In the group were Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard, Mrs. John H. Carson, Miss Mabel P. Robertson, Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Mrs. R. H. Baldock, Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Mrs. Dean Walker of Independence, Mrs. George T. Bragg of Portland, sister of Mrs. Gerlinger, and the hostess.

Engagement Told—Announced recently was the engagement of Miss Virginia Lee Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Mill City, to Delmar Thompson of Marysville, Calif. The wedding is planned during the Thanksgiving holidays. (Jesten-Miller studio picture.)

Soroptimist Club

Projects for the year were discussed at the business meeting of the Salem Soroptimist club, Wednesday noon, at the Golden Pheasant.

For the meeting next week there will be a luncheon, also, Mrs. Nell Brannon to have charge of the program.

Last Saturday a group of five from the local club attended a charter night banquet for a new club in Eugene, those going from here including Mrs. G. E. McCormick, Mrs. Walter Barsch, Mrs. Brannon, Mrs. Winifred Pettyjohn, Mrs. Laura Pangle.

AMONG those taking in the University of Oregon-University of Washington game, Saturday, in Portland, will be Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr., Don Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James R. Phillips.

Following the game, the senior Phillips will be hosts at dinner at the University club to honor their son, William L. Phillips, Jr., on his birthday, additional guests to include Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Loucks and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Barclay, who also are to be at the game.

VISITORS in the capital Wednesday for a time were Mr. and Mrs. Claire Kneeland of Eugene. They were en route to Portland to take in the University of Oregon-University of Washington game.

Jersey for Evening—Clare Potter likes the versatility of this wool jersey evening skirt in green, worn with a plaid silk blouse which may be switched.

Plan Silver Tea

A committee from the Salem Federated Music clubs met this week to plan a silver tea for Sunday, December 4, at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom, the affair to be between 3 and 6 o'clock that date.

Mrs. Ted Medford is general chairman for the event. At the committee meeting were Mrs. Ronald Craven, Mrs. Clyde Gilbert, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Medford, Mrs. Nettie Larsen, Mrs. Jessie Bush Mickelson.

World Community Day

Friday brings the world community day program, sponsored by the Salem Council of Church Women, at the First Methodist church, starting at 10:30 a.m. Luncheon will be at noon, the afternoon session to take up at 1:30 o'clock.

"Pieces for Peace Bundles" will be dedicated. Dr. Victor Hugo Sward, a missionary in India for 20 years, is to speak on the world community day theme "Peace Is Possible." The "Pieces for Peace Bundles" includes materials for women overseas to use in making their clothing.

Women throughout the United States will be meeting in similar meetings through Friday.

Wed 58 Years

HOLIDAYS COMING SOON

It's Fruitcake Time

"Gift fruit cake en casserole" is a wonderful idea. Put it on your "do it now" list. The national Raisin Harvest festival beginning Nov. 3 is a good reminder that lots of raisins, economically priced, are on the market for holiday baking. No gift will offer greater enjoyment than a good fruit cake such as this.

THE SERVICE CLUB of the YWCA held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the YWCA. After a brief business meeting members and guests enjoyed a program presented by Ardo Tarem, who has come to Salem through the displaced persons program. Mr. Tarem showed movies of life in DP camps in Germany and explained how every day living was conducted.

Gift Fruit Cake en Casserole

- 1 cup seedless raisins
- 1 cup prunes
- 1 cup dried figs
- 1 cup halved candied cherries
- ¾ cup cut citron
- ½ cup cut preserved orange peel
- 1 cup broken walnut meats
- ½ cup jelly
- ¾ cup orange juice
- 1 teaspoon allspice
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon mace
- 1½ cups butter or margarine
- ¾ cup brown sugar (packed)
- ¾ cup granulated sugar
- 4 eggs
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
- ½ teaspoon soda
- 1½ teaspoons salt

Topping:

- 1 cup seedless raisins
- ¾ cup broken walnut meats
- ¾ cup halved candied cherries
- 2 tablespoons butter
- ½ cup light corn syrup

Rinse raisins, drain and dry. Pour boiling water over prunes and figs and let stand 10 minutes; drain and dry. Cut prunes from pits in thin slices; clip stems from figs and cut figs into thin strips. Combine fruits, citron, peel, nuts, jelly, orange juice and spices. Stir to blend, cover and let stand overnight. Cream butter and sugars together thoroughly. Add beaten eggs and flavoring, blending well. Mix in half of flour sifted with soda and salt. Add fruit mixture and stir until well blended. Stir in remaining flour. Pour into 2 greased 1½-quart casseroles. Spread tops with blended topping ingredients. Cover and bake in slow oven (250 degrees F.) about 3½ hours. Test with pick or cake tester before removing from oven. Makes about 5½ pounds cake.

AUMSVILLE—The Aumsville Woman's club held its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Hugh Craig in Salem. Plans for the club year were discussed and a social hour held with refreshments served to Mesdames Mary Hein, May Lamb, Ethel Wright, Glenn Mumkers, Elmer Klein, Bland Spear, James Miller and Miss Minnie Peterson. The next meeting will be held on Nov. 11 at the James Miller home.

HOSSESS Thursday afternoon at a luncheon was Mrs. A. C. F. Perry, inviting a group of 12, bridge games following the luncheon.

HOSTS this evening at a dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, who are to entertain for their club and a group of additional guests. Bridge will follow the dinner.

Mrs. Henry Is Honored

Mrs. D. M. Eby, worthy matron, and J. E. Frizzell, worthy patron, presided at the regular meeting of Chadwick chapter, OES, held in the Masonic temple on Tuesday evening.

The chapter room was beautiful with fall flowers and leaves. Several visitors were present from other chapters.

Mrs. Wayne Henry, mother adviser of Rainbow Girls, was honored with a degree by the courtesy group. A gift was presented. Miss Marilyn Power, worthy adviser of Rainbow Girls, sang and Miss Dorothy Pederson, grand musician for Rainbow Girls for the state of Oregon, played piano selections.

An invitation was read from Cottage Grove for the evening of December 3rd when the chapter there will hold a reception in honor of the grand lecturer, Mrs. Elma Thum.

An invitation was also read to attend Woodburn chapter meeting on November 14, when they will observe friendship night. All members were reminded to bring canned fruit for the Masonic home.

The worthy matron announced that the next meeting will be observed as homecoming and a plate supper would be served following that meeting.

Refreshments were served at the close of chapter. The committee in charge included Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillippe, Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Barrick, Mrs. Pearl Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Utley.
