Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Stoddard also are entertaining a small group preceding the Junior Woman's club dance, about a dozen friends being invited to their home.

Willamette Group

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce VanWyn-garden are to be hosts Saturday evening for a group preceding the Willamette university Homecoming dance. There will be a buffet supper, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fravel and Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Wilson assisting the hosts. In the group will be Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McWain, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haek and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Trumbo, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Swenson of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Olive Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Olds, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fravel, Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. VanWyn-garden.

Dinner Group

A group is gathering for a dinner Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Estes L. Morton, the men entertaining their wives and guests at a dinner. Bridge will follow the dinner. The Halloween motif will feature the decorations, which also are being arranged by the hosts.

In the group will be Mr. and Mrs. Guy Endes, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shihbert, Miss Mabel Gaines, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Justice and Mrs. George Rossman, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Schlapkohl, Mr. and Mrs. David Eason, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Johnson, Mrs. George Aiken, Mrs. Evelyn Sleep, Mrs. David Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Morton.

For Bennetts

Dr. and Mrs. James B. Harworth are to entertain Saturday evening at the American Legion club to honor Dr. and Mrs. Woodson Bennett, recent newcomers to the capital from Portland.

Honor Newlyweds

Grande Ronde — A large crowd of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harper for a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Harper, newlyweds. Mr. and Mrs. Harper were married at McMinnville Friday evening.

Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gill, Beverly and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Henthorn, Mr. and Mrs. William Melhoff and family, Joan Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harper and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Johnson and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harper, Miss Adeline Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harper and children, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Wright and children, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Harper and Gretchen of Willamina, Pat and Frank Strome, Eddie, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Parker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker and Larry of Kernville, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Morrison and son of Valsitz, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kircher of Sheridan, Mrs. David Redmond and Mrs. Bertha Moon, bride's mother, all of McMinnville.

Shower Given

Dayton—A bridal shower was given Friday evening honoring Miss Olive Palmer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Palmer, with Mrs. Irene Clark and Mrs. Vernon Foster as hostesses. There were a large number of friends present to enjoy an evening of games.

The gifts were placed on a table over which hung an umbrella of pink net and pink satin bows. A beautifully decorated bride's cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, centered a table, which was covered with a lace cloth. The cake was surrounded by pastel flowers.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Elsie Herring of McMinnville, and Mrs. James Heizenreter, of Clackamas.

Miss Palmer is the bride-elect of David Heizenreter of Clackamas. The wedding will take place in the near future.

Oregon State College

A huge "welcome home" is being extended to all former Oregon Staters this week-end as the students go all out to plan a good time for all visitors this 1949 Homecoming. The general theme, "Get The Beaver Fever" is being followed through in all phases of the affair.

As usual one of the biggest parts of the week-end will be the house sign contest with prizes for the winning men's and women's living groups. The signs will feature the slaughter of the Washington State Cougars, which is supposed to take place on Bell field Saturday afternoon.

On Friday night alums won't have to bother to come to Corvallis for the festivities because the noise parade will probably be audible throughout Oregon. Floats are decorated by the women and the noise provided by the men. A drawing earlier this week decided which living groups would be paired off for the contest.

Following the noise parade the floats will assemble at the scene of the annual freshman bonfire. Anyone who hasn't contacted the "Beaver Fever" by this time will surely pick it up here. After the bonfire, entertainment by student talent will be shown at the Homecoming midnight show. The show is planned to be packed full of laughs and the weak hearted have been warned against attending. Dick Hanson, chairman of the show, expects that the torrid tempo of the matinee will give rise to the "greatest epidemic since the black plague swept Central Europe in 1400." The show is also trying to instill the "Beaver Fever" in all Staters.

Saturday will be packed to the brim with activities. Alums will register in the Memorial Union in the morning, have their annual barbecue before the game, and transfer to Bell field to see the OSC-Washington State game. At halftime during the game the queen of homecoming will be announced from the five remaining freshman candidates for the title. A new card section featuring crimson and gray cards for WSC as well as the familiar orange and black will present card stunts. The queen will reign over the double dance to be held in the Memorial Union ballroom and the Men's gym Saturday night.

Installation of a chapter of Phi Kappa Sigma, men's social fraternity, raised the number of fraternities on the campus to 28. The group has been in a probationary period on the campus during the past year and has become very active in campus affairs.

The Berlin-banned play "Storm in a Teacup" has been selected as the speech department play for this term. The center of action in the play centers around a small mongrel puppy, Patsy. The production was banned in Germany shortly after Hitler came into power, but has been popular in the United States.

Among the meager but spirited crowd at the OSC-Stanford game at Palo Alto last Saturday were Nancy Snyder and Jean Pickens, who were guests for the week-end of Ruth Holzman, Nancy and Jean left Corvallis on Thursday for the fun-packed week-end and though completely exhausted on their return said they had a marvelous time. They noticed Salemite Gerry Woodruffe, Tom Brand, and Dick Fuhr in the Stanford section at the game.

Couple Wed 50 Years

St. Paul—Mayor and Mrs. Eugene C. Davidson are to observe their 50th wedding anniversary next Sunday, October 30, a reception to be given at the City hall.

Relatives and friends are invited to call between 1 and 4 o'clock.

Mr. Davidson, 73, was born and reared in St. Paul and has been mayor the past 11 years. Mrs. Davidson is a native of Indiana, her family going to Nevada when she was six months old, then coming by covered wagon to Oregon, Mrs. Davidson having lived here since she was 10 years old.

The couple have two daughters living, Mrs. Albert (Edna) McKay of Salem and Mrs. Donald (Leona) Morris of Vancouver, and one son, Earl Davidson, St. Paul. There are seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Miss Cone and Mr. Gram Married

Lebanon — A romance beginning during the high school days of Miss Patricia Cone, and Charles Gram was climaxed on the evening of Tuesday, Oct. 18, when the young couple exchanged their wedding vows at a home ceremony at the residence of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gram, Lebanon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cone, also of Lebanon.

Arrangements of pastel shaded chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in tall candelabums made a colorful setting for the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Harvey J. Schmidt, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The double ring service was used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of dove gray brocaded faille and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Shirley Schmidt, who wore bronze brocade, and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

Bob Gould, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. For her daughter's suit the bride wore a maroon suit with gray accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. John P. Gram, was gowned in dusty pink with corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception was arranged for the immediate relatives and few close friends attending the ceremony. The bride's table, set with handsome silver appointments and lighted candles, was centered by the three-tiered wedding cake decorated with yellow roses. Serving was Mrs. Marjorie Penfold, sister of the bride.

The guest book was held by Miss Twyla Cone, youngest sister of the bride.

The newlyweds are both graduates of Lebanon high school and will make this city their home after returning from their wedding trip on Nov. 1.

HOSTS Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. James R. Linn who entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gangware and William Schoeneman, visitors from Sandusky, Ohio, at the home of the Gangwares' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Gangware. The visitors leave this week, accompanied by the Robert Gangwares, for San Francisco to attend the national bankers meeting.

LYONS — The marriage of Miss Clara Gustafson of Silverton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson of South Dakota, to Walter (Bud) Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Walker of Lyons, was an event of October 19 at the home of his parents. Their only attendants were his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ramble Martell of Lyons. Rev. C. Walker of the Stayton Assembly of God performed the 8 o'clock single ring ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives. After a honeymoon trip to Canada the young couple will make their home in Lyons.
