

Wedding Due December 26

Gervais—Miss Loretta Ferren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ferren of Canby, formerly of Gervais, has announced December 26 as date for her marriage to Willis Person of Salem.

The wedding will be an afternoon one at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church of Salem. The couple plan to live in Berkeley. Mr. Person continuing his work for his doctor of philosophy in chemistry at University of California where he has a teaching fellowship. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Person of Salem.

Honoring Miss Ferren, a bridal shower was given last week in the local Presbyterian church parlors, Misses Viola Bierly, Luzerne Hanes, Wanda Ferren and Mary Jane Hall being the hostesses.

THE WOMEN'S Missionary society of the First Baptist church is meeting Thursday at 2 p.m. at the church. Mrs. E. A. Young is worship leader.

James H. Christian of the Western Baptist seminary, Portland, is to be guest speaker.

Hostess for the meeting are Mrs. E. D. Buell, Mrs. H. M. Buell, Mrs. George Buell. Members are asked to take or send their dime cards.

Golden Wedding Reception Sunday

Gervais—Invitations are being issued through the press to all friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Seguin, who will observe their golden wedding anniversary at a reception given by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seguin of Oakridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning as co-hosts.

The reception will be held Sunday, November 13 between 1:30 and 5 p.m. at the Sacred Heart parish hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Seguin were married in the Sacred Heart Catholic church at Gervais, on November 15, 1899.

Today's Menu

A Wednesday Supper
Tomato Bouillon Crisp Crackers
Tuna Fish Cups
Thin Cream Sauce with Mushrooms
Mixed Salad Bowl
Bread and Butter
Baked Apple Slices Beverage
Tuna Fish Cups

Ingredients: 2 cups hot milk, 1 cup fine soft bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 tablespoon finely grated onion, 1 seven-ounce can tuna fish (including oil from can), 4 eggs.

Method: Add the bread crumbs, salt, mustard and onion to the hot milk. Add tuna fish and mix well so fish is evenly distributed. Beat eggs thoroughly with electric mixer or rotary beater and add gradually to first mixture, blending them in with a spoon as you do so. Turn into greased custard cups; place cups in a pan of hot water so water comes well up on cups; bake in a moderate (350 F.) oven for about 45 minutes or until a small knife inserted in center comes out clean. Insert small spatula around rim of each cup to loosen fish mold and invert to remove. Makes 8 small cups.

Soloists With Oratorio

Soloists for the annual presentation of Handel's "The Messiah," by the Salem Oratorio society on Sunday, December 11, have been announced by the music committee of the group. The program is to be sung at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of December 11 in the Salem high school auditorium. Soloists include the following:

Virginia Ward Elliott, soprano—teacher on the McMinnville high school staff, twice a soloist in previous presentations with the Oratorio society; to be assisted by Grace Ashford, major in music at Willamette university.

Edith Fairham Gunnar, contralto—soloist with the society last year, now doing graduate work at Willamette university and teaching music at Fairview home.

Ormal Tack, tenor—director of music for the Lower Columbia Junior college at Longview.

Robert Johnson, basso—sings with the Unitarian church quartet in Portland; to be assisted by Robert Gwinn, senior at Willamette university.

Weekly rehearsals are being staged by the society in preparation for the concert. Dean Melvin Geist directs the group.

Mrs. Haggard Is Feted at Shower

Silverton—At a post-nuptial social affair, complimenting Mrs. Robert Haggard (Betty Cunningham) a linen and crystal shower of gifts was followed by an hour of games and informal visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Starkey, a sister of Mrs. Haggard, with Mrs. Ernest Erickson and Mrs. E. L. Montgomery, co-hostesses. Guests wrote a book of household hints for the bride. The rooms and gift and serving tables were gay in lacy pink and white umbrellas as decorative theme.

Invited were Mrs. Robert Haggard, Mrs. Robert Allen, Mrs. Wesley Grogan, Mrs. Al Harding, Mrs. Delia Holm, Mrs. Kenny Dorgan, Mrs. Ronald Wood, Mrs. John W. Myers, Mrs. Dan Cunningham, Mrs. Ernest Erickson, Miss Patty Walker, Mrs. Ed Hanson of Woodburn, Mrs. Emma Coberly, Mrs. Knute Digeress, Mrs. John Bowman, Mrs. Pat Grogan, Mrs. William Cunningham, Mrs. Jess Cunningham, Mrs. Larry Ernst, Mrs. Arnold Olson, Mrs. Duayne Thomas, Miss Daisy Erickson and Ernest Erickson, Jr.

Woodburn Women Plan Activities

Woodburn—At the November business meeting of the Woodburn Junior Woman's club plans were made to hold a cake sale on Thursday, Nov. 10, at the Scarborough hardware store, beginning at 10 a.m. Mrs. C. Edwin Enos is in charge and will be assisted by several members.

At the meeting the club also voted to sponsor a junior book shelf at the local library for juniors from 11 to 18 years of age. A talk was given by the librarian, Mrs. Stella Kerns, on the need for such books and plans will be worked out at the next meeting. Other clubs are to be asked to contribute to the fund for this project.

Each member attending brought a candle to add to the collection to be sent to Korea for Christmas. During the social hour the members worked on dish towels for the use of the club. Mrs. Joe Walker, Jr. was chairman of the hostess committee and was assisted by Mrs. Wallace Lee and Mrs. Robert Miller.

Detroit Club Back Of Library Project

Detroit—The Detroit Women's Civic club met at the home of Mrs. Zetta Schlador at the 3C camp last week. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Ray Johnson. There was a discussion of the library, which is being sponsored and equipped by the Civic club. The necessity of a few more children's books was reported by Mrs. Joe Wright, librarian. She also reported that 50 books for children were on order from the state library. These books will all be for children below the 8th grade. It was decided to keep the library open on Saturday from 2-4, beginning at once.

The Women's Civic club has taken an interest in a permanent library here and has been saving whatever funds it has been able to raise from various projects and was able to buy a five hundred dollar bond, which will be used as a building fund for a new library above the water line. The library has an unusually good selection of library books for adults, according to Miss Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, who was here two weeks ago. Donations have been received from a number of individuals and groups as well as some donations from libraries having duplicates of books.

Mrs. Schlador has been appointed Community Chest chairman in Detroit vicinity, which also includes Mongold. There were eighteen members present and one guest, Mrs. Mammie Wyers of Costa Mesa, Calif. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Langholz-Warner Wedding Oct. 31

Aurora—At a ceremony in Vancouver, Wash. Monday evening, October 31, Miss Marian Lucille Warner, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner of Sheldon, Iowa, was wed to Kenneth William Langholz, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Huber of Canby. Justice of the Peace Fred Bowman read the service.

The bride wore a street dress of green satin with a corsage of gardenias. She was attended by Mr. Langholz's sister, Mrs. Howard Giger, who wore a gray bolero dress and a corsage of American Beauty roses. Glenn Potratz served as best man for Mr. Langholz. Attending the wedding were the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Huber; the bridegroom's grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Giger and daughter, Virginia, Mrs. Ronald Mohning and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Potratz, all immediate relatives of the couple.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mohning in Canby. About 50 friends and relatives attended the reception. Mrs. Langholz came west from Iowa about a year ago. Mr. Langholz, a veteran of nearly four years of navy service, is a graduate of Canby union high school.

The couple are now at home east of Mulino.

AMONG those entertaining a group preceding the Wisteria club dance Thursday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morrow, who have invited a group to their home.

Hosts following the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goode-nough, who are to entertain informally at a midnight supper with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cullen of Frankfurt, Kentucky, visitors here, as honor guests.

The Wisteria dance is to be in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

MRS. O. MONSON, 386 East Rural avenue, celebrated her 80th birthday, Saturday. Present for the dinner and to spend the day were her children, Mr. and Mrs. Wick Miller of Albany, Harold Monson of Grand Ronde, Misses Agnes and Olga Monson of Salem, and her brother, Peter Nelson of Salem. Another son, Wallace Monson, was unable to attend, as was Mrs. Harold Monson, who is visiting her mother in Iowa.
