

Baylor Accepts Press Bowl Bid from Frisco

San Francisco, Dec. 2 (UP)—Baylor university today accepted a bid to play undeated College of Pacific in the San Francisco Press Club bowl.

Dr. Robert Burns, president of College of Pacific, informed Leo Lee of the Press club that he had received word from Baylor officials that they had accepted the bid for the game.

Lee said that the tilt, first of what is hoped to be an annual Press Club bowl, would be held either December 26 in the University of California stadium, or January 2 in San Francisco's Kezar stadium.

Lee said that Gov. Earl Warren has been negotiating with University of California officials to get them to release the stadium for use for this special charity game.

The two teams come into the game with great records over the year. College of Pacific, with second team all-American Eddie Lebaron as quarterback, has won 10 games and has one to play—in Hawaii on Dec. 16. Baylor has lost only two games—to Texas and Rice.

Terms of the game could not be announced by Lee. He said that each team would get a percentage of the gate; and that another percentage would go to the Press club's scholarship fund; and still another cut to bay area charities.

"I would like to emphasize," said Lee, "that this game in no way conflicts with the annual and worthy Shrine East-West game on Dec. 31. That game has been sold out for months and is a sell-out every year."

Lee indicated that if Gov. Warren is successful in obtaining the University of California stadium, that would be the first choice. It has an 80,000 seating capacity, compared with 60,000 for Kezar stadium.

Rugged Little Guy

San Francisco (UP)—Sammy Cathcart, rookie halfback of the San Francisco 49ers, weighs only 160 pounds but his total of yards gained rushing is near the league top. Coach Buck Shaw explains that Cathcart is fast and very tough for his weight. Cathcart was California Collegiate boxing champ at 155 pounds in 1947. He got the Purple Heart and the Silver Star for gallantry as an infantry staff sergeant in Europe.

Mustangs Plan Surprises For Irish Without Doak

Dallas, Tex., Dec. 2 (UP)—Golden Doak Walker will end his collegiate football career on the bench tomorrow—and in civilian clothes.

Southern Methodist University Coach Matty Bell last night said his triple-threat backfield star wouldn't even suit out for tomorrow's game with mighty Notre Dame.

The definite loss of Walker dimmed further Southern Methodist's already dim hopes of upsetting the Irish, shooting for their 38th consecutive victory.

"His leg just didn't respond to treatment," Bell said of Walker. "He can't run at all."

Walker reinjured a leg in the Texas Christian university game last week. He was out most of the second half.

Bell would not name the back who would replace Walker.

"We're trying several combinations," was all he would say. Walker, an all-America for three straight years, was one of the main hopes Southern Methodist rosters had for an upset over Frank Leahy's powerful eleven.

Leahy planned a practice this afternoon for his gridirers. The football squad came to Dallas on a special train carrying several cars of Notre Dame fans.

Without Walker, Kyle Rote will bear the brunt of the Mustang running attack. The big, hard-running junior will also probably handle punting and extra point kicking—if any of the latter are needed.

The Mustangs went through their last hard practice yesterday. They've been working out a 11 week behind barred gates. There's been no hint of what new tactics they will unveil, but there have been plenty of rumors. One of the wildest has Bell switching from the single and double wing formations to the split T for this game.

It's a pretty safe guess that Southern Methodist will go all out on offense. With passing a major item in the Mustangs' attack.

SMU students staged a giant pep rally last night. Assistant Coach H. N. (Rusty) Russell promised "it will be a ball game."

Walker told the rally: "I believe there's going to be trouble for the Irish Saturday."

SMU Field in Store for Title Six-Man Contest

Astoria, Dec. 2 (UP)—Oregon's six-man football title will be decided here tomorrow night on a rain-soggy field.

The Talent squad from Jackson county expected to work out briefly late today. Westport will make the short-down-river trip just before game time.

Talent, with eight consecutive wins this year and only one loss last year, is regarded locally as the favorite.

Falls City Set For 'B' Jamboree

Monmouth—The Polk county B league jamboree will be held December 2 at Falls City with Monmouth, Falls City, Valselt and Perrydale high schools taking part.

No definite MHS lineup has as yet been selected. The team will be very busy in December playing as many games as possible to develop needed experience.

Coach John Chamberlain states that the spirit and eagerness to win is very good this year, and what the boys lack physically will be balanced by team hustle and speed.

Hunter Hospitalized After Ordeal in Jungle-Like Wood

Port Angeles, Wash., Dec. 2 (UP)—A Seattle, Wash., elk hunter, lost in the jungle-like Hoh river forest for six days without food, fire or shelter, was recovering from his ordeal in the hospital here today.

Searchers found Leo T. Frelin, 26, standing exhausted on Hoh head yesterday. He was taken to an Indian village three miles away, then brought here by ambulance. His condition was described as "fair."

State game protector Boyd McCracken, 38, and cougar hunters LeRoy Smith, 50, and Charles Crawford, 41, all of Forks, Wash., had tracked Frelin with their cougar-hunting dogs through dense temperate forest.

"Frelin was standing, but could only step four inches at a time," McCracken said. "He never stopped, but kept moving all the time."

"He's a man with lots of courage. He's got plenty of guts and plenty of stamina."

McCracken said that when rescuers found Frelin, they gave him a candy bar and made coffee for him.

"Then he got up and walked all the way to the Indian village," he exclaimed.
