

PLANNED for next Thursday evening is the November party for the Wisteria Dance club.

The event will be at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, dancing to be between 9:30 and 12:30 o'clock. The officers, headed by Carl Aschenbrenner as president, are in charge for the evening.

By Marian Lowry Fischer

SALEM Garden club plans its November meeting for Monday afternoon in the Salem Woman's club house.

Mrs. Gladys York, fuchsia authority, Seal Rock, Ore., is to be guest speaker. Her topic will be "Fuchsias for the Shady Spot."

Club members are asked to bring competitive floral arrangements.

Mrs. W. H. Speck and Mrs. Robert Hutcheon are chairmen for the meeting.

Members of Chapter CB, PEO Sisterhood, will be entertained by Mrs. Robert Dow for their meeting next Thursday evening, dessert to be at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Frederick S. Lamport is to be hostess next Thursday to the Town and Country club, inviting the group to her Ben Lomond park home for luncheon at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Steve Anderson, Mrs. A. Freeman Holmer and Mrs. Robert Gentzkow are to be hostesses Thursday evening for the November meeting of Delta Gamma alumnae at the Anderson residence at 8 o'clock.

Delta Delta Delta alumnae are meeting for dessert Monday evening, 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Braun, co-hostesses to be Mrs. Harold O. Schneider, Mrs. Robert Sprague, Mrs. J. H. Morris. This is founders' month meeting.

Mrs. Clare R. Dobler of Everett, Wash., province vice president in Pi Beta Phi, is expected to visit the Salem alumnae club of the sorority next Thursday evening, the group to meet at the Willamette university chapter house.

The meeting will be at 7:45 o'clock. Hostesses will include Mrs. Edwin Keech, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mrs. Arthur Bone, Mrs. Kenneth Manning, Mrs. Donald Barnick, Mrs. James Rowe, Miss Addyse Lane, Mrs. Robert Sullivan, Miss Mildred Coleman, Miss Evelyn Johnson.

There will be no at home day for Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, next Tuesday, the weekly event to be resumed on November 15.

Home for the week-end from University of Oregon are Miss Crystal Huntington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington; Miss Josephine Caughell, daughter of the John R. Caughells and Miss Irene McLeod, daughter of Mrs. L. C. McLeod. The three are all in the Gamma Phi Beta house. Miss Huntington has as a guest for the week-end, Miss Mary Frances Lorraine of Albany, and guests of Miss Caughell are Miss Bobette Snitjer of Palo Alto and Miss Mariam Moore of Coquille.

The group attended the Oregon-Washington game in Portland this afternoon. Last evening they met for an informal gathering at the Huntington home before going to Portland.

Members of the Willamette university chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honor society, have arranged a special founders day event for Sunday, November 13, in Lausanne hall.

Induction of new patrons and patronesses will take place about 5:30 o'clock, a founders day dinner following, the patrons and patronesses to join the active members at the dinner. A program is planned, also.

Miss Betty Kuhlman is president of the chapter this year, Miss Jean Farquison the new adviser.

Members of Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary society at Willamette university, met this week in the office of Mrs. Regina Ewalt, and made plans for coming activities.

Next Tuesday, new members will be tapped at student chapel.

On November 15 the group will entertain at a tea to honor all girls on the campus holding scholarships, the event to be in Lausanne lounge. Miss LaFyrne Showay, vice president of the group, is chairman for the tea. Miss Doris Gragg is president of Cap and Gown this year.

Hostess Wednesday evening to her bridge club will be Mrs. Richard Chambers.

Misses Jane and Ann Carson were here Friday afternoon to visit at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carson, en route to the Oregon-Washington game at Portland, and will be here again Sunday on their way back to Eugene.

Zonta club's program luncheon meeting will be Thursday noon at the Golden Pheasant. Mrs. James Bunnell and Miss Lena Belle Tartie are arranging the program.

Speaker for the luncheon will be A. Freeman Holmer, assistant professor of political science at Willamette university. Dr. Helen Pearce to introduce him. Mr. Holmer came here from New York university. He was in the service during the war, and is a member of the "little Hoover committee." His topic for the Thursday luncheon will be "Women and the Hoover Commission."

On the following Thursday, November 17, the club also will meet at luncheon at the Golden Pheasant for its business session.

Trip to Europe and Lebanon Set

MRS. A. G. MATHERLY has an interesting journey mapped ahead. She leaves next Thursday by plane for New York City from where she sails on November 19 aboard the Ile de France for France. Following visits in France and Switzerland she will go on to Beirut, Lebanon, to join her husband, who is with the Bechtel International corporation in Arabia. While in Europe, Mrs. Matherly hopes to visit Miss Stephanie Mitchell, former Salem resident and sister of Mrs. Fred Reidy of Salem. Miss Mitchell is now in Frankfurt, Germany, working for the army.

Nydia Officers Will Visit Nile Club

The annual official visit by the queen of Nydia temple, Portland, on Monday is the fall's important date for Salem club, Daughters of the Nile.

The local club members will gather at the Masonic temple at 10 o'clock in the morning for sewing. Luncheon will be at 12:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Ezra Royce is queen of Nydia temple and accompanying her will be the following staff of 16 officers: Mrs. Carl Donoghue, Mrs. Hal E. Simpson, Mrs. Loyal McCarthy, Mrs. Claude Henderson, Mrs. Walter S. Shanks, Mrs. Mathew H. Rauw, Mrs. R. J. Ostrum, Mrs. Lloyd Eckhardt, Mrs. Robert M. Howard, Mrs. Harvey J. Hurst, Mrs. Lawrence M. Hatfield, Mrs. Paul D. Newton, Mrs. Hardy O. Howard, Mrs. William Mullin, Mrs. George H. Roulledge, Mrs. Otto Broeger.

At Reception Following Wedding

A WEDDING PROMINENT on last week's calendar was that of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Cross (Reverly Briggs), pictured here in a candid at the reception following the wedding in the First Congregational church Sunday afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Briggs of Long Beach, Calif. Mr. Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cross of Salem, is director of alumni affairs at Willamette university.

SALEM Business and Professional Women's club has planned its recreational and social evening for next Tuesday in the Salem Woman's club house, starting at 8 o'clock.

There will be games, singing and readings.

In charge for the evening are members of the recreation committee, Mrs. Effie King, chairman; Mrs. Eugene Estes, Miss Alberta Sappenfield, Miss Margaret Maddox, Mrs. Helen Lovold, Mrs. Ethel Parr.

November meeting for the board of Salem branch, American Association of University Women, is to be Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Mildred Christensen, 1349 Center street. Next meeting for the AAUW membership is November 19 and plans for the event will be made at the board meeting, Miss Elise Schroeder, president, presiding.

Among those in Portland this afternoon for the University of Oregon-University of Washington game were Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Bown.

Alpha Xi Delta alumnae are meeting Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. John Hann, 565 Judson, at 8 o'clock. There will be a handicraft demonstration by Mrs. Hann and Mrs. Eugene Laird.

Honoring Miss Nancy Elliott, who is to be wed this month to Sgt. Charles Savage of Fort Lewis, Mrs. Edwin Pease was hostess this week at a party and shower at her home.

Following games, the group gathered around Miss Elliott while she opened her gifts through the doorway of a cleverly designed small house. Late refreshments were served.

In the group were Miss Elliott, Mrs. Homer G. Lyon, Jr., Mrs. Lloyd Pugh, Mrs. Herbert Coffman, Mrs. Edward Kaneski, Mrs. Tommy Thompson, Mrs. John Glodt, Mrs. Chester Boyce, Mrs. Kenneth Clark, Mrs. J. Walter Green, Mrs. Ed McClusky, Miss Patricia Snyder, Misses Patricia and Janey Pease, and the hostess.

Among Salemites attending "High Button Shoes" in Portland the latter part of the week were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burlingham.

Several Oregonians will be going south next week-end for the University of Oregon-University of California game at Berkeley, November 12.

Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Hoffman and their daughter, Miss Jeanne Hoffman of the University of Oregon, will be among those going south. Miss Hoffman will visit at the Kappa Alpha Theta house on the California campus and Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman will be at the home of relatives for the week-end.

Also going from Eugene with a group of students for the game and to spend the week-end at Berkeley will be Miss Suzanne Huggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Huggins of Salem.

A group of Pythian Sisters from Salem attended a reception in Silverton Thursday evening honoring Mrs. Nada Grinde, new grand manager of the order.

Those going from here were Mrs. Earl Burk, Mrs. Doris Stanton, Miss Betty Jean Bergner, Mrs. Axel Jacobsen, Mrs. Wayne Stanton, Mrs. H. Bergner, Mrs. Nora Pierce, Mrs. R. L. Forster.

Visiting for a time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stewart are her brother-in-law, sister and family, the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Allport, recently of Bellingham, Wash.

The Allports and children are leaving November 21 to visit with another brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blair in El Cerrito, Calif., then will sail from San Francisco on November 30 for Hawaii. They plan to establish a mission for the United Lutheran church there.

A successful event Friday afternoon was the benefit dinner and bridge party sponsored by Salem Spinsters club. All proceeds go to the Salem YWCA building fund. The party was given at the American Legion club, Miss Margaret Lovell as chairman.

Mrs. Peter Gunnar (Edith Fairham) sang several selections, accompanied by Miss Patty Jo Hammond.

Honors at cards were won by Mrs. F. Rachel Patton of Portland, Miss Dorateva Steusloff, Mrs. Robert Drager, Mrs. Walter Bell of Stayton, Mrs. John H. Johnson, Mrs. Donald Barnick, Mrs. William L. Phillips and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough. Special prize winners were Mrs. Lynn F. Cronemiller, Jr., Mrs. H. E. Bogardus, Mrs. Eugene Spaniol of Stayton.

Job's Daughters Mothers club is to meet next Wednesday noon for its regular monthly luncheon in the Masonic temple at 12 o'clock.

On the committee are Mrs. Donald Firth, Mrs. Vern Hasbrook, Mrs. Ralph Jordan, Mrs. Arnold Pederson, Mrs. Irving Larson, Mrs. Ernest Todd and Mrs. Floyd Garrett.

Jaron Lee Wesleyan guild is meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. A. H. Davis, 500 North 20th. Mrs. Charles McCabe, Mrs. Dale Jory and Mrs. L. C. Mitchell are hostesses. Mrs. John Anning is chairman for the worship service and Miss Helen Fletcher is chairman for the program.

The parish of St. Vincent de Paul church is sponsoring a card social next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the hall. Pinochle, 500, bridge and whist will be played. Prizes will be given and refreshments served.

Mrs. Fred Dougherty, Mrs. Henry Deggeler, Mrs. B. F. Dimelard, Mrs. L. W. Amort, Mrs. J. A. H. Dodd, and Mrs. Tom Bagan are co-chairmen. They will be assisted by those whose names begin with A, B, C and D.

WEDDING ON SATURDAY, NOV. 12

A wedding for next Saturday, November 12, will be that of Miss Marcella Schwartz and Richard F. Gentzkow, the ceremony to be solemnized at 9 o'clock in the morning in St. Joseph's Catholic church, the Rev. T. J. Bernards officiating.

Mrs. John Jennings of Mt. Angel is to be matron of honor for her sister, H. V. Schwartz of Canby is to give his sister in marriage. Misses Dorothy Lou and Jan Schwartz, nieces of the bride, will be junior bridesmaids. Young Miss Margery Gentzkow, niece of the bridegroom, is to be the flower girl. Paul Halter is to be best man and ushering will be Albert Alley and William Gentzkow, brother of the bridegroom-elect. For the music, Wayne Meusey and Mrs. Vince Rodakowski are to sing and Mr. Meusey is to play the organ.

Following the service, a breakfast will be served at the Senator hotel for the families.

They Will Head Sojourners Club

Joeten-Miller studio picture

NEW OFFICERS FOR the Sojourners club, elected last month, include Mrs. Harold H. Heisterman, at left, the president; and Mrs. Farley Mogan, at right, secretary. The club is an organization promoting social interests for newcomers in the city.

An event of interest on the Willamette university campus next Saturday evening, November 12, will be the annual Sigma Chi sweetheart formal dance.

At this event the chapter's sweetheart for the year will be named.

The court of three from which group the sweetheart will be named includes: Miss Jean Kell of Burlington, Calif., Miss Shirley Griffin of Vancouver, Miss Delores Fisher of Portland, Miss Kell and Miss Griffin are both Pi Beta Phi members. Miss Fisher is a Chi Omega.

The dance will be at the fraternity's chapter house between 9 and 12 o'clock.

Miss Hug to Wed

A Thanksgiving time bride will be Miss Kathleen Anne Hug, who is to wed William J. Hughes of Tuesday, November 22.

Invitations for the wedding were mailed last evening.

The ceremony will be solemnized in the afternoon that date at 4:30 o'clock in St. Vincent de Paul Catholic church. The reception following will be at the Marjion hotel.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. George Hug and the late Mr. Hug. Mr. Hughes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hughes of Portland. The couple's engagement was announced early last spring.

Miss Hug was graduated last June from Oregon State college where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She also is a member of Salem Spinsters club. Mr. Hughes attended Oregon State and was graduated from University of Oregon. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

A wedding of interest in Salem was that of Miss Elaine Frances Stein and Hillard Lewis Golden, the ceremony being solemnized on October 22 in the Multnomah hotel blue room, Portland, Rabbi Saul Appelbaum reading the service before an altar decorated with autumn white flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stein of Portland. Mr. Golden is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Golden of Salem.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Sam Cotsman, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Lorraine Goodman, cousin of the bride. Dr. Robert A. Golden was best man for his brother; and Harold Goodman was the usher.

A dinner and dancing in the junior ballroom followed the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Golden will be at home in Portland at 5405 N.E. 10th avenue following a trip to California.

The Laurel Social Hour club will meet with Mrs. H. J. Clements on Glen Creek drive for a luncheon at 12 o'clock Tuesday. The afternoon will be spent in sewing and there will be a short business meeting. An invitation has been extended the club from the Book and Thimble club to attend their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ray Lacey on Thursday, Nov. 17. All members who can accept the invitation are to report to Mrs. F. X. Horeth.

GIRL SCOUT DINNER THURSDAY interesting to a large group next Thursday evening will be the dinner meeting for the Santiam area, Girl Scouts council, at the Emanuel Lutheran church in Silverton at 7 o'clock.

Many from the Salem district council, a member of the area organization, will be attending.

Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding of Salem, area chairman, will preside. Varied reports will be given on scout activities for the year and there will be special entertainment, including pictures of last summer's camp at Smith Creek. Mrs. Gordon VanCleave of Silverton is general chairman on arrangements.

A Girl Scout thank-you pin is to be presented Mrs. Victor Waldele, Portland, formerly of Salem, in appreciation of the work she did with the group.

Transportation arrangements for those interested may be made with Mrs. Frank E. Manbeck, 3-4663.