In most cases, she states in her letter, the problem can be solved by consolidation and there are many boards and a large number of patrons who would like to bring it about.

However, she says that the situation is such there should be a county wide study made before any definite steps are taken and it is for this purpose she is considering the naming of a committee for that purpose. The whole problem will be threshed out at the coming meeting and probably a committee named.

Mrs. Booth could not be contacted at her office Tuesday for further details as she was out of the city.
