What with these royal hijinks and a good supply of champagne, 250 guests had a ine time at a Buckingham palace farewell party for Princess Elizabeth. The party broke up at a.m.

The princess tossed the party say goodbye before flying to Malta to spend her second wedding anniversary tomorrow with her husband, Prince Philip. He is on duty with the Royal Med-iterranean fleet there. Her de-parture was delayed by fog.

The guests at the party in-cluded U.S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas and his wife and daughter; Movie Actor Douglas Fair banks, Jr., and his wife, and a couple of Princess Margaret's boy friends: The Marquis of Blandford and the Hon. Julian Fane, brother of the Duke of Westmoreland. Marg are t was there, too, attired in a stylish off-the-shoulder ivory crinoline

The queen wore pale gold satin with a diamond necklace and tiara. Elizabeth was in pale pink trimmed with lace. She slipped away a little early to ready for the trip. That was before the postponement. Her son, Prince Charles, is staying at home.
