Woodburn OES Greets Guests

Woodburn—More than 100 members and visiting members of the Order of the Eastern Star were present for "friendship sight" at the regular meeting of Evergreen Chapter No. 41 at the Masonic Temple. Special guests were members of Chadwick chapter of Salem, Victoria chapter of Turner and Orchid chapter of Molalla.

A ceremony of welcome was put on by the worthy matron, Mrs. Ora F. Morris, the associate matron, conductresses and Star point officers.

Introduced and honored with seats in the east were Mrs. Marjorie Merriott, grand chaplain of the grand chapter of Oregon; Mrs. Mabel Hatch, grand representative of Wisconsin; Mrs. Iola E. Buxton, worthy matron of Orchid chapter of Molalla; Mrs. Minnie Peterson, worthy matron of Victoria chapter of Turner; Jason Frizzell, worthy patron of Chadwick chapter of Salem; Mrs. Hilda Wertz, worthy matron, and Ray Wertz, worthy patron, of Venus chapter of Donald. Corsages and boutonnières were presented to the honored guests.

An invitation was read from Acacia chapter of Stayton to be their guests on November 15. Other invitations read were from Acacia Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, to attend a reception honoring Coralee Purdy, grand religion, and Mrs. Sue Tuel, member of the state executive board of Rainbow, November 16 at Stayton; from Lone Chapter to a reception honoring Lloyd K. McRae, grand sentinel of the grand chapter at Hell, November 12, and from Cottage Grove chapter honoring Mrs. Ilma Thun, grand lecturer of the grand chapter, at Cottage Grove, December third. A letter was also read asking Christmas gifts for the guests at the Masonic and Eastern Star home.

A report on the construction of the new fire escape at the Masonic Temple was read by Mrs. H. P. Butterfield of the board of trustees.

The worthy matron announced that the past worthy matrons and past worthy patrons of Evergreen chapter and other resident past matrons and patrons would be honored at the next meeting, November 28, and appointed Mr. and Mrs. Tom DeArmond, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan DeArmond, Mr. and Mrs. Al Beckford, Mrs. Rose Magnuson and Mrs. Nona Miller as the refreshments committee for the evening.

A practice for officers was set for November 20 at 7:30 p.m.

A short musical program was presented under the direction of Miss Laura Bonney and included vocal duets by Mrs. N. F. Tyler and Mrs. Frank P. Doerfler, piano solos by Miss Patricia Withers and vocal solos by Frank McDonnell.

Talks were given by Mrs. Merriott and other honored guests and visitors. Refreshments were served in the dining room by Mr. and Mrs. George D. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Thompson, Mrs. Betty Nix, Mrs. Bertha Wilson, Mrs. Olive Low, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Myers.
