OREGON STATE COLLEGE

Back after a brief vacation, Beavers plunged into the social and scholastic whirl that remains to fill this last scheduled weekend. Different in the way of music this year is "Rendezvous in Rhythm," the annual sophomore cotillion, which is featuring Bob Crosby's Original Bobcats and Freddie Keller. The two combos will give the dance variety by alternating during the evening, presenting their dance music and specialty numbers.

Shower for Bride-Elect

Mrs. Clara Long, Mrs. Ruth Nichols and Miss Esther Paulsen were hostesses at their home on Lancaster drive recently for a shower honoring Miss Gloria Robinson, bride-elect of Harold Trice. Their marriage is to be solemnized January 15.

Tall lighted tapers and vases of fall flowers formed the decorations throughout the house. A tiny doll dressed in an elaborate bridal costume held a spot of honor on the gift table. Refreshments were served following the gift opening.

Several members of the Stirrup club attended, along with other members of Salem's horse-minded set. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Mel Lambert and son, Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blanchett, Mrs. Victor Matthews, Mrs. Eva Rider, Mr. and Mrs. Gray Robinson, Mrs. Beatrice Robinson, Mrs. Vicki Comella, Mr. Wes Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. R. Van Blerleom, Mr. Orville Malm, Mrs. Ethel Rowland, Mrs. Mable Schulz, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baldwin, Mrs. Louise Paulsen and the hostesses.

Wiebe-Rempel Rites at Dallas

Dallas — The chancel of the new Evangelical Brethren church on Howe street in Dallas was decorated in potted palms and large baskets of white and yellow chrysanthemums on Sunday afternoon when Miss Helena Rempel of Polk Station exchanged her vows with Otto Wiebe of Dallas at a 2:30 o'clock ceremony. Rev. Jacob H. Quiring, assisted by Rev. A. P. Toews, officiated.

Miss Martha Hamm presided at the organ, playing the prelude as well as the marches. Miss Betty Jantzen played the piano, accompanying the quartet, Peter Harms, Andrew Harms, Corney Reimer and Luke Nazareus, who sang.

The couple entered the church together. The bride wore a silver gray dressmaker suit and navy blue accessories. She carried a white Bible with a single orchid, having narrow white satin streamers and embedded in illusion net. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wiebe, son and daughter-in-law of the bridegroom. Mrs. Wiebe was dressed in a dove gray suit with matching accessories, and wore a pink carnation corsage.

A reception for about 400 guests was held immediately after the service in the church social rooms. Miss Esther Rempel, niece of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The bride's table was centered with a large three-tiered wedding

Miss Andrews Wed Nov. 26

Woodburn — A bride of the late fall season was Miss Betty Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Andrews of Woodburn, who marriage to Marcus Roy Koeffler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Koeffler of Woodburn was solemnized Saturday, November 26 at 9 a.m. at St. Luke's Catholic church. Rev. Francis Hanley officiated at the double ring ceremony and nuptial mass.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white satin wedding gown, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, lace yoke, long pointed sleeves, the skirt extending into a full length train. The lace-trimmed, floor length veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses. Her three-strand pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom and the gold rosary she carried was a gift from an uncle.

Maid of honor was Miss Corine Jaeger of Mt. Angel and bridesmaid was Miss Gloria Koffler, sister of the bridegroom. They wore identical gold formal and carried bouquets of gold colored chrysanthemums. Robert Andrews, brother of the bride, was best man. Al Koffler was groomsmen for his brother and ushers were Alfred H. Hunt and Leroy Jaeger. Chrysanthemums were used as decorations for the altar. Serving as altar boys were Jimmy Birkholtz and Donnie Jaeger. Bernard Smith, soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. Marie Donnelly, who also played the processional and recessional.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Andrews chose a green suit with black accessories and

Mr. and Mrs. Crann Married 50 Years

Aurora — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crann were honored recently on their golden wedding anniversary at the home of their neighbors, Miss Elizabeth Fry, William and Alvin Fry.

Mr. and Mrs. Crann were married at Glenwood Springs, Colo., in November, 1899. They moved to Oregon in 1910, settling in the White school area, where they have since resided.
