By RUSS NEWLAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

San Francisco, Nov. 21 (AP)—Coast conference football saluted California as its champion and Rose Bowl representative today.

Jubilant California supporters, meanwhile, continued to celebrate the Bears' 33-14 victory Saturday over Stanford, the game that put them into the country's post season classic at Pasadena for the second time in succession.

The formal notification from the conference commissioner's office was expected momentarily. California earned the bid by seven league wins and neither defeat nor tie.

This California squad is regarded as the strongest in last year's which lost to Northwestern, 20-14, in the Rose Bowl. Its line charges harder and the backfield is more explosive. The team has the material to come up with the long gainers necessary to break up a contest.

It was the consensus out this way today that Ohio State, expected to represent the Big Ten as the other half of the Rose Bowl clash January 2, would have to show more than it did last Saturday. The Buckeyes tied Michigan 7-7. Earlier in the season Ohio State played a 13-13 deadlock with Southern California, the latter subsequently beaten by California 16-10.

Since it won from USC, however, California has shown increasing improvement. It may be one of the hardest hitting teams in the country today. Nineteen seniors will be lost from the squad. They include such four-year men as Rod Franz, all America guard, and Jim Turner, giant tackle.

Giant Lynn "Poppy" Waldorf was being boomed today for "coach of the year" honors out here. The bulky mentor achieved his greatest triumph with a club that many thought would finish no better than fourth this season.

While California was clinching the Rose Bowl invitation, the conference schedule was being concluded on other fronts also. Following an earlier defeat and disappointments, finished up in fine fashion with a 34-21 victory over Washington State. Washington overcame a seven-point lead by scoring two touchdowns in the opening quarter; built up a 27-7 margin in the third quarter and held off the fighting WSC Cougars to the end.

Oregon State, another slow starter, racked up a successful season for new Coach Kip Taylor by defeating favored Oregon, 20-10. Oregon scored a field goal to lead 3-0 at the half. Oregon State surged back with powerful drives to score two touchdowns in the

Game Commission Plans Doe Hunt, John Day Area

Portland, Nov. 21 (AP)—An antlerless deer hunting season for late December in the John Day country is planned by the state game commission.

Commissioner J. H. Van Winkle said an estimated 4,000 mature does in a 30-mile sector between John Day and Prairie City face starvation this winter. He said a hearing would be held Wednesday at the offices here on a proposal to issue 750 special tags for the season.

Plans to create a game refuge and public shooting area in the Ladd marsh section south of La Grande have been dropped, the commission reported. The decision was made after civic and farm groups said the area was needed for crops and pasture. The commission said it would sell 200 acres of land it owns there.

Carpenter Wants To Play Pro Ball

Eugene, Ore., Nov. 21 (AP)—Ken Carpenter, ace halfback of the Oregon State college Beavers, wants to play professional football. He made the statement yesterday but would not indicate whether he had received any offers.

Carpenter closed out his collegiate career, except for a probable bid to join the West squad for the annual East-West Shrine tilt, against Oregon Saturday.

Kip's Rising Staters Top Aiken Crew in Civil War

By FRED ZIMMERMAN

Two years ago Jim Aiken, new to the University of Oregon football team as head coach, defeated the Oregon State Beavers. Saturday, Kip Taylor, serving his first season as OSC head man, directed his Orangemen to a decisive 20-10 triumph over the Webfoots.

There was nothing of an upset, nothing of a fluke nature in the Beavers' triumph and the most ardent Oregon rooster could do ought but admit that the better team won.

Playing on virtually even terms throughout the first half, with the Webfoots nursing a 3-0 lead when the two squads took time out for the mid-game rest period, the Beavers came back to dominate the situation through the third and fourth periods.

A break-away touchdown of 92 yards by Woodley Lewis late in the fourth period gave the Webfoots something to cheer about and assuaged the bitterness of the defeat to some extent. It was the fourth performance of this sort for Lewis during the season who simply outran the Beavers' secondary once he reached the midfield stripe.

Game Statistics

he was over the goal line and turned to run. The ball, evidently not securely held, slid away amid the groans of Beaver fans.

The Webfoots, bottled up in their own territory throughout the first period, dipped deep into Beaver-held soil just before the half. A pass interception gave Oregon the ball on the Oregon State 25. Three slams at the Beaver line left the Webfoots short by eight yards of a first down and a field goal was called for. Chet Daniels promptly booted the three pointer from 20 yards out.

As had been the case against the University of Washington, the Webfoots tired rapidly when play was resumed after the intermission. The Beavers didn't need a crystal ball to sense the change and they immediately drove to their first touchdown. Working methodically on the ground the Beavers reached the Oregon 24 from which point Bill Sheffield pitched to John Thomas who had gotten behind two Webfoot defenders. He went over unmolested and McGuire place kicked to make it 7 to 3. Dick Tweege boomed through for the second touchdown several minutes later when Ken Carpenter had almost broken through following an Oregon punt. McGuire again added the point.

A complicated maneuver with three men handling the ball after the snap from center gave the Beavers their final six points. Tweege first took the ball and handed it to Morrow with the latter lateralling to Carpenter. In the meantime Morrow scurried downfield to his left with another Beaver and the pair were all by themselves when Carpenter let fly.

A previous play, virtually identical as to ball handling, but with the forward pass to the right and which had been spilled by two Webfoot defenders set up the touchdown performance. The ensuing maneuver appeared to be identical and the Webfoot defenders were sucked over. No Oregon was within 25 feet of Morrow when he tucked in Carpenter's hand.

Lewis' touchdown was the last as a member of the Oregon squad, for he and a dozen or so mates completed their competition in the OSC struggle.

Syndicate Takes Over Indians for $2,200,000

Cleveland, O., Nov. 21 (AP)—A "syndicate of seven" headed by local insurance executive Ellis Ryan today takes over the control of the Cleveland Indians from President Bill Veeck for $2,200,000.

All that remained was the formal signature ceremony in Cleveland stadium at 11 a.m.—a last touch before a battery of cameras by Veeck, the fabulous promoter who said he was selling out because he "needed the money and a vacation."

Ryan will become the seventh president of the team since 1906. He and his Cleveland associates in running the club will get the Indians, old League park, valued at $100,000, and minor league teams at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Bakersfield, Calif., Tucson, Ariz., and Burlington, Ia. They also get some 400 minor league players, besides the 40 Indians.

Nine Colleges End 1949 Grid Schedules Unbeaten

New York, Nov. 21 (AP)—Nine college football teams have completed perfect seasons and seven others are nearing that feat.

The college's list of unbeaten and untied colleges was whittled to 16 during the past week-end, four being blasted from the ranks.

The most important casualty was Virginia, whose ruddy end of seven triumphs was suddenly ended by Tulane's Big Green, 28-14. Muskingum (Ohio) bowed to Washington & Jefferson, 26-7 after having marched through seven straight opponents. The Westchester (Pa.) Teachers were stopped in their ninth start by Delaware, 27-14.

The nine teams whose regular season has been completed are: California and Emory and Henry (Va.), each with 10 triumphs; Wayne (Neb.) Teachers, Hillsdale (Mich.) and St. Vincent (Pa.) with nine, and Trinity (Conn.), Ball State (Ind.), Hanover (Conn.) and St. Ambrose (Iowa) with eight.

Buckeyes Get Unanimous Rose Vote From Big Ten

Chicago, Nov. 21 (AP)—Ohio State was officially named today as the Big Ten team to play in the Rose Bowl football game January 2.

The Buckeyes, co-champions with Michigan in the Big Ten, which will oppose California of the Pacific Coast conference.

Thus Ohio State would have a chance to avenge a 29-year-old humiliation by California.

Unanimous selection of Ohio State was announced by Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson of the Western conference. Faculty representatives of Big Ten members last week-end telegraphed Wilson their first, second and third selections for the Bowl game at Pasadena, Calif.

Minnesota was the only other team regarded as a Big Ten Bowl possibility.

Minnesota finished third in the Big Ten race, but scored a 27-0 victory over Ohio State. Gopher partisans also point out that Ohio did not play Purdue, the only other team besides Michigan which defeated Minnesota this season. Michigan upset the Gophers, 14-7, compared with its 7-7 tie with Ohio State for the title share last Saturday.

First Aid Study Planned for Ski Patrol by Club

A first aid course for members of the Santiam Ski club who are interested in joining the junior ski patrol is planned for the next few weeks.

The course will extend over a period of 18 hours, being held each Monday night until completed.

During a recent meeting of the club with Harold Gothen, president, in the chair, tentative plans were outlined for a party for December 1 at Mayflower hall and a ski trip Dec. 27, providing there is sufficient snow on the ground to warrant the latter activity.

Watch Out For The Symptoms!

Laughed out loud when I heard Hoot Davis was down with Chicken Pox. A man of forty-five catching a kid's disease!

So I went to see him, armed with jokes about "second childhood" but forgot them fast when I got there. Hoot looked terrible and had quite a fever.

While we talked, I come to think of how Chicken Pox is a lot like other "diseases"—diseases of the character, such as intolerance, self-righteousness or just plain ignorance. They're excusable in children, but when they come out in adults they're ten times as bad—and can be mighty "contagious."

From where I sit, we should all watch out for the "symptoms"—little things like criticizing a person's preference for a friendly glass of temperate beer or ale. We've seen personal freedom wither away in other countries, when individual intolerance was allowed to get out of hand and become a nation-wide epidemic.
