

Foot Fashions for Fall

(AP) Newsfeatures
The accent is on ankles as skirts grow shorter, and shoe manufacturers have turned out a fall and winter crop of footwear to please the most exacting customer.

Whether you like low heels or high, open toes or closed, tailored or dressy styles, there's a shoe to fit you taste and your pocketbook.

Smartest styles of the season are the closed toe and heel type with low-cut vamp, but women who like the comfort and flattery of open toes may still find them, especially in the dressier models.

You'll see bold cut-outs this winter on fine leather shoes; you'll see colors to match any costume; you'll see many combinations of leathers, such as suede and patent kid.

Feminine Note—Two-tone suede and lizard pump is making fashion news this season, for dressy wear.

Walkie-Talkie—Campus favorite—the wedge platform moccasin with leather laced vamp, in husky elk.

Tailored Pump—Perfect suit-mate, in polished calf with leather sole, V-cut vamp, for town and travel.

Dance Given
About 80 couples attended the Halloween dance of the Junior Woman's club Saturday evening at the armory.

Next event for the club is a business session for November 14.

LEAVING Tuesday for California was Mrs. Christena Newburgh, going south with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Newburgh of Portland.

Mrs. Christena Newburgh is to stop off at El Cerrito to visit her sister, Mrs. H. Smith. Mrs. Robert Newburgh is going to Los Angeles to attend the wedding of Jane Powell, motion picture actress, on November 5.
