Couple Leap Safely To Escape S. P. Train

Canby, Ore., Nov. 17 (AP)—An Oregon City couple leaped to safety last night from their automobile just before a Southern Pacific passenger train demolished the car at the Barlow crossing.

State police said Mr. and Mrs. John McCann, Rt. 1, Oregon City, were unhurt. Their car had stalled on the tracks.

Train crewmen of the Shasta Limited worked for an hour clearing the automobile wreckage from under the engine. The crash delayed the train's arrival in Portland from 11:30 p. m. until 12:20 a. m.
