

He's Really a Hog—The fellow with the paunch on the right is Billy, a groundhog who makes a hog of himself when he gets an ice cream cone. He's so dainty he rotates the cone constantly so drippings won't ooze over his paws. His master (left), Johnny Coble, 6, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Coble of Bazetta, O. (AP Wirephoto)

MODERN SIRENS OUTCLASS HER

Cleo's Baths Had Nothing On Those of Movie Queens

By VIRGINIA MacPHERSON

Hollywood, Nov. 10 (U.P.)—Forget whatever you've read about Cleopatra's "exotic baths." The movie queens have her outclassed. Did Cleo ever dunk her curves by candlelight? Did she float atop the soapuds on cork floats? Did she have a private wave-maker for her tub?

Nope. All the "Nifty of the Nile" had for originality was milk. Strictly class B stuff. Take these modern sirens, now:

When Shelley Winters takes a bath she makes a production number of it. Fills her king-sized tub with hot water, puts two cork floats under her head and thighs, and floats the dirt away.

She's the one who has the wave-maker. Says she got the idea from the prop man at Universal-International who roughed up a pond she waded through for "South Seas Sinners." "It's really a miniature one," says Shelley. But the little waves just ripple over me. Soooo relaxing."

Marilyn Maxwell does her dunking by candlelight. A taper at the head of the tub and another at the foot—she says.

She scrubs in time to music, too. Always puts Ravel's "Bolero" on the record player before she crawls in.

Dorothy Hart has a reading lamp installed at the end of her tub and says she catches up on more best-sellers that way. And it was Mae West who had mirrors installed in the bathroom ceiling and on all four walls so she could see herself from every angle.

familiar with the changes in the program.

The allocation of funds for Marion county has been increased from $123,500 in 1949 to $146,000 in 1950 with a resulting increase possible for each farm, but requirements for earning payment will be stricter than in 1949.

Life spans of between 200 and 300 years are normal for the eider duck, giant tortoise, goose, parrot and raven.

Ella says she wants it coming from all directions at once.

But Maria Montez tops 'em all. When she married Jean Pierre Aumont, she called in the redecorators and ordered two tubs, two showers, and two washstands for her bathroom. She believed, she explained, "a married couple should really be together."
