

Bacall Says Sex Appeal Depends on What's Unseen

By BOB THOMAS

Hollywood, Dec. 1 (AP)—Step right up, ladies and gentlemen, for some lessons in sex appeal. The teacher: Lauren Bacall. In an unusually frank discourse, Prof. Bacall declared "you don't have to be uncovered to be sexy."

"Showing your legs or your bosom isn't necessarily sexy. It's a fallacy to think just because you're wearing a low-cut gown or a tight sweater that you look sexy."

"Sex should be subtly suggested. You do it with a look or an expression or with your voice." (She said this in her famed "If you need me, just whistle" tones. I was beginning to get the idea.)

"An actress should be good enough," she continued on the "Bright Leaf" set "to put across the idea of sex without undraping herself."

You may recall that one of her many studio suspensions was for refusing the scantily-clad role of "The Girl From Jones Beach." No bathing girl, she.

"I have never posed for cheese cake," she remarked. "I just don't like it and I consider myself lucky that I haven't had to be subjected to it. I'm just not the type."

"There are lots of actresses who never pose for cheesecake, yet are considered sexy. Ingrid Bergman, for one."

As for the current trend of exposing the chests of male stars, she added:

"I think it's terrible. They are certainly scraping the bottom when they have to resort to things like that to sell pictures."

Educators Address Classes at Monmouth

Oregon College of Education, Monmouth — Dr. Elmer Enz, principal of the Monmouth-Independence elementary schools, will be the sixth in a series of special speakers addressing school organization classes at OCE. Dr. Enz will discuss work of the school principal before the group Friday.

Other educators who have already addressed the classes, conducted by Dr. Kent Farley, include Dr. Rex Putnam, Oregon superintendent of public instruction, Josiah Wills, superintendent of schools for Polk county, Dr. Leo Shapiro of Portland, Dr. Wendell Van Loan, superintendent of the Corvallis school system, and Lester Wilcox, assistant superintendent of public instruction.

The next three meetings will be given over to a special panel of PTA officials for consideration of the work of the PTA and its correlation with the work of the elementary teacher.

Last to appear before the group will be Miss Florence Beardsley, director of elementary education in the state department of education who will speak December 12.

Winners Announced In Elks Bridge Play

Winners in the weekly duplicate tournament of the Elks Bridge club included Col. Phillip W. Allison and Ellis H. Jones (north-south), and Mrs. Stuart Theede and Oliver B. Huston (east-west).

Second place awards went to Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Frasier of Albany, and Mrs. Rupert Park and Mrs. William Whitmore, while third was won by Mrs. Ward Graham and Mrs. Arthur L. Lewis, and Mrs. Paul F. Burris and John M. Pugh of Shedd. Eleven tables were in play.

Plans for the dinner and grab-bag tournament at the Christmas party December 7 at the Legion building were announced.

Newbry Defends Office Selection

North Bend is to have the new branch state building for the Coos Bay area and there are some folks in the city of Coos Bay who are sore.

But Secretary of State Earl T. Newbry says that first notice of intention to locate a branch in that area was given to the Coos Bay Chamber of Commerce

The trouble, so far as the Coos Bay failure to get the building Newbry says, lies in the fact that while the Chamber was thinking about it the North Bend chamber and officials got busy and located a suitable site on the main highway and arranged for erection of a suitable building which the state will lease.

"There was no secret about this," Newbry says. "Stories giving the cities and towns designed for branch-offices were sent out by the wire services last August and a representative of my office notified the

Subsidy for Filbert Men

Washington, Dec. 1 (AP)—The agriculture department announced Wednesday it will pay a subsidy to Oregon and Washington producers to help them divert surplus filberts into non-competitive markets.

Coos Bay Chamber of Commerce and invited cooperation," Newbry said.

The department said the payments would be equivalent to not more than 5.5 cents on each pound of filberts certified as surplus under the department's program by next March 31.

The payments will be paid on unshelled filberts diverted to domestic shellers, to export, or other outlets not competitive with the unshelled market.

The department already has moved to hold 25 per cent of this year's supply of unshelled filberts off the market as "surplus" under the marketing program. A subsidy will be dis-

Oregon Motor Stages Extension Granted

Starting Thursday, Oregon Motor Stages is operating two one-way trips between McMinnville and Tillamook via Hebo. The schedule is by authority of the public utilities commission in an order announced Wednesday.

The bus will leave McMinnville at 9:40 a.m., arriving at Tillamook at 12 noon. On the other trip the bus will leave Tillamook at 11:45 a.m., arriving at McMinnville at 2:15 p.m. The route is the same as that recently abandoned by the Roy East lines.

The Romans are credited with introduction of the glass window.
