

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Tuesday, Nov. 15, 1949

Rotana Club Contributes To Projects

Contributions to several civic programs were voted at the meeting of Salem Rotana club last evening.

A sum of $80 was voted to go to buying a swing for the park and playground equipment project of the Salem Junior Woman's club. A sum of $25 was contributed to the school luncheon program for one or more individuals. Mrs. C. L. Wasson being in charge of this. A gift of $10 was voted for Christmas for the Chin Up club.

The club voted to sponsor again the Horizon club, senior Camp Fire Girls group, Mrs. Lester Thomas, Mrs. Chester Pickens and Mrs. Enos Nelson to be the sponsors.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Chester Pickens with Mrs. Wilmer Wells as co-hostess. Twenty-five attended. Mrs. J. D. Fair was a special guest.

Miss Lorena Jack, president, presented corsages to new members, Mrs. Henry Mattson, Mrs. William Greif and Miss Alice Mathey. There are two other new members, Miss Zelma King and Miss Gladys Tipton who were unable to attend the meeting.

Miss Vada L. Hill, national Rotana president and a member of the local group, reported on a recent trip she and Mrs. Marie Barr made to the Medford club. "Mystery pals" for the past year were revealed and gifts exchanged. New ones were chosen for the new year.

A Christmas party is planned by the club for December and a rummage sale in January.

Quilts Needed

Quilts are greatly needed in the work of the local Red Cross office, and to date very few persons have responded to an earlier appeal in making the quilts, the chapter production department reports.

Fifteen quilts are ready to go out to be finished, and interested organizations or individuals are asked to contact the Red Cross office. The Red Cross furnishes the materials and prepares the quilts to go out for the quilting.

These quilts are given out in times of disaster for those families in need of them.

The production department also reports it has a number of layettes ready to be taken out for work.

JEFFERSON — Mrs. Charles Sarver and Miss Margaret Rice were hostesses for a bridal shower in honor of Miss Margaret Swanzy, on Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Charles Sarver. Invited guests were Miss Swanzy and her mother, Mrs. J. Swanzy, Miss Laura Thomas, Miss Flora Thomas, Mrs. Dorsey Gray, Mrs. Claud Overholser, Mrs. Emma Whedbee, Mrs. Anna Bomber, Mrs. V. E. Goin, Mrs. J. C. Bentley, Mrs. Frank Grimes, Mrs. Ed Ricks, Mrs. Curtis Strode, Mrs. Ashenfelter, Mrs. James Blackwell, Miss Josephine Getchell, Miss Mary Donohue, Mrs. Howard Hampton and Mrs. A. C. Epley.

MACLEAY—Members of the Macleay Mothers' club will hold their November meeting at the home of Mrs. John Edwards, Thursday afternoon. During the business session of the club reports will be given on the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs meeting, held at Aurora.

ANNOUNCEMENT has come from East Orange, New Jersey, of the birth of a son, Charles Wallace, on Monday, November 14, to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace A. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague of Salem are grandparents.

Today's Menu

(By the Associated Press)

Week-Day Lunch

Special Shirred Eggs
Fresh Pear Salad
Hot Buttered Toast Beverage

Special Shirred Eggs

Ingredients: 8 teaspoons heavy cream, 8 eggs, 8 teaspoons grated Parmesan cheese.

Method: Get 4 individual shallow baking dishes ready. Put 2 teaspoons of the cream in each. Break or slip 2 eggs into each baking dish over the cream. Sprinkle each dish of eggs with 2 teaspoons of the cheese. Bake in a slow (325 F.) oven from 12 to 18 minutes, depending upon firmness desired. Serve in dishes in which eggs were baked. Note: Unless you are sure eggs are absolutely fresh break each into a saucer and examine before slipping into baking dish.

Bazaar Dec. 6

Date for the bazaar of Salem Memorial hospital auxiliary is announced for December 6, the event to be in the former Sears and Roebuck store on State street.

Mrs. M. E. Knickerbocker, who was appointed first vice president at the auxiliary meeting, is to be chairman for the bazaar.

The group voted to continue its membership drive.

Kappa Delta Group Elects

Mrs. Norman Edwards was elected president of the Kappa Delta Alumnae association which met last week at the home of Mrs. John Ficklin. Other officers for the coming year include: Mrs. J. A. Carlon, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. L. F. Sheridan, telephone chairman; Mrs. Floyd Colburn, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Harris Lietz who will continue as the representative to the City Panhellenic council and also head up the rushing and courtesy committees.

Meeting dates for this year will be on the second Wednesday of each month with the Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. William Ashby, Oak Knoll Golf club, on December 14.

A Birthday Party

Karen Arline Covert, celebrated her eleventh birthday, November 11, and was honored at a party given by her mother, Mrs. Robert E. Covert.

Karen and her friends first were entertained at a line party at the theater, then later went to the Covert home for games and refreshments. A pastel decorated birthday cake was the centerpiece for the birthday table. Yellow candles and other pastel favors decorated the table.

Present for the party were Karen and the following guests: Karlene Quistad, Barbara Sharpe, Arlene Loewen, Angela Hartman, Gerald Davenport, Jerry Megert, Beverly Walls, Katherine Hutchings, Mavis Malbon, Garth Miller, Wallie Park, James Dodge, Glenn Dodge, and Darrell Covert.

SIGMA CHI Mothers club is meeting Thursday at 2 p.m., dessert to be served at the fraternity chapter house. Mr. and Mrs. E. Postisl, who are here from Czechoslovakia to study at Willamette university, will be guest speakers. Mrs. Russell Mudd and Mrs. Albert Mader are hostesses for the meeting.

To Sing Here Thursday—Licia Albanese, leading Metropolitan and San Francisco opera soprano, will appear here Thursday evening under auspices of the Community Concert association series. The concert will be in Salem senior high school.

White Fruit Cake Liked

Whether you're a novice or an old hand at fruit cake making, you'll certainly be interested in learning about a wonderfully easy way to prepare your holiday fruit cake with the assurance of excellent results every time.

Now homemakers can buy economical packages of a ready-to-use diced, clean-cut glace fruit mixture which contains a variety of tempting fruits and peels for simple, delicious fruit cake making.

White Fruit Cake

- 1½ cups golden raisins
- 1 pound prepared diced glace fruit mix.
- 1 cup finely cut dried apricots
- 1 cup finely dried white figs
- 1 cup finely cut dried white raisins
- 1½ cups shredded coconut
- 2 cups sliced blanched almonds
- 1 cup shortening
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 5 eggs
- 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1½ teaspoons baking powder
- ¼ cup fruit juice

Rinse raisins and drain. Combine fruits, coconut and almonds. Cream shortening and sugar together thoroughly. Blend in lightly beaten eggs and beat well. Sift together flour, salt and baking powder. Add to creamed mixture alternately with fruit juice beginning and ending with flour. Add fruit-nut mixture and blend well. Line 2 loaf pans (about 8x4x4 inches) with 2 layers of brown paper and 1 of waxed paper, greasing well. Turn batter into pans. Bake in very slow oven (250 degrees F.) about 3 to 3½ hours, with shallow pan of hot water in bottom of oven. Makes about 5 pounds cake.

Remillard-Harper

Sheridan — Miss Roberta R. Harper, daughter of Mrs. Robert R. Harper, and Elmer J. Remillard, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Remillard of Dallas were united in marriage by the Rev. Werner J. Fritz in the Zion Lutheran church in Newberg on October 29 at an 8 p.m. ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Thomas Herrman, and she wore a white satin gown. Mrs. Wayne Eby was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Loretta Papp and Miss Marjory Sullivan. Wayne Eby was best man and Kenneth Gerling and Ernest Remillard were ushers.

Miss Priscilla Doble sang, accompanied by Miss Florence Bryant. A reception followed. Mrs. Thomas Herrmann cut the wedding cake and Mrs. James McWhannel and Mrs. Fred Somerville poured. Mrs. Howard Noyes was in charge of the guest book.

The couple will live in Sheridan.

CENTRALIA temple, Pythian Sisters, is to meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Republican Women Elect

Election of officers featured the meeting for the Marion county unit of the Republican Women's Federation of Oregon last evening at the Chamber of Commerce.

Named as president is Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and serving with her will be the following staff: Mrs. W. W. Baum, first vice president; Miss Marjorie Harris, second vice president; Miss Elizabeth Porter, secretary; Mrs. O. K. Beals, treasurer; Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, Mrs. G. E. McCormick, trustees.

Harry V. Collins, Marion county republican central committee chairman, was speaker for the meeting, his subject being "Where There is No Vision the People Perish."

Mrs. William Burns, Portland, state president, also attended the meeting and gave a short talk.

Book Review Given

Jefferson—The Jefferson woman's club met last week in the library rooms. A request was made that the magazines for the Fairview home be brought to the library as soon as possible. Reports of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs were given by the delegates attending.

Miss Marjorie Fontaine told of the infantile paralysis report given by Mrs. David Wright of Salem and suggested a benefit be arranged here to raise money for the fund, as there are three cases being cared for from Jefferson.

The guest speaker, Mrs. George Rossman of Salem, gave a review of "The Big Fisherman" by Douglas. Bowls of autumn flowers were placed about the rooms and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Fred Wied, Mrs. Marvin Hutchings and Miss Myrtle Myers.

Members present were Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Henry Thiesen, Mrs. J. G. Pate, Mrs. Alfred Powell, Mrs. Fred Wied, Miss Myrtle Myers, Mrs. Virgil Bailes, Mrs. G. V. Mason, Mrs. Herbert Looney, Mrs. Frank Jones, Miss Marguerite Looney, Mrs. William Walls, Mrs. J. G. Fontaine, Miss Marjorie Fontaine, Mrs. Walton Looney, Mrs. Van Scoy, Mrs. Gilbert Looney, Mrs. A. B. Hinz, Mrs. Helen Caywood and Johnny, Mrs. D. H. Looney, Mrs. M. D. Looney, Miss Eleanor Looney, Mrs. Walter Kropp of Albany, and guest Mrs. George Rossman of Salem.

MRS. RONALD E. JONES will be hostess this evening to members of her bridge club, inviting the group to the American Legion club for dinner. Later, the group will go to the home of Mrs. Walter Kirk to play bridge.

Pledges Group

Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., (Special) Informal pledging for Miss Sharon Claire Hamilton of Salem, Oregon to membership in Sigma Alpha Chi, social sorority at Stephens college here, was held recently. Miss Hamilton is one of nearly 500 young women who are pledged to the 16 social sororities at the college.

Social service is one of the principal objectives of the sororities at Stephens, though members participate in a program of social activities during the year. A series of cultural programs, opening on November 10 with a fashion show of "Susie Stephens" original designs by fellow students, is also sponsored by Pan-Hellenic.

Highlighting the winter social season will be the formal Panhellenic Christmas ball which will be held in the Lela Raney Wood ballroom at the college on December 9 and 10. The Panhellenic and Independents organizations jointly sponsor a dance given on November 18 and 19.

Miss Hamilton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton, 210 E. Lincoln St.

Town Hall Event Planned by Group

A "town hall meeting" is planned by the Women's Council of the First Christian church, Thursday, the program being arranged for 1 p.m.

The topic will be "A Creative Approach to Community Problems" with the Rev. Dudley Strain as moderator. Speakers will be Dr. J. Rademaker, professor of sociology at Willamette university, who will speak on "Migrant Workers"; Howard Higby, Boy Scout executive of the Cascade area, on "Juvenile Problems"; and Carlton Greider, YMCA personnel director, on "Misplaced Persons."

Mrs. Ola Smith and Mrs. Edna Burke, president and secretary, respectively, of the United Christian Missionary society of the state of Oregon have been invited to attend, as have eleven missionary groups from surrounding communities.

The business meeting will be at 11, lunch at 12 and the program at 1 o'clock. Mondombe and Eva Marie Johnson groups will be in charge of the luncheon.

FOR THE evening literature group of the American Association of University Women, Wednesday evening, Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliff is to be the speaker, her topic to be "On the Trail of Authors in England." The meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Erwin Batterman, 1896 State street, at 7:45 o'clock.

Farewell Reception

Honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Allport, who leave soon for Hawaii, and the Rev. and Mrs. John Baglien, who are moving to Chehalis to reside, a farewell reception is planned for next Sunday afternoon in St. Mark Lutheran church.

All members of the church and friends of the two couples are invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock.

Miss Pound Wed Nov. 5 in Portland

Mill City — Miss Doralee Ruth Pound, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Pound of Mill City, was wed November 5 to Ford E. Wilson, Jr., son of Mrs. J. H. Duncan of Salem and Ford E. Wilson of Portland.

The service was solemnized at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Mill City Christian church, the Rev. Thomas Courtney, Jr. officiating.

For the music, Kirk Wirick sang and Miss Wanda Vandermeer was organist. Miss Carol Hurley, cousin of the bride, and Miss Luella Mason lighted the tapers. Both wore blue frocks and the two served as bridesmaids also.

Miss Virginia Jackson of Roseburg was the maid of honor and she was attired in pink.

The bride wore a white satin gown designed with bustle back and full train. Her flowers were a bouquet of red roses and gardenias. The veil was the one worn by her cousin, Mrs. Ray Mullins, San Diego. Mr. Pound gave his daughter in marriage.

Richard Wilson was best man for her brother, and ushering were Jack Stewart and Ernie Podrabsky.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pound wore a dark afternoon gown with corsage of gardenias and pink accessories. Mrs. Duncan also was in dark with rose accessories and corsage of gardenias.

At the reception, Mrs. H. Hill, Mrs. Harold Pound, Jr. of Bend, Mrs. A. T. Pederson of McMinnville and Mrs. Ira Hurley of Raymond assisted.

Following a trip to the coast the couple will be at home in Eugene after November 15. Mr. Wilson is an inspector with the corps of engineers, U. S. army. For going away the bride wore a gray suit with white accessories and corsage of gardenias.

Fancy That It is said that a dress which belonged to Queen Anne of Austria was worn by three successive generations because the cost of making a gown was so prohibitive that it couldn't be discarded after a few years' wearing.

Betrothal Is Told on Campus

The engagement of Miss Gloria Stone to Durwood Jaeger was announced last evening during the dinner hour at the Delta Gamma sorority at Willamette university.

The harvest moon theme was used in decorating for the announcement party and the news was revealed on a card concealed in a miniature cart and haystack arrangement set up for the centerpiece.

No date is announced for the wedding.

Miss Stone, daughter of Mrs. Helen Stone of Hood River, is a senior at Willamette, majoring in voice. Mr. Jaeger, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jaeger of White Salmon, Wash., attended University of Washington and Vanderbilt college. He is now at Tillamook.

KEIZER LADIES Sewing club is meeting Thursday. The members will assemble at the home of Miss Lois Keefer at 10 a. m. and drive from there to the home of Mrs. C. Daley in Woodburn to spend the day. There will be a no-host luncheon and the members will do quilting.

MRS. GORDON O. LEONARD and daughter, LiAnne, left Tuesday morning for Santa Rosa, Calif. to join Mr. Leonard, the family to make their home there. Several affairs feted Mrs. Leonard preceding her departure.

RCA VICTOR RECORDS

— For Children —
45 RPM—7"

- LORE OF THE WEST Roy Rogers
 - SONGS OF RAGGEDY ANN Sung by Jack Arthur
 - THE LITTLE ENGINE THAT COULD Paul Wing - Narrator
 - THE BOY WHO SANG FOR THE KING Dennis Day
 - LITTLE BLACK SAMBO Paul Wing - Narrator
- Many More Available

Corner State and High
Downstairs, Oregon Bldg.
Dial 3-8632
Open Friday Nights 11:30-9

ROBES

BY

Pendleton

A new sensation, Pendleton things for men have been on the market for many years but the women's division has only been in production for a few months. Pendleton wear for women is probably the most outstanding line in many years. Come in and see them.

Scotch plaids and many plain colors. The most wearable garment on the market. Each robe made from the very finest fabrics.

Price's
135 North Liberty

FREE
WE WILL WIRE YOUR HOUSE FOR AN ELECTRIC RANGE OR GIVE YOU A WESTINGHOUSE UPRIGHT VACUUM CLEANER
(valued at $69.95)

ABSOLUTELY FREE!
WITH the purchase of a
Westinghouse
MODEL A-774-49
DOUBLE OVEN or
MODEL D-74-49
STANDARD
ELECTRIC RANGE

Easy credit terms, of course!
This Offer for a Limited Time Only

Salem's Oldest Exclusively Appliance Store
YEATER APPLIANCE CO.

PHONE 3-4311 SALEM, OREGON 375 CHEMEKETA