Plans for the coming conference will be discussed at the business meeting of the club next Wednesday noon.

At the club meeting yesterday, the luncheon being at the Golden Pheasant, Judge Rex Kimmel of the circuit court talked on juvenile cases and the problems of handling them in the courts.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Rex Kimmel, Mrs. Philip W. Allison, Mrs. Ralph E. Moody and Miss Verna Hogg.

DAR Head

Regent Due Here—Mrs. Archie McKeown of Hood River, state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, will be in Salem Saturday afternoon to visit Chemeketa chapter of the DAR. The local meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. J. G. Heltzel.

Ceremony at Local Church

Miss Anne Chapman was wed to Clarence Johnson of Portland at a ceremony in the St. Mark Lutheran church, Thanksgiving day. Before a candlelit altar decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums, the couple were united in marriage by the Rev. M. A. Getzenderer. Mrs. Lyle Ertsgaard sang, accompanied by Maurice Brennen, organist, who played the wedding march.

The bride wore an afternoon gown of gleaming amber satin with gold accessories and carried a large bouquet of roses and carnations. As a gift from the bridegroom, the bride wore a gold cross with delicate carving and several settings of diamonds.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Earl Hanson, sister of the bride.

groom. She wore a gown of Copenhagen blue with gray accessories and a corsage of carnations and roses. Earl Hanson acted as best man. Ushers were Donald Hanson, nephew of the bridegroom and Donald Raaf, cousin of the bride.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Johnson selected an afternoon gown of wine crepe with black accessories and a corsage of rose buds.

The wedding party and guests met shortly after the ceremony for a reception and dinner in the banquet room of the Gold Arrow restaurant. Miss Florence Speidel arranged the flowers and Mrs. Anne Hanson was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left immediately after the dinner for a trip to San Francisco and the bay region before returning to Portland where they will make their home.

Miss Roth Is Bride

The marriage of Miss Shirley Roth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roth, to W. Edgar Nafziger, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nafziger, was solemnized Wednesday evening at a ceremony in the Immanuel Menonite church at Pratum, the Rev. Wilbert A. Regier officiating at the 8 o'clock service.

The wedding setting was in all-white, bouquets of white chrysanthemums and candles decorating the church.

Mrs. Harold Roth and Mrs. Leonard Roth lighted the tapers. Both were dressed in white.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin designed with a marquisette yoke shirred in satin and edged in lace. The sleeves were long, and tiny buttons extended down the back of the bodice. The full skirt fell into a train. The fingertip illusion veil, edged in lace, was arranged from a satin crown trimmed in seed pearls. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of white roses and bouvardia.

Mrs. Alvin Schwengel (Vernetta Herr) was matron of honor for her cousin. Misses Doris Roth, Carmen Roth and Betty Lou Hostetler were the bridesmaids.

All four attendants wore period style dresses of white taffeta made with puffed sleeves, a wide ruffle edging the necklines, and full bustle skirts with a ruffle at the hemline and caught up in front with small bows. In their hair were braided head bands embellished with silver leaves and they carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums, carnations and silver leaves centered with candles.

Diana Roth, in white taffeta, was the flower girl and Gary Herr the ring bearer.

Capital Journal, Salem, Oregon, Thursday, Dec. 1, 1949—7

Ralph Nafziger was best man and ushers included Gerald Roth, Harold Roth, Melvin Lehmann, Henry Bentler and Grover Welty.

Mrs. Roth wore a green silk gown with black accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Nafziger attended her son's marriage in a black crepe gown and matching accessories. Their corsages were of gardenias and carnations.

The couple greeted guests at a reception in the church parlors.

Pouring were Mrs. Leonard Roth, Mrs. Harold Roth, Mrs. Clarence Herr and cutting the cake were the bridegroom's twin sisters, Mrs. Mac Allason and Mrs. John LeCompte. Assisting were Miss Lois Hartwickson, Mrs. Donald Schaff, Miss Adeline Haury, Miss Joanne Roth, Mrs. Henry Roth, Mrs. Grover Welty, Mrs. Henry Bentler, Mrs. Homer Welty and Mary Ann Le-

Compte, who passed the dream cakes.

For going away the bride wore a taupe gabardine suit with winter white accessories and corsage of white roses. After a trip south the couple will be at home on a farm near Central Howell on the Silverton highway.
