

AN League Plans for Dec. 16 Party

Among pre-holiday dancing parties for December will be that of the Salem Women's Army and Navy League, the event to be December 16.

A buffet dinner dance is planned at the American Legion club. Mrs. T. W. Hardisty, Mrs. Conrad Paulson, Mrs. Wallace S. Wharton, Mrs. Phil Brownell, Mrs. Robert S. Gentzkow, and Mrs. Robert Phillips, Sr., are the committee.

Plans for the event were discussed by the board when it met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Raymond F. Olson.

Also, the board talked over plans for the next regular league meeting December 6 at Chuck's Steak House at 1 p.m., Mrs. Hardisty in charge.

Annual Harvest Tea on Friday

An event interesting to a large group for Friday afternoon will be the annual harvest tea to be given at the Methodist Old People's home between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock. Members of the home board of management are sponsoring the event.

All interested friends are invited to call and to bring gifts or leave contributions at the tea. Guests will be taken on tour of the building and to view the new elevator put in recently. Mrs. H. G. Carl is general chairman for the tea.

Chrysanthemums will be used in decorating and the tea table is to be set with a lace cloth and a centerpiece of gold chrysanthemums.

Featuring the program, to be presented at intervals during the tea, Corydon Blodgett and Mrs. Robert F. Anderson are to sing. Mrs. C. D. Morse will play violin numbers, accompanied by Mrs. M. J. Gilson.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. Ralph Mercer. In the receiving line will be Mrs. E. O. Welling, Mrs. A. J. Crose and Mrs. Robert M. Gaitke, all from the board of officers, and Mrs. Clara Fletcher, matron at the home.

Assisting in the living room and in inviting guests to the dining room will be Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Mrs. C. A. Gies, Mrs. Willard L. Cole, Mrs. W. E. Kirk and Mrs. Frank Bennett.

Pouring will be Mrs. George W. Alling and Mrs. Guy N. Hickok during the first hour and Mrs. B. Earle Parker and Mrs. Ruth Fugate during the second hour.

Capt. Carkin Wed in South

The marriage of Miss Thelma Frances Deal, daughter of Mrs. John Helms Deal of Corpus Christi, Texas, to Captain Vernon Eugene Carkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carkin of Salem, has been announced. The ceremony was solemnized Sunday, November 13, at Randolph field chapel in San Antonio at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Chaplain R. T. Carlborg officiating.

Sgt. Robert Sanders was the organist. The altar was banked with baskets of white chrysanthemums, carnations, lilies and candles.

Colonel J. P. Kidwell gave the bride in marriage. For her wedding she wore a white satin and lace gown with fingertip length tulle veil which cascaded from a seed pearl crown. She carried a white prayer book topped with white chrysanthemums.

Miss Imogene Hazel Peach of Columbia, Miss. was the honor maid and wore a green tufted tissue faille gown and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Major Phillip Musgrave was best man for Captain Carkin.

The reception was held at the home of Colonel and Mrs. J. P. Kidwell at Randolph Field. Mrs. Kidwell presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Phillip Musgrave cut the cake. The newlyweds cut the first piece of cake with Colonel Kidwell's West Point saber.

The newlyweds left for Florida on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride wore a two-toned brown tulle with cocoa brown accessories.

After December 1 Captain and Mrs. Carkin will be at home at 508 West Hollywood street, San Antonio, where he is stationed at Brooks Air Force base. The bridegroom, best man and Colonel Kidwell were all stationed in Wiesbaden, Germany in 1946 and 1947.
