Liberty Club Holds Program

Liberty, Nov. 14—It was a gala affair for the parents, friends and children of Liberty who attended the open house and community club program.

Pupils of every room were showing their parents the work they had done since the term started. Also special displays that were done by the pupils under the guidance of the teachers. The Girl Scouts sold candy on the second floor of the school house during the evening. The community club got under way later with many of the parents attending.

Mrs. S. B. Davison talked against disbanding of the Community club. It was felt that an organization so long established should continue.

Mrs. Harold Rosebraugh re-Mrs. Harold Rosebraugh re-ported on the progress of the Cub Scout program at Liberty. Mervin Seeger announced that the election for the formation and the election of five directors for the Liberty-Salem Heights rural fire district would be held at the Liberty hall club room on December 13.
