survey by the Associated Press of 303 games played by 111 teams in all sections of the nation reflects a nine per cent decline in the east but gains in all other sectors, including an eye-catching 29 per cent upswing in the southwest.

Michigan tops the list with 291,717 for the first three sell-outs at Ann Arbor, where the stadium capacity has been increased from 87,039 to 97,239.

Ohio State packed in 219,189 for three home dates and California's unbeaten Golden Bears played to 233,500 in four home appearances. Television apparently has made little appreciable dent in their drawing power.

Southern Methodist, playing its games in the 72,000 capacity Cotton Bowl, has drawn 229,000 for four games. Stanford's total is 258,000 for five games and Southern California, the other school in the 200,000 class, has been seen by 209,005 in four home appearances.

Minnesota also belongs up with the leaders on averages for the Gophers drew 115,325 for two home games.

Pennsylvania, which usually sells out Franklin field, dipped from 190,000 to 137,000 for its first three home starts. Columbia and Yale also dropped off at the gate in early season with losing teams.

The 111 schools, probably about a fourth of all those playing intercollegiate football, totaled 7,088,050 for the 303 games. Although these include most of the top teams in the nation, it is likely that at least 10,000,000 fans saw college games in the first half of the season.

The increases range from 29 per cent in the southwest, to 3/10 of one per cent in the mid-west. The far west was up seven per cent and the south two per cent.

Bullet Pass? Coach Meant Exactly That!

Hattiesburg, Miss., Oct. 27 (AP)—Petal high school football coach Benny Wilkes told his squad he would show them what he meant by a "bullet" pass.

A flock of wild geese flew over the field, about 25 feet above the coach's head, Wilkes let fly and scored a direct hit. One of the birds plummeted to the ground at his feet.
