

Police Guard CIO Union Hall

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—A special detail of 55 police guarded the headquarters building and hiring hall of the National Maritime union (CIO) today to prevent fist-swinging outbreaks between left-wing and right-wing seamen.

NMU Vice President Adrian Duffy said any new attempt by left-wingers to barricade the building might delay the sailings of some of the 14 ships scheduled to leave port today by paralyzing hirings and shipping of NMU seamen from the Port of New York. More than 700 riotous seamen besieged the building yesterday and kept 60 persons, including Duffy, virtual prisoners for 10 hours.

Fifty patrolmen commanded by five sergeants stood guard duty outside the NMU's six-story building throughout the night and were relieved by fresh details in the morning.

Duffy and Joseph Moutal, 26, a union patrolman, were kicked and beaten by shouting and booing demonstrators who gathered to protest the union's anti-communist resolutions passed at its September convention and the ousting of various union officers during the past week. Both were hospitalized.

Union officials expected more action tonight when an expected 8000 NMU seamen assemble for a general membership meeting. Donald Drummond, ousted port agent for the NMU, said charges would be brought then against Joseph Curran, anti-communist union president, and M. Hedley Stone, NMU international secretary-treasurer, charging them with violating six articles of the union constitution.

Cub Pack No. 11 Meets Friday Eve

First meeting of the year for Cub Pack 11, sponsored by the Englewood PTA, will be held Friday night at 7:30 at the school. Robert B. Wright will serve as cubmaster in place of Ralph Pickering, former cubmaster for a number of years, now living at Woodburn.

Five dens are already meeting regularly in charge of the following den mothers and assistants: Mrs. George Kanz and Mrs. Leo Dumler, Mrs. B. L. Treistad and Mrs. Lee Haskins, Mrs. Verne Reimann and Mrs. D. T. Kelley, Mrs. Edwin McEwen and Mrs. George E. Osko, Mrs. Lloyd B. Miller and Mrs. J. Victor Reno.

Cubmaster Wright reports enough boys of cubbing age are available to form six more dens providing den mothers can be secured. Boys between the ages of 8 and 11, living in the Englewood district who are interested in cubbing and their parents are invited to attend the Friday meeting.

Chester Waite and George Shaw are serving as committeemen for Pack 11 with Harold Douris, institutional representative.

Bridges Jury May Be Chosen Today

San Francisco, Nov. 17 (AP)—Federal Judge George B. Harris hoped a jury would be chosen today to try CIO Longshore Chief Harry Bridges but defense and prosecution attorneys were not so sure.

A jury of 12 persons was seated tentatively yesterday and four alternates had to be chosen before the trial could get under way.

The prosecution had used only two of its six challenges and the defense only four of its 10. And both sides were making absolutely sure of getting a jury to their liking.

"I hope and expect we'll have a jury impaneled by Thursday," Harris said. Defense and prosecution answered a weak "yes." But outside of court, Defense Attorney Vincent Hallinan said he was dissatisfied with the jury as it stood.

Pageant Slated Friday Night

A cast of more than 80 will present a pageant in the Bush school auditorium at 8 o'clock Friday night in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of St. John's Lutheran church, located at 16th and A.

Twelve scenes will be enacted: the founding, the ladies aid, the choir, the young people's society, the school, the Lutheran Laymen's league, the modern choir, the Lutheran Women's Guild, the Waltham League, the Sunday school and synod and mission.

The Rev. Emil Becker is author and narrator of the script. Mrs. William H. Fischer is general chairman and William H. Fischer is in charge of music. No admission will be charged and the general public is invited.

The church was organized in 1899 by Rev. Losser with six men as the original voting membership.

Rev. H. W. Gross is pastor of the congregation which is affiliated with the Missouri synod.

Ripe avocado is delicious mashed fine and seasoned with salt, pepper, a little wine vinegar and finely grated onion; use as a spread for potato chips or small crisp crackers.
