Quick Rich Lemon Pie
Ingredients: Grated rind (about 1 tablespoon) of 3 lemons, 1/4 cup lemon juice, 3 eggs (separated), 1 fifteen-ounce can (1 1/2 cups) condensed milk, 1 baked 9-inch pie crust shell, dash of salt, 8 tablespoons sugar.

Method: Prepare grated lemon rind and juice. Beat egg yolks with electric mixer or rotary beater until very thick and pale colored; add lemon rind and juice and condensed milk and beat to combine. Pour into cool baked pie shell. Wash beater and beat whites with salt until stiff enough to stand in straight peaks when beater is slowly withdrawn; add sugar, a tablespoon at a time, sprinkling it over the entire surface; continue beating until sugar is well incorporated and whites are very thick and glossy. Spread over pie filling, sealing meringue to edge of pastry to prevent shrinkage and gaps. Bake in a moderate (325F.) oven for about 15 minutes or until meringue is lightly browned. Cool and chill before serving.

Women Golfers Conclude Year With Stagette Show

By MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

It was a big day for the Salem Women's Golf association Tuesday, featuring a round of golf in the afternoon, presentation of awards and finally the annual stagette dinner and entertainment—the last event truly being a show of shows.

About 90 assembled for the dinner. Grand climax was the show, special laurels going to Mrs. Ralph Hamilton as manager and her "revue"—really, they should give serious consideration to doing the job professionally. It was an occasion to keep those attending laughing for many days to come.

Mrs. John R. Wood officiated as master of ceremonies. First act was a "specialty" by Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Jr.—we can't tell, you'll just have to ask Clara Belle to do a special performance some day. Next was a deal by Mrs. S. D. Wiles and Mrs. Stephen Fouchek—something to do with "characters" from south of the border in some of the neatest acting you could see—in fact, you had to be told almost that there was a recording doing the singing and chatter, so perfect was the "synchronizing." And then the striking "ballet" number, presented by Mrs. Robert Cannon with Mrs. Harry Weidmer at the piano. And the grand finale—Maurice Chevalier, if you please, (Mrs. Louis Gerlinger) and a chorus of 12 "maids" representing the 12 months of the year—and there was the height of something or other in costumes! It would take a volume to describe them. The "chorus" included Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mrs. Charles Musser, Mrs. Emery Hobbs, Mrs. Sephus Starr, Mrs. Richard N. Chase, Mrs. Tom Dunham, Mrs. Glenn Wilbur, Mrs. Werner Brown, Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mrs. William Whitmore, Mrs. Vernon Perry, Mrs. Ivan Marble.

Mrs. Harold M. Olinger, captain for the past year, presided at the dinner. Guests introduced included Mrs. Ted Kuhns, Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. Lenore Parks, Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr., Mrs. Wheeler English, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, Mrs. Ira Wintermute, Mrs. John Emilen, Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. Charles Mills.

A gift was given Mrs. William Schaefer, who had charge of luncheons and dinners during the year, and a presentation was made to Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, manager of the show. Year's Awards Given During the late afternoon the following awards for the year were made: Nearest handicap, Mrs. Stephen Fouchek and Mrs. John Heltzel, tied; farthest from handicap, Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mrs. Morris Crothers, Mr. A. C. Gerlinger, Mrs. M. A. Pekar, Mrs. Lynn M. Hammerstad. Lowest score for year: Mrs. Gerald Robison. Eclectic: Mrs. Marc Seale, low gross; runners-up, Mrs. R. I. MacLaughlin; Mrs. Morris Crothers and Mrs. Reynolds, tied for next place, Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Mrs. Charles Musser, Mrs. Gerlinger and Mrs. W. J. Grant, tied for next place. Best attendance: Mrs. Louis Gerlinger. Award donated by Mrs. Rex Adolph for most improvement: Mrs. George R. Hoffman.

Special prizes: Mrs. Harry Weidmer, Mrs. Fred Bernardi, Mrs. Robert Herrall, Mrs. Glenn Wilbur. Oregon Women's Golf association: Mrs. Glenn Wilbur. Captain's trophy: Mrs. Morris Crothers.

For Day's Play Winners in the day's play were the following: Mrs. J. W. Matujec, longest drive on No. 1; Mrs. Marc Seale, closest to pin on No. 8; least putts, Mrs. R. I. MacLaughlin in class A, Mrs. Robert Herrall and Mrs. Harry Weidmer, class B, and Mrs. Howard Eismann, class C.

The day's events concluded the season for the women's association, the group to start the new year in the spring with Mrs. Fred Bernardi as the new year's captain.

KINGWOOD unit, American Legion auxiliary, is to meet Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Legion hall. Mrs. Irl Folsom is president of the group.

STAYTON—Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wonacott, who formerly resided in the West Stayton area, celebrated their golden wedding Sunday, October 23, at their home in the Metzger community near Portland.

Callers in the afternoon included their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wonacott and daughter, Frances, of Portland, and a group of friends and relatives.

William P. Wonacott and Jessie Pruner were married at the home of the bride's parents near Riddle, October 25. They made their first home in that community and have lived for a time at Brownsville, Hood River and Silverton. They lived on a farm west of Stayton for 20 years, retiring in 1948, when they moved to Metzger.

THE REGULAR meeting for the Women's Relief Corps will be held Friday at 2 p.m. in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.
