

Miss Cooper and Mr. Houk Wed at Monmouth Service

Monmouth—Miss Edna Mae Cooper and Keith L. Houk were married in the Christian church, Saturday, at 8:30 p.m. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cooper, a graduate of Monmouth high school and a student at Oregon College of Education. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. W. Houk of Monmouth. He is a MHS graduate and is employed by the Independence First National bank.

The altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums and tapers. The aisle down which the wedding party approached the altar had a row of tapers on each side. Jeanne and Deanne Thompson lighted the tapers and Nola Richter and Elaine Foltz tied the ribbons. Rev. Gerald E. Haskett of West Salem officiated. Donald Adamson of Tillamook presided at the organ, playing the processional and recessional and acting as accompanist for George Redden who was vocalist for the occasion.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a period style, white satin gown, fashioned with illusion yoke surrounded by lace with fitted bodice, long tight sleeves and a full skirt terminating in a train. Her veil of illusion net was fingertip in length and was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, centered with a white orchid with ribbon streamers.

Miss Betty Lou Guthrie, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink gown, braided headdress and mitts matching it, and she carried a nosegay of chrysanthemums. Miss Lafona Houk, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Barbara Wood of Portland and Miss Joyce Martin of Monmouth were bridesmaids. They wore green dresses, patterned identically to that of the honor attendant. They too wore braided headdresses and mitts, and carried nosegays of button chrysanthemums.

Wayne Houk was best man for his brother. Ushers were cousins of the bridegroom, Roy L. Houk, Jr., James Houk and Howard Houk, all of Salem.

The bride's mother wore a dress of cinnamon brown with an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of turquoise color with an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Grans Byers of Independence and Mrs. Clares Powell, Monmouth, served the wedding cake; Mrs. Cecil Guthrie of Tillamook, aunt of the bride, poured the coffee and Mrs. Albert Russell of San Francisco was at the punch bowl. Helping in serving were Miss Lorraine Lofte, Mrs. Fred J.

Hill, Mrs. Delmer R. Dewey and Mrs. Donald H. Searing. Miss Margaret Mills of Independence had charge of the guest book.

The going away costume of the bride was a dark brown suit with brown accessories and orchid corsage. For their wedding trip they will go to the Grand Canyon, Old Mexico and parts of California, expecting to be gone about two weeks.

On their return they will be at home at 688 South street.

Amaranth Court Host to Visitors

Cherry court U.D., Order of the Amaranth, held its slated meeting Tuesday at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall. It was the official visit of the grand officers.

Four candidates were initiated, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fish, Mrs. Patricia Binger and Mrs. D. Tolle.

The grand visitors were Mrs. James Manning, grand royal matron; Francis E. Hurburt, grand secretary; Earl Beeson, grand royal patron; Homer Aston, past grand royal patron of Oregon; Mrs. William Ellis, grand lecturer; Wallace Spence, district supreme royal patron to Egypt; James Manning, grand marshal; Mrs. Wallace Spence, grand page; Malcolm McDonald, grand sword bearer; Mrs. Pauline Wilson, royal matron of Hanna Rosa court.

Refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. Ray Johnson, chairman; Mrs. Howard Jenks, Mrs. George Maurer, Mrs. Jacob Fryberger and Mrs. Grace Thropp.

The next meeting will be at the VFW hall on Tuesday, November 29. This will be installation of the officers and the public is invited to attend.

LEAVING by plane Friday for San Francisco to spend the weekend were Mrs. Lawrence Stoddard and Miss Gertrude Shies. They will return Monday.

Miss Ruth Lois Hill

YW Officer Coming Here

Miss Ruth Lois Hill, a member of the national staff of the Young Women's Christian association, will visit the Salem branch next Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 14 and 15.

Miss Hill, whose special field is administrative affairs secretary of the western region, carries the responsibility for advisory service to local associations on administrative matters concerning finance, budget, program, personnel and membership. Since 1945, she has worked with YWCAs in the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

Miss Hill has had 16 years of experience in community YMCA work in various parts of the country — Berkeley and San Francisco, Cal.; Billings, Mont.; Brockton, Mass.; and Johnstown, Penn.

A full schedule has been planned for Miss Hill's Salem visit. On Monday morning she will meet with the resident staff. Monday evening at 6:00, the young adult conference will take the form of a no-host supper, for which Mrs. Charles Fearing is chairman.

The executive board and all interested chairmen will meet with Miss Hill at 9:45 Tuesday morning.

At 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, the younger girls committee, of which Mrs. A. W. Archibald is chairman, and the Tri-Y mothers executive committee, whose president is Mrs. Everett Andersen, will confer with Miss Hill.

Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m., she will meet with the advisers' group for Tri-Y and Y-Teen girls. These last two groups are under the direction of Miss Norma Wallace, program director for younger girls.

All meetings will be held at the YWCA on State street.

Campus Clippings

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

By CHARLOTTE ELEXANDER

After a gay week-end in Portland, most of the students feel they might as well keep their suitcases packed, for whether it's by air, train or car, Oregon is going to be on hand to support their team when playing California this Saturday.

A pre-game party for Oregon alums and guests has been scheduled for Friday night in San Francisco. The affair will begin at 5:30, and entertainment has been planned.

Climaxing the week's "Beat Washington" campaign was a rally held in front of John Straub hall. Coach Jim Aiken provided many a laugh, and he introduced each member of the team. Woody Lewis got up and led the team in a yell for the students—guess the team felt we needed it.

Friday night's rally in Portland was a tremendous success. Everyone had a fine time. The theme for this rally was "Portland Extravaganza." A full hour of entertainment was provided. Dick Barber and Jack Dalk blended their voices together in singing. Rod Bright played the part of the villain in the skit "Hellzapoppin." Miss Marguerite Johns was introduced as Oregon's 1949 Homecoming Hostess at the beginning of the rally. Also leading off the Friday night festivities was a rally dance held at McElroy's ballroom. Saturday night another dance was held at the Palais royal.

This week we were fortunate to have on the campus two concert artists. Madame Alice Ehlers, who is praised for her virtuosity on the harpsicord, appeared Wednesday evening. The University civic music association presented Thomas L. Thomas, baritone.

Friday night is slated at "fun nite" at Gerlinger hall. This is the second fun night which has been offered to the students. There will be ping pong, volley ball, badminton, swimming and square dancing.

Bob Weber has been doing a fine job on his program for KOAC. Each week Bob brings
