Wedding at Monmouth

Monmouth — The First Christian church was the scene the evening of October 4 of a wedding when Miss Grace Schroeder and George Hayward exchanged their marriage vows at 8:15 o'clock. Rev. Milo Franke, the bride's brother-in-law, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Schroeder of Monmouth and Mr. Hayward the son of Mrs. Eva Hayward of West Salem.

Lighted candles and baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums flanked the altar. Miss Betty Bollinger and Miss Marilyn Miller lighted the candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of brocade satin with long sleeves and high neckline. Her long veil with lace insertions, cascaded from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with a corsage of pink rosebuds and gardenias, with shower ribbon of satin.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Milo Franke, who wore an aqua taffeta dress and carried a nosegay of pink roses. Little Charlotte Franke, the bride's niece, was flower girl. Arthur Hayward was best man for his brother, and Lawrence Guy and Kenny Kahler were the ushers. Mrs. George Harding played the organ. Miss Estella Schroeder, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Howard Olsen of Salem sang.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a brown dress with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

A reception was held in the church basement following the wedding. The rooms were decorated in chrysanthemums and the bride's table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. David Friesen, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Jack Stump poured, Miss Bonnie Flickinger served punch, and others assisting in serving were Misses Margaret Stump, Lois Perkins, Marion Perkins, Pat Petrick, Gladys Young, Lucinda Fitzhugh and Mrs. Alfred Schroeder. Miss Donna Tomkins was in charge of the guest book and Miss Arla Jean Deforest and Miss Ethel Burns of the gifts.

The bride attended Salem and Monmouth schools. The bridegroom graduated from Dallas high school and served in the navy during the war.

After a short wedding trip to southern Oregon, the couple will live at Klamath Falls, where Mr. Hayward will attend school. For going away the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories and a rosebud corsage.
