

Zonta Club Names New Secretary

Mrs. M. Theodore Madsen, Jr., is the new secretary for the Salem Zonta club and the new member on the club board, succeeding Mrs. Gordon O. Leonard in the offices. Mrs. Leonard is leaving for Santa Rosa, Calif., to make her home.

Selection of Mrs. Madsen was made at the club's board meeting last evening preceding the club's regular dessert and social meeting at the home of Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce with Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans and Miss Lillian McDonald as co-hostesses.

Report of the recent district conference in Medford for Oregon and Washington clubs featured the meeting, Miss Dorothy Pearce, acting as delegate from the Salem club, giving the report.

Because of the holiday schedule, the club voted to have two luncheon meetings in both November and December. The regular program meeting will be November 10 and on November 17 the group also will meet at luncheon for a business session. In December, the regular program luncheon will be the second Thursday noon with a business meeting slated on the third Thursday. A special board meeting is to be held Sunday afternoon, November 13, at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Burke.

The group voted to sponsor a silver tea in the spring for the benefit of the Helen Yockey memorial fund, a fund being built up by the club for its project at Salem General hospital.

Twenty-nine attended the dessert meeting last evening.

HOSTS to their bridge club Saturday evening will be Justice and Mrs. George Rossman, the group to meet for a dessert supper and cards. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones are to be additional guests.

Engagement of Couple Told

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Shirley Nave, Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie L. Nave of Scio, to Walter V. Beall, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beall of Salem.

No date is set for the wedding. Mr. Beall recently was discharged from the navy and within a few weeks is to go into the air force. Miss Nave is employed in Salem at the Montgomery Ward store.

Scout Week Opens Sunday

Girl Scouts and Brownies in Salem will be joining with more than a million and a quarter of their sister Girl Scouts in the United States in celebrating the birthday of their organization's founder, Juliette Low. Many troops will hold ceremonies for the collection of contributions to the Juliette Low fund. This fund is made up of contributions saved and earned by individual Scouts and Brownies and is dedicated to "the promotion of Girl Scouting and Girl Guiding throughout the world, as a contribution toward world peace and good will."

One of the purposes of the fund is the provision of opportunities for older Scouts to camp with girls from other countries. This summer girls from Oregon attended a Western Hemisphere camp in Michigan and the Juliette Low encampment in Switzerland.

Girl Scout Week is commemorated each year during the week in which Juliette Low's birthday occurs. This year Girl Scout week will start October 30, with Girl Scout Sunday, when Scouts and Brownies will attend their own churches in uniform. The Girl Scout program is for girls of all religious groups and encourages members to support their own church.

Monday, October 31 is Juliette Low's birthday and is home-making day, when troops em-

Miss Hess Is Wed Recently

St. Paul—On Saturday morning, at 9:30 o'clock in St. Paul's church, Miss Theresa Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hess was wed to Joseph J. Maurer, Jr. Rev. Albert Bauman officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated in pastel shades of gladioluses and dahlias with greenery.

The choir, consisting of Cory Volker, Al De Santis, Tom Martin, Frank Spies, Pat McCullough, Mrs. Spies, Grey Schemmel, Margaret, Marylou and Rita Uselman, assisted on the organ by Lorraine Relling sang. At the conclusion of the ceremony the couple went to the side altar of the Blessed Mother and knelt while the choir sang.

The bride's brothers, Joe and Charles Hess served at the wedding.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a white satin gown, fashioned with long printed sleeves and peplum effect on either side in front. A drop shoulder of wide lace, a marquise yoke, covered buttons down to the waist in back and a train. The coronet, holding the fingertip veil that was edged in lace, was of little hearts centered with seed pearls. The veil was "something bor-

Wednesday is health and safety day when troops make a special effort to put this phase of their program into practice. Thursday is international friendship day, when this year girls will be able to wear a new world pin, worn by all members of the Girl Scouts and Girl Guides around the world. The idea for this pin was developed at an international camp last year and it is available for the first time this fall. Friday is arts and crafts day when the girls plan creative activities using their hands. Saturday is out-of-doors day, the opportunity for the girls to have fun out-of-doors, where they also learn many useful skills, self-reliance and conservation practices.

There are some 400 Scouts and Brownies in the Salem area.

rowed." The bride carried a fan-shaped bouquet consisting of pink roses and Esther Reed daisies. Her only ornament was a cross, gift of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor, dressed in a floor length gown of pale yellow and carrying a fan-shaped bouquet of pink pom pom dahlias, was the bride's sister, Mrs. Eldon Wilgus.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Mildred Maurer wore a pastel dress of pink and carried a fan-shaped bouquet of yellow pom pom dahlias.

The two little flower girls, Diane Gerlitz and Jo Ann Maurer, nieces of the bridegroom were identically dressed in floor length blue dotted swiss, and carried tiny baskets of baby roses, snapdragons and other small flowers.

Raymond Maurer was his brother's best man and Eldon Wilgus acted as groomsman. Ushers at the wedding included Alexander Maurer, Lawrence Gerlitz, John Suppes and Mike DeSantis.

The bride's mother wore a long sleeved aqua print dress with an aqua shortie coat and green accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations centered with a gardenia. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue print dress and black accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

At 11 o'clock a breakfast was served in the school basement for immediate relatives and friends. A reception was held from 2 until 4 o'clock in the Knights of Pythias hall in Silverton, to which about 250 guests were invited.

Mrs. Ray Maurer cut the bride's cake, assisted by Mrs. Robert Shepherd. Mrs. Mortell was at the punch bowl and Mrs. E. E. Wilgus poured the coffee. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Ben Zollner, Mrs. Lawrence Scharbach, Mrs. Chas. Stakmann, Mrs. T.J. Miller, Mrs.

Spies, Mrs. Lawrence Gerlitz and Mrs. Jack Uselman. Passing the guest book was Margaret Uselman. Mrs. Eldon Wilgus was in charge of the gifts, assisted by Marylou Uselman, Mildred Maurer and Rita Uselman.

In the evening a dance was held at the Knights of Pythias hall, for which William Evans' orchestra furnished the music.

The couple left for a two weeks' honeymoon to California by way of the coast, after which time they will reside on Grant street in Silverton.

For going away the bride wore a gray fine checked suit with black accessories. She carried a Kelly green coat, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds with white Esther Reed daisies.

Campus Clippings WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

With the theme, "Kick in the Rear for the Pioneer," Willamette students and faculty will join forces in welcoming back alumni and friends for the 28th annual Homecoming celebration. The freshman class got the festivities under way during the wee hours this morning when they, supervised by the lettermen, swept the leaves from the campus in the traditional frosh leaf rake. Afterwards, they were rewarded for their efforts with a breakfast of coffee and doughnuts served in Chrestio cottage.

Climaxing long hours of planning and manual labor, the eleven living organizations completed their Homecoming signs in time for the judging this afternoon. On the basis of theme, originality and workmanship, separate cups for the men's and women's groups will be awarded to the first place winners Saturday night.

Salemites should prepare themselves for the barrage of whistles, tin cans and cowbells which are in order for the noise parade winding its way through the streets of the downtown district this evening. Led by the university band, the noise trucks will be preceded by convertibles carrying the members of the varsity football squad. Air compressors have been gathered from all over Salem and the surrounding area to provide the force necessary to blow the numerous whistles and horns, all contributing to the general confusion. When the parade ends at Bush's Pasture, the yell squad will be on hand to lead the student body in a pre-game rally of school yells and songs.

"Nickel Hops," new to Willamette's campus this year, will round out the evening's activities. Sponsored by the Pepcat organization on the campus, the dances will be held at the six women's living groups, where a nickel will be charged the fella for every three dances with the coed of his choice. All proceeds go to the Pepcats, who will award a prize to the group with the largest intake. The "hops" will be characterized by the absence of decorations. However, refreshments are to be served.

Returning alumni will be welcomed Saturday at Lausanne hall, a luncheon in their honor being scheduled for noon. All alumni have been extended invitations to a reception in Baxter hall immediately following the football clash.

Game-time Saturday is set at 2 p.m., when the Bearcats will meet the Pioneers of Lewis and Clark college on the gridiron. When the game is over, the frosh and sophomores will engage in the annual competitive pushball contest. Should the freshmen be the victors, their class will be relieved from wearing the cardinal and gold rook caps.

Freddie Keller and his band are the featured attraction at the semi-formal dance, "Whispering Shadows," in the evening. Women have been granted 1 o'clock late permission for a night of dancing amid a setting of light and dark blue crepe
