

'Judas Iscariot' Wants Job Back

Oberammergau, Germany, Nov. 10 (AP)—The only non-Nazi who played a major role in the last Passion play 15 years ago charged today that he was dropped from the cast of the 1950 revival because of "political discrimination."

Hans Zwink, who plays the part of Judas Iscariot in 1934, said the selection committee had said it would not "discriminate against former Nazi party members."

It didn't, he said. Instead the committee for the 300th anniversary performance discriminated against him because he was not a Nazi, he added.

Elections Said to Favor Oregon Demos

Portland, Ore., Nov. 10 (AP)—Democratic state chairman William I. Josslin today described the democratic successes at the polls throughout the country Tuesday as "an omen for party victory" in Oregon next year.

"Since 1940, Oregon's population has increased almost 60 per cent," Josslin said. "This increase is made up largely of labor and other liberal groups from democratic states. With a little effort, the republican lead of a year ago of 12,391 in registration can be wiped out and Oregon put in the democratic column."

"If the democratic party will then nominate a full ticket of candidates of real merit and integrity, advocating an intelligent and constructive program for Oregon's development, the party will sweep the state in November, 1950."

Liberty Girl Scouts Have Annual Ballot

Liberty — The Liberty Girl Scout troop 51 met at the home of the leader, Mrs. Robert Morrow, assisted by Mrs. Alvin Poole, the assistant leader.

The club voted for officers and named Lorraine Peterson president and Janet Smith, secretary-treasurer. Plans were made for the candy sale to be held on the second floor of the Liberty school on Thursday night at open house.

The troop started sewing on tea towels, for which they will receive merit badges when completed. New members to join were DeLee Davidson, Patty McMillan and Jackie Welch.

Games were played and group singing followed by refreshments. The next meeting will be a birthday party in honor of Yvonne Poole.

Speakers Warned to Guard Against Jinx

Opal Bayer, 1597 Franklin avenue, who is blind and a professional singer, and who belongs to the Salem chapter of the Chin Up club of Oregon, was scheduled to sing for the Hollywood Lions Wednesday night.

Late in the day she tripped on a bicycle on the walk near her home and got injuries that are not serious, but prevented her from filling the singing engagement.

"Why couldn't it have happened?"

ed the night after I sang instead of just before," Miss Bayer lamented.

The program was being arranged by the Chin Up club, and the club felt responsible. So Beth Sellwood, state president, called upon Frank E. Sanders at Oregon School for the Blind, and Dr. S. A. Wheatley, state treasurer for the Chin Uppers.

"And listen," she told them. "Be sure you don't step on a nail or a banana peeling before that program."

Both filled the engagement.

Sacred Heart Has First Homecoming

Sacred Heart high school's first annual homecoming on Armistice day is expected to attract many alumni.

The activities will include a 2 o'clock football game with Sacred Heart's Cardinals meeting the Bible Academy Crusaders, their cross-city rivals.

In the evening St. Joseph's Hall will be open at 8 o'clock to alumni. At 9 o'clock a Homecoming dance for students and alumni will complete the event.

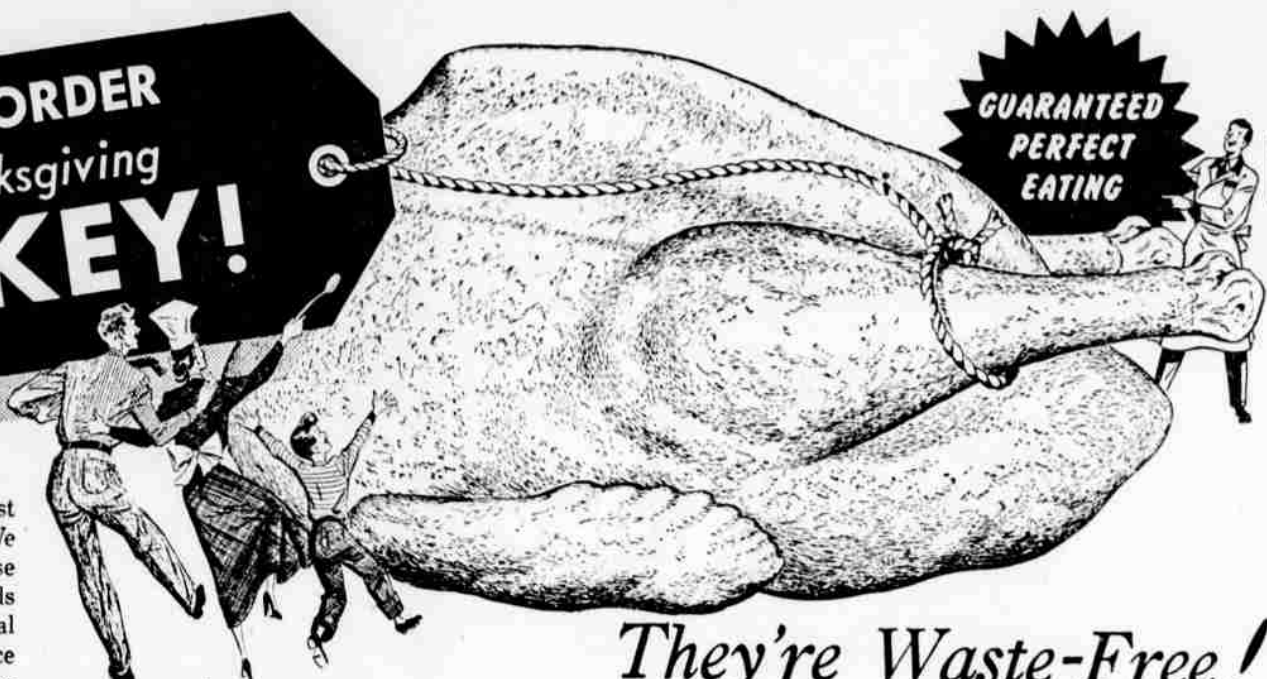

Oratory Contest Names Speakers

The Sacred Heart high school representatives for the "I Speak

Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Thursday, Nov. 10, 1949—11 for Democracy," oratorical contest were chosen at a special assembly. Contestants chosen were seniors James Lanaster and James Coleran. Runners-up were: Allan Pearl, Gail Lockwood, Joanne Coleman, Edward Watkins, Edward Wichman, Mary Ann Fischer and Michael Roschko.

The assembly opened and closed with the singing of the national anthem and salute to the flag.
