Gentzkow-Schwartz Rites Today

At impressive rites performed at 9 o'clock this morning in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Miss Marcella Mary Schwartz, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Schwartz and the late Mr. Schwartz, was married to Richard F. Gentzkow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Gentzkow.

The Rev. T. J. Bernards performed the ceremony. Fall flowers decorated the church. For the music, Mrs. Vince Rodakowski and Wayne Meusey sang. Mr. Meusey also playing the organ. Serving as acolytes were Thomas and Donald Wichman.

Given in marriage by her brother, H. V. Schwartz of Canby, the tall brunette bride wore a gown of ivory slipper satin. The dress was designed in simple lines, square neckline with stand-up collar, a V-cut bodice with row of buttons down the front, short sleeves with opera length gauntlets, and a long train. For her flowers the bride carried a fluffy cascade of bouquet of large white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. John Jennings of Mt. Angel was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a dark green taffeta frock fashioned with round neckline and full skirt, and with the dress she wore matching short mitts. Her flowers were a bouquet of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

Junior bridesmaids were young Misses Dorothy Lou and Jan Schwartz, nieces of the bride. Their tip-toe length dresses were of gold taffeta made with fitted bodices, round necklines and full skirts, scalloped at the hemline to reveal ruffles. With their dresses they wore short mitts matching the dress material. Young Miss Margery Gentzkow, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl, and her dress was identical to that of the junior bridesmaids. All three carried bouquets of the bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Paul Halter was best man. Ushering were Albert Alley and William Gentzkow.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schwartz wore a light blue suit with winter pink accessories and corsage of pink blooms. Mrs. Gentzkow, the bridegroom's mother, wore a gray suit with green accessories and a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

Following the service, the couple greeted friends informally at the church. Later a wedding breakfast was served at the Senator hotel for the bridal party and relatives.

For traveling the bride wore a gray wool tailleur with brown satin hat, brown lizard skin shoes and purse and brown gloves.

Following a ski trip to Mt. Rainier the couple will be at home on route 4, Salem.

Their Wedding Is Recent Event

ONE OF THE INDIVIDUALS to whom much credit must go for the success of the blood program in Marion county in recent weeks is Mrs. Jay Briscoe, above. For the past three months, Mrs. Briscoe has been doing much of the telephone work to contact prospective donors and since starting this work, entirely a volunteer job, Mrs. Briscoe has taken more than 250 cards out of the Red Cross office to sign up would-be donors. She does the work from her "wall desk" at home and is in typical pose here as she starts her calls.
