Give Them the Bird

(AP Newsfeature)
There is a jumbo crop of turkeys this year—the second largest on record—and so you may find it profitable to serve one of the birds for Sunday dinner and have the leftovers for the next week. It won't hurt to rehearse your turkey cooking techniques for the holidays ahead. Here's a recipe for savory oyster stuffing. For new cranberry flavor use your favorite recipe for cranberry sauce, then add silvers of preserved ginger.

Savory Oyster Stuffing
Ingredients: 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1/2 cup finely chopped onion, 1/2 cup finely diced onion, 3/4 teaspoon tabasco sauce, 8 cups soft bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 1 pint oysters or 1 16-ounce can (drained and chopped).

Method: Melt butter or margarine in a large skillet, add the onion and celery and cook over low heat until onion is yellow but not brown. Add the tabasco sauce, bread crumbs, parsley, and oysters. Stir well.

salt, and poultry seasoning. Cook, stirring constantly, over moderate heat for about 5 minutes. Add oysters. Makes about 10 cups or enough stuffing for a 12-pound turkey.

If your family is small it may be that you can find one of the small Beltsville Whites, or Jersey Buffs, in your market to cook at home. There's nothing better in turkey fare.
