L. A. PREACHER INVITES GANGSTER

Handsome Revival Preacher Spurns Rich Hollywood Offer

By VIRGINIA MacPHERSON

Hollywood, Nov. 12 (AP)—Dr. William (Billy) Graham, the handsome revival preacher who considers most movies the work of the devil, admitted today a group of Hollywood moguls are trying to make a leading man out of him.

"I laughed in their faces," he said. "I wouldn't do it for $1,000,000 a month."

He wants no part of Hollywood's fleshpots, says the 31-year-old evangelist, whose tent revival meetings are taking the town by storm.

"Hollywood has done more," Dr. Graham added firmly, "to bring about the moral deterioration of America than any other single factor. If they'd let me make a movie where I could preach the gospel, I might be interested."

But that wasn't exactly what the moguls had in mind. They were thinking along other lines. Graham is six-foot-four, with broad shoulders, blue eyes, wavy blonde hair and a beguiling southern drawl. They could see him pitching woo to some luscious movie siren.

Graham not only laughed at 'em, he wouldn't even hang around long enough to talk money. And that surprised the moguls more than anything.

"Movie stars are the unhappiest people in the world," he said. "I won't tell their names, but I had lunch at a big studio yesterday, and I talked to many of them."

He's talked to a few of the local gangsters, too. Graham particularly has his eye on Mickey Cohen, king-pin of the Hollywood underworld.

"I think Mickey will be down to our revival meetings before we're through," Graham said. "He's been on our hearts a long time."

"If he doesn't come, I'll go to his house. I'm not afraid. With my Bible in my hand, I'm not afraid of the devil himself."

Cohen wasn't sure he'd be among the 6500 worshippers who cram into Graham's tent nightly.

"I've got plenty of religion of my own," the round-faced gambler told the United Press. "But if the guy comes over, I'll talk to him."

"I've got nothing on my mind to keep me from being social with a preacher. But about going down to his tent like he says . . . I dunno."

Dr. Graham thinks if movie stars will "unburden their hearts to him," gangsters will, too.

"These stars thought fame and wealth and public adulation would be the apex of their lives," he said "but they've found there is nothing to it. It's a bubble that bursts in their eyes."

"Now they're caught in the coils of their contracts and their publicity. They want to find the way back. But they don't know how."

Some of them have made a start, Dr. Graham said. A group of big name stars meet secretly in Hollywood. Sometimes they gather at Jane Russell's house to pray.

Miss Russell is a regular visitor at Graham's revival meetings. Coleen Townsend has been down, too. And so have Connie Haynes, Porter Hall and John Holland.

Graham said he doesn't make any appeals for money and takes

Amity Makes Plans Church Homecoming

Amity—The Women's Society of Christian Service held the general business meeting in the church parlors, Mrs. P. E. Meeker, presiding. Plans were completed for the homecoming of church members November 20, when the former members and those living in far places will be invited to come for that day.

Dorcas Society Sees Movies from Africa

Monmouth — The Dorcas society held its November meeting in the Christian church basement with nearly 36 members and guests. In the afternoon Mrs. Nellie Smith conducted the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Charles Ray.

After the business session a short program of readings was given and Rev. John Hash showed motion pictures of the journey across Africa by Mr. and Mrs. Armand Denis with a map that showed their route and a commentator who gave a talk on the trip as the scenes were shown. A comforter was tied during the forenoon.

Gateway to Life...

A young mother said with an enthusiastic ring in her voice, "There is one thing I am determined to do. I am going to see that Nancy knows and loves the Bible." This mother knows that the Bible is the gateway to life.

There are other books that assist in developing a useful and happy life, but there is only one book which is important from the cradle to the grave. There are many books which can improve mind and character, but there is a limit to their effectiveness.

The Bible gives help and guidance in every phase of human experience. That is why it is the world's most popular book. It has been issued in 188 languages and part of it in 1108 tongues and dialects.

No other book has ever been so thoroughly read as the Bible. It lives because people get the most out of life as they study and treasure its eternal truths.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
