Tri-Y Plans Recognition Ceremony

The annual recognition service for all Tri-Y members will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday, October 30, at the First Methodist church. The purpose of the service is to recognize new members in Tri-Y and re-dedicate old members to their purpose as members of the YWCA.

All parents are invited as special guests. Rev. Walter Naff, associate pastor at the First Christian church, will give the address and Rev. Lloyd T. Anderson of the First Baptist church will give the closing prayer.

Miss Marcia Seeber, Tri-Y worship chairman, is in charge of the service. Those working with her include Misses Bonnie Stewart, Dorothy Cannon, JoAnn Beard, Betty Anderson, Carol Weinstein, Marilyn Lorenz and Norma Weaver.

Music will be provided by Misses Marilyn Power and Edna Marie Hill. Miss Jessica Kinsey will preside at the organ.

A reception will follow the service and will be in the Carrier room of the church.

Town-Gown Club's Tea

Town and Gown club opened its new year with a program and tea Thursday afternoon, more than 100 attending. The program was in Waller hall, the tea in Lausanne hall.

Mrs. Regina Ewalt, dean of women at Willamette university, gave the welcome to the honored guests, mothers of freshmen girls on the campus, and Bennet Ludden played piano numbers. Mrs. James T. Brand, new president of the club, presided.

At the tea following, Mrs. Paul Larden greeted guests at the door and Mrs. Ervin W. Potter introduced them to the receiving line. In the line were Mrs. Brand, Mrs. G. Herbert Smith and Mrs. Melvin H. Geist. Pouring were Mrs. E. E. Bragg and Mrs. Philip W. Allison. Serving were Mrs. Wallace Bonesteele, Mrs. Henry Carl, Mrs. Oscar Cutler, Mrs. E. D. Crabtree, Mrs. Earl T. Anderson.

Autumn leaves and chrysanthemums were arranged on the mantel and about the room, smaller bouquets of pink and orchid asters decking the smaller tables. A rose satin cloth covered the tea table, and the centerpiece was a copper bowl on a copper stand, filled with fruits and leaves. Cranberry red tapers in hand-carved Mexican candleholders stood at either side of the centerpiece.
