

Annual Tea Of Kappas Due Dec. 29

At the meeting of Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae last evening plans were made for the group's annual Christmas tea.

This year's tea will be given Thursday, December 29, in the home of Mrs. Sidney B. Lewis on Fairmount Hill. The affair is for active members of University of Oregon and Oregon State college chapters, mothers of the members, and as additional guests, two representatives from each of the other Panhellenic societies.

Mrs. Arthur Fisher is general chairman for the tea. For the program Monday evening Melville T. Wire was a guest to discuss etching. Mrs. Wire was a guest for the dessert and program.

The alumnae voted a contribution of $5 to the Community Chest.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Daniel J. Fry with Mrs. Robert Kreason of Dallas as co-hostess. Twenty-four attended the event.

Miss Helen Kuttler was a guest. She is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles W. Mills.

Today's Menu

(By the Associated Press)

- Hearty Breakfast
- Stewed Prunes with Orange Slices
- Steam-fried Eggs
- Oatmeal Muffins
- Currant Jelly Beverage
- Oatmeal Muffins

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 cup butter or margarine or vegetable shortening, 1 cup quick-cooking rolled oats, 1 egg, 1 cup milk.

Method: Mix and sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add the butter or margarine or vegetable shortening and cut in with a pastry blender or two knives until mixture resembles corn meal. Add the rolled oats and mix well. Beat the egg with a rotary beater or electric mixer thoroughly, add milk and beat again to combine; add to flour mixture, stirring only until dry ingredients are moistened. Fill greased muffin pans about two-thirds full and bake in a hot (425 degrees F.) oven for 15 to 25 minutes, depending on size of muffins.

Note: For steam-fried eggs, fry in butter over low flame, in COVERED skillet.

Miss Heidenstrom Wed At Silverton Sunday

Silverton—Miss Betty Lujile Heidenstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Trygve P. Heidenstrom, Silverton, and Stephen Ray Mead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Mead of rural route 2, Silverton, exchanged their marriage vows Sunday afternoon in a 4 o'clock double ring ceremony before the colorfully decorated altar of Immanuel Lutheran church, the Rev. Wilmer N. Brown of Salem, assisted by the Rev. S. L. Almille of Silverton, reading the lines. Lighting the tapers were Mrs. John Middlemiss, in pale green, and Mrs. Olaf Paulson, Jr., in wine colored identically modeled tafeta formal, with wristlet corsages of tiny yellow chrysanthemums. Singing were the Four Norsemen male quartet, Elvin, Paul and Clifford Almquist and Olaf Paulson, assisted at the organ by Mrs. Lester Hagen of Salem, who also played the wedding marches.

Accompanied to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore ivory skiner satin, modeled on long lines with slight train, over the wrist sleeves, moderately draped skirt edged in filmy lace, net yoke and flounce inserts. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, from which fell streamers with bouvardia tied in the bows. The veil was fingertip length, held in place by a beaded coronet, and edged in heirloom Irish lace. For her matron of honor the bride chose her sister, Mrs. Alvin Almquist, and for her honor attendant, Mrs. Wayne Grodrian, both wearing identically fashioned gowns, ankle length formal of satin rayon with bow bustle backs, Mrs. Almquist in gold and Mrs. Grodrian in soft green color. Both wore black lace mitts and each carried a ring bouquet of rust and gold chrysanthemums.

Ervin Overlund of Silverton was best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Elvin Almquist, Perry Dowd, Olaf Paulson, Jr., and John Middlemiss. Mrs. Mead, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue-gray tailleur with black accessories, and for her daughter's wedding Mrs. Heidenstrom chose a dress-maker suit of wine color with blue accessories. Each wore a pink carnation streamer corsage.

Mrs. Bruce Billings directed the decorations of the altar, chancel, social rooms and serving tables, assisted by Mrs. Mary McWain.

The reception for about 300 guests was held in the church parlors with Mrs. Ed Given and Mrs. P. A. Loar cutting the bride's cake. Presiding at the coffee urns was Mrs. Mary McWain. Pouring the punch was Mrs. Wade Scott.

Assisting in the kitchen and serving the guests were Mrs. Fred Blaisdell, Mrs. Perl Bye and Miss Lu Ann Hatteberg. At the gift table were Mrs. Paul Innis and Mrs. Douglas Kaufman. Mrs. Adne Tokstad presented the guest book. Mrs. Oscar Overlund and Miss Ina Harold were in charge of the kitchen.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of gray rayon and wool with navy trim and navy accessories with slight red trim. She wore as her corsage her white orchid of the ceremony. Following a honeymoon trip to the Oregon beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Mead will be at home to their friends at the suburban home on route 2.

Fashion's Sleeve—Jean Desses, designed, features leg of mutton sleeves cut off at the top for a bare décolletage in this honey-colored satin evening sheath shown in Paris.

St. Anne's Guild Plans Activities

About 40 attended the desert party and meeting for St. Anne's guild, St. Paul's Episcopal church, Monday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee. At the business session several activities were discussed.

The guild members will assist, with other organizations in the church, at the reception next Sunday evening in the parish hall following confirmation services at 7:30 o'clock. The Rt. Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, bishop of the Oregon diocese, will be here to officiate at the confirmation and with members of the class will be honored at the reception following. Mrs. Harold M. Olinger and Mrs. W. H. Burghardt are co-chairmen for St. Anne's guild part in the reception, the group to have charge of decorating the table and the room.

Announcement was made of the bazaar in the parish hall, all day, Wednesday, December 7, an annual event. Each organization of the church sets up a table at the bazaar, St. Anne members to sponsor a gift and miscellaneous table. Mrs. Donald A. Young is in charge for the St. Anne table.

A letter was read from Mrs. Kenneth Dalton, former member of the guild, now in Germany, and the guild voted to send a package in care of her for a Christmas party for children in that section.

Refreshments followed the meeting, Mrs. Allan Carson arranging the tea table. Miss Peggy Gabriel and Mrs. William DeVall poured.

The Rev. George H. Swift, rector of the church, was a guest at the Monday meeting and gave a short talk. Miss Jean Quickenden, youth director at the church, also was a guest and reported on the young people's activities.

Assisting Mrs. Woodmansee in serving the dessert were Mrs. Raymond Busick, Mrs. Tom Dunham, Mrs. Charles Heltzel, Mrs. Robert Sears, Mrs. Vernon Gilmore, Mrs. Harold M. Olinger, Mrs. Louis Gerlinger and Mrs. Donald A. Young poured. Mrs. Louis Lorenz and Mrs. W. S. Van Meter were guests.

As is the custom there will be no December meeting, the next event to be on the third Monday in January.

Woodburn Duo Wed Nov. 15

Woodburn — Miss Lorraine Ficek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ficek and Edwin Pavlicek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Pavlicek, all of Woodburn, were united in marriage at a beautiful service November 15 at 9 a. m. at St. Luke's Catholic church. Rev. Father Hanley officiated at the rites.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin wedding gown with nylon yoke, trapunto quilting on the bodice, long pointed sleeves and full skirt extending into a train. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a bridal bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Daryl Painter, gowned in orchid net with a corsage of white chrysanthemums. Maid of honor was Miss Colleen Ficek, a sister, in a formal of pink organdy and carrying a nosegay of small pink chrysanthemums and roses. Junior bridesmaids were two other sisters of the bride, Misses Arlene and Laverne Ficek, wearing formals of aqua and bungee. They carried nosegays of orchid chrysanthemums. All of the bride's attendants wore matching bonnets. Flower girl was tiny Marilyn Sowa in a yellow dress of floor length, carrying a basket of flowers.

Best man for his brother was Leonard Pavlicek and ushers were Tony Pavlicek of Portland, a brother, and Joe Ficek. Mrs. Marie Donnelly was organist.
