Catholic Event

Mt. Angel—The archdiocesan council of Catholic Women, Oregon City deanery, will hold its next quarterly meeting in Oregon City. The meeting is scheduled for Monday afternoon, December 5 at 1:30 o'clock, at the St. John's school hall in Oregon City.

The Oregon City deanery include all the parishes in Marion and Clackamas counties. All the delegates and members are invited to attend. A silver tea will follow the business session.

Delegates include Mrs. John McKillip, president St. Monica Altar society, St. Paul; Mrs. Gladys Weber, president of the immaculate Conception Altar society, Stayton; Mrs. Joseph Faulhaber, president St. Ann's Altar society, Mt. Angel; Mrs. Al Lulay, grand regent Catholic Daughters of America, Mt. Angel; Mrs. Fred J. Schwab, chief ranger Women's Order of Foresters, Mt. Angel; Mrs. Margaret Brown, grand regent Catholic Daughters of America, Court Capital City, Salem.

WOMAN'S RELIEF corps is meeting Friday in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall. There will be a no-host luncheon and in the afternoon new officers will be elected at the business session.

A BENEFIT card party is planned by Ladies of the Moose for Friday evening at 8 o'clock at 284 North Commercial. The public is invited. There will be refreshments and prizes.

Mothers Set Event

Alpha Chi Omega Mothers' club is sponsoring a benefit party next Tuesday evening in the Mayflower hall at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Malcolm Hawke, Mrs. Floyd Siegmund and Mrs. Glenn L. Hoar are taking reservations for the event.

Bridge, pinocle and other games will be played. Prizes are to be given.

Shower Is Surprise

Mrs. Elmore Hill was hostess last evening at a surprise party and shower honoring Mrs. Norman Merrill. Games were played and late refreshments served. Pink and white featured the decorations.

Feting Mrs. Merrill were Mrs. William Paulus, Mrs. Chester Chase, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Wallace Ayres, Mrs. James Cooke, Mrs. Max Allen, Mrs. Howard Arnot, Miss Vada Hill, Miss Shirley Hill, Misses Sally and Susan Merrill and the hostess.

Miss Pardey Tells Plans for Wedding

Aurora—December 17 has been chosen by Miss Lucille Dorothea Pardey, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pardey of Aurora, for her marriage to Paul C. Berger, only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Berger of Albany. The announcement was revealed at a shower given in honor of the bride-elect at the Henry Pardey home. Hostesses were Mrs. Edwin Pardey, Mrs. William Ellingsen and Mrs. Ralph Ellingsen of Stafford and Mrs. George Pardey.

Miss Pardey and Mr. Berger will speak their vows at an evening ceremony in Zion Lutheran church, Oregon City, with the Rev. H. Maus of Christ Lutheran church, Aurora, officiating.

Mrs. Edwin Pardey will be matron of honor for her sister-in-law and bridesmaids will include Mrs. Glen Burgin, Albany; Mrs. Thomas B. House of Portland, Mrs. James Orens and Miss Betty Lou Berger of Albany.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and immediate relatives was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was decorated with pink carnations and white chrysanthemums.

After a trip along the coast the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 1870 South Capitol street.

MISS ALENE PHILLIPS returned the first of the week from spending Thanksgiving and the week-end at Medford at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, formerly of Salem. Also joining the group there were Mr. Allen's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Allen of Seattle.

They Decorate Holiday Table

Arrange Holiday Table—Unique among benefit affairs for early December will be the display of Christmas decorations sponsored by Alpha Chi Omega alumnae on Friday and Saturday. Pictured here are Mrs. Linn C. Smith, at left, and Mrs. Harry V. Collins arranging the Christmas supper table they are to display at the event. The benefit is to be given at the West Lefelle street home of Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr., between 10 and 12 in the morning, 2 and 5 o'clock in the afternoons and 7 and 9 o'clock in the evenings, both days. Christmas decorations for formal and informal affairs, as well as interesting mantel arrangements, hall arrangements and other special settings will be featured. (Jesten-Miller studio picture)

Miss Parton Wed Saturday

Miss Dorothy Irene Parton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Parton, and Albert Alley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alley, were married last Saturday, November 26, in St. Joseph's Catholic church, the Rev. T. J. Bernards performing the 9 o'clock service.

Lawrence Alley was the soloist and Mrs. Raymond Barton the organist.

The bride wore a white wool suit with pink velvet hat and veiling. She carried a white prayer book and Rosary and a bouquet of pink roses encircled with white chrysanthemums. Mr. Parton gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Stanley Parton was the bride's only attendant and wore an aqua suit with white hat and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pink roses.

Edward Alley was his brother's best man and ushers were Stanley Parton and Richard Gentzkow.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Parton wore a gray suit with white accessories and Mrs. Alley attended the nuptials in a black ensemble with matching accessories. Their corsages were of gardenias and yellow roses.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and immediate relatives was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was decorated with pink carnations and white chrysanthemums.

After a trip along the coast the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 1870 South Capitol street.

MISS ALENE PHILLIPS returned the first of the week from spending Thanksgiving and the week-end at Medford at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, formerly of Salem. Also joining the group there were Mr. Allen's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Allen of Seattle.

WOODBURN—The regular monthly business meeting of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club will be held tonight (Thursday) at the home of Miss Gladys Adams.

The hospitality committee, of which Mrs. Molly Hunt is chairman, will be in charge of events for the month. Several important items of business are to be discussed and all members are requested to be present. Other members of the committee are Miss Hildegarde Dierkhising, Mrs. Ray Glatt, and Mrs. B. N. Miller.

CHI OMEGA Mothers club is to meet Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Gilmer, 3483 Center street.
