Farewell Parties Are Arranged

The mid-week is marked by several affairs honoring Mrs. Carl W. Wood, who is leaving soon for New York City to reside, and Mrs. Gordon O. Leonard, who will be leaving next week for Santa Rosa, Calif., to make her home.

Hostess on Tuesday afternoon for a dessert and bridge party was Mrs. James Payne, entertaining for her club, the event especially honoring Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Leonard, who have been members of the group. Each was presented a gift. Thanksgiving decorations featured the party.

Members of the group included Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Sam Campbell, Mrs. Ralph Atwood, Mrs. Willis Clark, Mrs. Lee Thomas, Mrs. Loren Lewis, Mrs. P. C. Anderson, Mrs. Milo Taylor, Mrs. Charles Shaw, Mrs. E. J. Hagen, Mrs. Ed Goeckner, and Mrs. Payne.

Among informal affairs being arranged to honor Mrs. Leonard preceding her departure will be the evening party for which Mrs. Charles Shaw is to entertain Thursday. Guests for three tables have been invited for dessert and bridge.

For the Woods

A no-host dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Wood was arranged by members of their club last evening at the American Legion club.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. James Payne, Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson.

DISABLED American Veterans auxiliary held an all-day sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. Pauline Richards, Tuesday, with a no-host luncheon at noon.

Attending were Mrs. Stuart Johns, Mrs. Harry Rickard, Mrs. Jean Samuel, Mrs. Alma Hatfield, Mrs. Verne Ostrander, Mrs. Fanny Bard, Mrs. Blaine Martin and Jimmie, Mrs. William Richards, Mrs. Lillian Broyles and the hostess, Mrs. Pauline Richards and Vona. The next sewing will be held at the home of Mrs. Stuart Johns at 3790 Monroe avenue with a buffet luncheon at noon. Honor guest to be Mrs. Carlton Greider.

Birthday Party

Barbara Fouchek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Fouchek, observed her seventh birthday, Monday, and in celebration of the event her mother entertained a group after school at their home.

Games were played and the traditional birthday refreshments served.

Honoring Barbara were Susan White, Patty Heutszenroeder, Joanne Roethlin, Carol Ramsden, Lynda Berry, Toni Kertson, Carolyn Post, Carolyn Gosnell, Eileen Hawkins, Roberta Metzger, Edwina Fitzgerald, Lynelle Dry, Elaine Herbst, Janet Griffin.

Junior CDA Troops

Star of the Sea troop, Junior Catholic Daughters of America, met at the home of Molly Edick Saturday, Carol Taggart presiding as president.

The troop reported on selling violas for the Purple Heart organization and Christmas cards. Plans were made to sell the Catholic Digest Sunday, November 13.

Boxes were started for sewing containers. The honor nature study was completed and filed. Molly and her mother, Mrs. K. G. Edick, served refreshments at the close of the meeting. Miss Charleen Morris will entertain at her home for the next meeting.

The Mystical Rose troop, Junior CDA, met with their counselor, Mrs. Shepherd, on November 7. They discussed the success of the candy sale held on November 6. They also discussed a dance that will be held sometime in January.

The girls are to get their uniforms within the next two weeks from Mrs. Corey.

Every third Sunday in the month is communion Sunday for the girls. They are to go in a group and have their uniforms on.

The girls made tentative plans for their Christmas radio program. They will also sing at St. Bernard's home.

Refreshments were served by Joann Brown. Mrs. Brown poured.

Hostess to the Thursday club tomorrow for a dessert luncheon will be Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. Roy H. Mills and Mrs. Clarence Noble, the affair to be at the Sprague home.

Parties for Bride-Elect

Several parties are being arranged to honor Miss Kathleen Anne Hug, who last week announced November 22 as date for her marriage to William J. Hughes of Portland.

Mrs. Wallace Hug is to entertain for her sister-in-law next Wednesday, a luncheon being planned.

Miss Beverly Naubert of Tacoma, who is to be bridesmaid at the wedding, is to entertain for Miss Hug at a luncheon on November 21. Miss Naubert and Miss Hug are Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters and were graduated from Oregon State college in the same class.

This evening, Mrs. Roger Schnell and Miss Patricia Viesko are to entertain for Miss Hug at the Schnell home. In the group will be Miss Hug, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. Wallace Hug, Mrs. Reed Vollstedt of Albany, Mrs. John H. Johnson, Mrs. Robert Elgin, Miss Viesko and Mrs. Schnell.

MRS. CHARLES A. RATCLIFF of Salem, who is chairman of the international relations group for the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, is to be speaker at the fall board meeting of the federation Friday at the Heathman hotel in Portland. Mrs. Ratcliff will talk on "Sunny Days in England." She was in England this past summer.

At this board meeting plans will be made for the state convention in the spring at which time the 50th anniversary of the federation is to be observed.

Bazaar Planned

Members of Unit No. 136, American Legion auxiliary, met last evening and made plans for its bazaar to be given Tuesday, November 22. The event will be in the upstairs room of the Salem Woman's club, and will feature cooked foods, candies and gifts.

Also, at last evening's meeting the group made plans for the gifts to be taken to the gift shop at the veterans hospital.

Membership tea of the group to be given November 17 at the home of Mrs. Homer H. Smith between 3 and 6 o'clock, invitations for the event being received yesterday.

THE SOCIAL auxiliary committee of the 369th engineers and 409th quartermasters will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Homer G. Lyon, Jr., 4220 Gardner, to make plans for the group's annual Christmas party.

Engagements Announced

Brides-elect—Miss Geraldine A. Savage, at left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Savage, recently announced her engagement to Pvt. Harold D. Sohn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Sohn. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Joan Coker, at right, has announced her engagement to Gene Anderson, the wedding being planned for December 17. Miss Coker is the daughter of Mrs. Irene Coker, Mr. Anderson the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Anderson. (Jesten-Miller studio pictures)

Boots and Spurs

By GLORIA ROBINSON

Glen Conklin was the master of ceremonies at last week's Fun Night in the fairgrounds stadium with excitement and fast riding being the order of the evening. A coat race, a double scurry race, a can and pole relay and an apple race were a few games which horses and riders delighted in.

Dashing about in the arena were riders Jack Lindeman, Bus Youngquist, Ray Garlie, Blanche Anunson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murray, Sherman Bostrack, Gladys Zell and many, many others. Watching the affair with avid interest as spectators were Mrs. Don McFarlane, Thelma Youngquist, Millie Lindeman, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blanchett, Esther Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Allen and a host of others. Back at his old post as announcer was Graham Sharkey. Mrs. Conklin played official hostess in the club room.

PLANNED definitely for Friday, December 16, is the dance to be given by the Salem Women's Army and Navy league, it was announced Wednesday. Plans for the event will be discussed at a meeting of the group's board next week.

VISITORS in the capital Tuesday for a time were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Hope of Eugene who were en route to Portland.

Bits of this and that: The Graham Sharkeys recently returned from a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Livesley, in Canada. . . . Gail Dorr, young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Dorr, recently celebrated a birthday. . . . Received word that Norma Rathjen, young Salem horsewoman, is spending the winter in the Midwest with relatives. . . . Judy Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfe, is recovering from a minor foot injury and will be back jumping her favorite horse, Banner, again soon.

Greens Show Dates Listed

Dates for the Salem Garden club's Christmas greens show have been changed, the event now to be held December 17, 18 and 19. Many plans are being made for this event, a fair to be one of the features.

At the meeting Monday, Mrs. Frank York of York Gardens was a guest speaker to discuss fuchsia culture. She brought 20 varieties with her for display, also showed colored pictures of the 1950 introductions.

Honored at the birthday table were Mrs. C. Ward Davis, Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Sr., and Miss Elizabeth Lord.

Mrs. Mabel Hayles also gave a talk, telling of the flower market in Holland. She was in Europe this past summer.

Mrs. Ethel Brown won the prize for the most interesting arrangement at the meeting, the arrangement including dried materials in fall colors.

Mrs. Charles Cole prepared the surprise table, featuring a brown cloth with colorful yellow table setting.

Several guests were at the meeting, Mrs. Chester M. Cox, Mrs. Bertha Huston and Miss Ada Chapman won the special prizes.

The next meeting is to be a Christmas party for members only. There will be a Christmas greens demonstration and discussion.

IN SEATTLE for a few days are Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, who are at the Olympic. While north they will visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Botker, and Miss Edna Sterling.

Board Meets

The board for the Junior Woman's club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Sam Campbell. A donation from the Jaycee-Ettes was received to go toward the Junior Woman's club city playground project. Plans were discussed for an invitational holiday tea, the date to be set later. Also, plans were talked over for next Monday evening's meeting.

Mothers Club

Pi Beta Phi Mothers club met for a no-host luncheon Tuesday at the chapter house. Mrs. C. B. Spencer and Mrs. E. A. Lettiken of Dallas were welcomed as new members. Plans were discussed for a jam and jelly shower for the active chapter in December.

At the luncheon were Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Lettiken, Mrs. Cari Schneider, president of the group; Mrs. I. B. Jones of Corvallis, Mrs. Solon Shinkle, Mrs. Robert Brady, Mrs. Wayne Price, Mrs. S. C. Huston, Mrs. Franklin Bishop, Mrs. Carl Schneider, Mrs. C. L. Carson, Mrs. Miles Edwards, Mrs. J. J. Nunn, Mrs. Paul Weyrauch, Mrs. David Cameron, Mrs. Dolph Craig and Mrs. Arthur Upston.

P.E.O. Dinner

evening, husbands of members to be guests. The dinner will begin with the first course at the Glen Weaver home, the second at the A. H. Randall home, the third course at the Roy Harland home, the final course at the S. A. Boise home. Then the group will go to the Gus Moore residence for the social evening.

LEAVING Tuesday on the Shasta Daylight for a week in San Francisco were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moyer and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moyer. While in the Bay city, Mr. Moyer senior, who is park superintendent here, is to visit the director of the Golden Gate park.
