

Mrs. Merriott Honored by Salem Chapter of OES

Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star, held its regular meeting Saturday evening with Mrs. Claude Post, worthy matron, and William Newmyer, worthy patron, presiding. Following a very short meeting, a reception was held to honor a member of the chapter, Mrs. William Merriott, grand chaplain of the grand chapter of Oregon.

Founders Event Sunday

Suggestion that Salemites could unite to sponsor annually some special music event was made by Mrs. James T. Brand in addressing the founders day banquet of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honor society, last evening. Her talk was the featured event for the banquet given as a smorgasbord event at Lausanne hall on Willamette university campus.

"Hood River has something besides its apples—a music festival; Ashland has its Shake-speare festival. Why should not Salem work toward some special interest?" Mrs. Brand commented.

The banquet marked the 46th founders day event for the national group. Preceding the dinner, installation services were held in the campus music hall for new patrons and patronesses, the Willamette chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon bringing its total of patrons and patronesses to 46.

Miss Betty Kuhlman, chapter president, presided at the installation service, also at the banquet. She gave the welcome to the new patrons and patronesses.

Dean Melvin H. Geist of the college of music gave the response for the patrons group. Concluding the banquet was a number by a string quartet, including Miss Kuhlman, first violin; Frank Holman, second violin; Doris McCain, viola; and Lucy Bellinger, cello.

Members of the honorary acting as hostesses included the following: Miss Kuhlman as president; Miss Glennis Allen, vice president; Miss Beatrice Nagl, corresponding secretary; Miss Gloria Stone, treasurer; Miss Jean Farquharson, faculty adviser; Norvda Smedley, Jodelle Parker, Jodie Johannaber, Gladys Blue, Telma Curran, Doris McCain, Jeanne Rice, Bernice Isham, Margaret Powell, Beverly Holmes, Beverly Gustafson, Martha Benard, Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, Mrs. Frank Burlingham, Miss Lena Belle Tartar.

Placecards were in purple and white, the society's colors, and the tables were decorated with chrysanthemums arranged in baskets that were replicas of the society's pin.

WOODBURN—The November dinner meeting of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club will be held Thursday, Nov. 17, at 7 p. m. at the Lutheran hall. Entertainment will be furnished by Dr. George King who will show colored pictures taken on a trip to Canada during the summer and

In Lead Role

Portland, (Special) — Helen Drorbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Meier, 334 North Capitol, Salem, has the lead part in the Portland Theatre of Opera and Ballet's presentation of "The Grand Duchess of Gerolstein," a comic opera to be staged at the Benson auditorium, Saturday, December 3.

Eugene Fuerst is directing the cast of some 30 performers, evenly divided among singers and dancers. Nicholas Vasilieff is directing the ballet.

Miss Cook Wed Nov. 6

Valley Junction — Miss Ruth Cook, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Cook, of Dallas, and Dallas Lyle Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Miller, Breckenridge, Minn., were married November 6 at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boehler, of Valley Junction, with Rev. George Mathiasen, of the Sheridan Trinity Lutheran church, officiating.

Mrs. Carl Boehler, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Orin Ross Cook, brother of the bride, best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held with Mrs. John Cook, McCoy pouring and Mrs. James Cook, Grand Ronde, cut the cake.

The couple, after a short wedding trip, will be at home at San Francisco where he has been stationed since his return from occupational services in Germany.

Wins Honor

Lebanon — Miss Jane Slocum, high school senior, was named winner of the good citizenship award of the Lebanon Daughters of the American Revolution chapter at an assembly last week. A faculty committee of eight teachers made the choice which was given to the senior girl showing greatest promise in good citizenship. Misses Janice King, Gloria Logan and Jane Slocum were the three judged for the honor in the finals, while the group originally nominated by the committee for consideration included these three and Misses Betty Schackman, Devanda Hamilton, Jackie Whitmore, Mary Waddell, Donna Plymale, Marie Carter, Betty Arnold, Ardith Greer and Doris Hake.

Announcement of Miss Slocum's election was made by Mrs. R. M. Hayden, state chairman of the good citizenship committee. Last year, Miss Daris Groves was selected local winner of the award, and won state honors when her name was drawn by Gov. Douglas McKay. She was presented with a $100 savings bond and honored at the state D.A.R. convention.

HOME FROM a few days in Medford and Roseburg are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scellars, who returned last evening.

Miss Ely Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Ely are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Ely, to George R. Duncan, Jr., son of Judge and Mrs. George R. Duncan, Sr., all of Stayton.

The bride-elect is doing secretarial work in Stayton and her fiance is a student at Oregon College of Education in Monmouth.

The wedding has been planned for late spring.

WOODBURN — The annual election of officers of the women's division of the Woodburn Golf club will be held next Thursday, Nov. 17, the closing luncheon of the season. Hostesses will be Mrs. C. W. Kersten and Mrs. George D. Jones.

Serving at the luncheon this past Thursday were Mrs. Lettie Steelhammer and Mrs. Blanche Eastman.

Engagement Told

Albany — Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Burkhardt this week announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Burkhardt, to Stanley B. Corning of Salem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Corning, Salem. No definite date for the wedding has been set.

Miss Burkhardt was graduated from Albany high school and also from the University of Oregon at Eugene last spring.

Mr. Corning is a senior at the University of Oregon this year, majoring in the school of business administration.

HUBBARD — Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McCoy were honor guests at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bridge and Bonnie. A candlelight dinner complete with wedding cake was given in celebration of the wedding.
