Five 4-H Clubs At Blind School

The Oregon State School for the Blind has just organized five 4-H clubs consisting of 55 members. James Bishop, city extension agent, reports clubs organized in home cookery, camp cookery, forestry and art.

Everett Wilcox, principal and Walter Dry, superintendent, were instrumental in bringing the 4-H club program to the school, Bishop stated.

Volunteer local leaders are Mrs. Ross Huckins, home cookery; Ross Huckins, camp cookery; Delphie Danielson, camp cookery; Everett Wilcox, forestry; and Sophie Guyton, art.

Officers of the cooking club are Alfred Stevens, president; Harold Hargrove, vice president; Janice Cox, secretary. The two camp cookery clubs have for officers Darrell Beers and Jack Brazil, presidents, Claude Garvin and Homer Ding, vice presidents; Alice Mae Merrill and Joy Russell, secretaries; Eugenia Phillips, reporter; art club, Tim Miller, president; Gail Moan, vice president; Flora Achayok, secretary; forestry, Joe Wilcox, president; Darrell Beers, vice president; Joy Russell, secretary, and Nellie Deardorff, reporter.

"We believe the 4-H club program can do much to help our young people to be prepared for better living in future years through the training received in 4-H projects and after-school activities," said Everett Wilcox, principal. The clubs meet weekly at the school under the direction of the leaders.

Vivien Kellems Sues Uncle Sam

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 22 (AP)—Vivien Kellems filed a law suit at the government and more criticism at Secretary of the Treasury Snyder today in her battle against the income tax withholding law.

The suit, Miss Kellems announced here, was filed in federal district court in an effort to recover $7,819.20 which, she asserted, the government took from her "in the tradition of the boldest bank robber."

Of Snyder, she said: "The only difference between Mr. John Snyder and Mr. Jesse James is Mr. James was an 'out-law' and used a gun."

Previously, Miss Kellems had invited Snyder to have her indicted for her refusal to collect withholding taxes from her employees in her cable grip manufacturing plant. She wanted to be indicted, she explained, in order to test the constitutionality of the withholding tax.

Her invitation has gone ignored. The treasury department, instead, has seized $7,819.20 of her money through liens on her company's bank accounts.

It's that money, she said today in a prepared speech to the Bridgeport Chamber of Commerce announcing the suit, that she now hopes to recover from the government.

Maria, 19, New in the U. S., Gets Featured Soloist Spot

New York (AP)—Walking into the Persian room at the Hotel Plaza these nights is like stepping back into a distant, gentler past. One of the chief entertainers is a violinist. It's been a long time since one of them worked in a New York night club as a featured soloist.

This one is a bit special, too, being a 19-year-old girl named Maria Neglia, who arrived in this country from her native Italy exactly a year before she began her Plaza engagement.

Miss Neglia is a dark, flashing-eyed miss with a flair for showmanship, and to these untutored ears, a complete mastery of the instrument.

She intersperses light stuff with the classics and completely captivates the customers.

There is quite a story behind Miss Neglia. She has been playing the violin since the age of five in Rome. She's the ninth generation of a musical family.

GI's who served in Europe remember her well, for she entertained them not only in Italy

Castor Oil 'Cousin' Effective In Stubborn Skin Ailment

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE (United Press Science Writer)

New York, Nov. 22 (AP)—An old drug, a cousin of castor oil, often helps overcome psoriasis, one of the oldest and most stubborn of skin diseases, skin specialists report.

The drug is undecylenic acid, a by-product of castor oil. It has been known for about 90 years, but only lately was tried against psoriasis.

Results vary, but up to 40 percent of patients get rid of the skin ailment, at least temporarily, the studies show.

Psoriasis, one of the four most common skin ailments, is an outbreak of reddish patches of skin with silver-colored scales. They appear mainly on the scalp, and around knees and elbows.

The disease may spread over large areas of the body. The outbreaks come and go, and may continue throughout life.

Medical historians report the disease was often mistaken for leprosy, ever as late as the middle ages. The cause has not been learned, and for centuries nothing could be done for it.

Some drugs and salves help, but don't bring permanent cure, said Dr. Herman Goodman, associate clinical professor of dermatology and ophthalmology, New York University Medical College. But undecylenic acid, a fat-like chemical, looks promising.

Dr. Henry Harris Perlman of Philadelphia tried it on 17 patients with chronic psoriasis. All showed improvement, with relief from itching, and complete or partial clearing up of the scales.

Continued use of the acid also seemed to prevent recurrence of the disease in some patients, Dr. Perlman said. It is taken by mouth, in gelatin capsules to hide its bad taste and odor.

Vitamin A brings benefits sometimes also, Dr. Goodman said.

At the June 30 call, Stayton branch figures were $2,810,569 and loans were $1,235,350. There has been an increase of $256,056 in deposits, while loans have decreased $16,844 in the last period.

KKK Headed by Former Grocer

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 22 (AP)—The Augusta Chronicle reported yesterday that Ku Klux Klansmen in North Carolina and South Carolina have joined forces under the leadership of a former grocer.

The union was announced, the paper said, in an exclusive interview by Reporter Esther Young with the new grand dragon, Thomas L. Hamilton of Leesville, S.C.

Members of the robed order who sat in on the interview heralded the merger as a move toward a nationwide klan.

Hamilton, who said he had been a klansman since 1926, declared his first action will be "to weed out all those persons who are using the klan for selfish and political reasons."

The grand dragon said the Carolina association has "thousands of high type men—and we intend to keep it that way."

Hamilton asserted his organization advocates white supremacy, separation of church and state, free speech, free press, and liberty and justice for all.

The former Augusta grocer said the Carolina group will be unmasked as ordered by law.

Friday afternoon Miss Margaret McDevitt, art supervisor was the speaker. She discussed the new methods in teaching art, and had many drawings made by children the same age as those of Auburn school to illustrate how it is being done.

At the business meeting treats for the school children were planned and serving on a committee to prepare them will be Mrs. Enoch Merrell, Mrs. H. K. Maillie and Mrs. C. A. Barney. As there are two factors to be considered in getting a larger number of mothers present for the meeting, transportation and small children, the telephone committee will take the names of any who have cars they can use to bring mothers to the meeting who have no transportation, and a baby sitter will be hired to take care of the children in a nearby home that has been offered for this purpose.

The exchange table was again explained and some materials were brought and sold. The Cub pack and Brownie troops sponsored by the mothers will each be given $10 for expenses. Mrs. Glenn Laferty's room was given the book award, "Seabird" by Holling for the largest number of mothers present at the October meeting and Mrs. Marjorie Thompson's room will receive the award this month.
