

Pulpit Calls Dayton Youth And Scholarship Rejected

Dayton—Keith Watkins, 18, a student at the Northwest Christian college, at Eugene, served in the pulpit at the Dayton Christian church, in the absence of the regular pastor, Floyd Diehm.

It was in 1941 that Keith Watkins moved with his parents and brother and sister, to Multnomah, a suburb of Portland his family attended the Multnomah Christian Church, and it was there he began thinking of his future. As his religious experiences grew, by attending summer camps for boys, he began thinking about becoming a minister, and all this helped to make his decision.

Church Dinner Gets Attention

Silverton—Church activities for the coming week are varied and numerous with the biggest event the December 8 and 9 evening Lutefisk dinner at Trinity Lutheran, the Ladies Aid and Dorcas society in charge of preparing and serving the all-Norwegian meal. The Trinity choir, directed by Mrs. Don Burch, will meet for rehearsal Wednesday evening of the coming week.

At Immanuel Lutheran church the series of evangelistic services with Evangelist Enoch J. Scotvold, Minneapolis, speaker, begins December 6. Rev. S. I. Almie, host pastor. Immanuel Sunday school teachers meet in the Fireside room, Monday evening. Adult instruction class meets Monday evening in the youth room. Zion Circle meets Tuesday afternoon in the Fireside room with Mrs. P. A. Loar and Mrs. Charles Pinkham hostesses.

Galvary Lutheran Ladies Aid society will meet December 7 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the church parlors where the annual business meeting will be observed, the social hour is no-hostess. Rev. P. W. Erickson of Salem is Galvary substitute pastor until the regular pastor is obtained.

Revival services of the Christian and Missionary Alliance were closed last Sunday. Regu-prayer service under direction of Rev. Gordon T. Bratvold will be held at the church Wednesday evening, 7:30 o'clock.

Woodburn—Approximately 300 delegates from Oregon, Washington and California attended the state Church of God youth convention held at the Woodburn Church of God. Theme of the convention was "A Faith of Our Times," and guest speaker was Rev. Wade Jake-way of Santa Cruz, Calif. Fredre Caldwell of the Pacific Bible college in Portland was in charge of the daily conference.

The convention opened with a banquet attended by 145 people, leadership conferences were conducted during the day. The 300 delegates were taken on tour of the state penitentiary and the group had organized games at the armory under the direction of Clifford Shrock and Walter Lawson.

Woodburn—A Woodburn Youth for Christ rally will be held Saturday at 7:45 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church at Third and Garfield street. Dr. Abe A. Loewen of West Salem, teacher in the Salem Bible Academy, will be the speaker and John W. Bollinger of Salem will direct the song service. Special musical numbers are also planned. The public is invited to attend.

Woodburn—The observance, to be known as Baptist World Mission Day, will be held on Sunday, December 4, according to Dr. Victor Hugo Sword, interim pastor of the church. A fitting climax will be the Candlelight Communion Service at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Sword, himself a missionary in India for 20 years, has been pointing up the significance of World Mission Day and the missionary accomplishments at home and abroad in his recent sermons.

Lebanon Gets Church Mission

Lebanon—Local members of the Episcopal faith will temporarily attend Sunday services in Wilshire hall as members of the Lebanon Mission, the faith having been ordained as such by Bishop Benjamin Dagwell of Portland at an organization dinner meeting Monday evening.

Named at the meeting were vestrymen and guild officers and board members for the mission. The Lebanon group has chosen the name St. Martins for the church.

About 60 prospective members attended the meeting. Besides Bishop Dagwell, other church dignitaries present at the dinner were Rev. E. James Kingsley, vicar of St. Peters church, Albany, and Archdeacon Terry Smith of Corvallis, assistant to Bishop Dagwell.

Vestry and guild appointments announced were: Mr. and Mrs. Clay Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Vale Kimes, Mr. and Mrs. Don Henthorn, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Bingham Powell, Mrs. George Kingan, Mrs. J. E. Irvine, all of Lebanon, and Lloyd Kessel of Sweet Home.

The guild will meet on the second Wednesday of each month, announces Mrs. Vale Kimes.

St. Angel—Father Orousoff, S.J., a priest of the Byzantine rite, visited at the Mt. Angel Abbey, and gave a talk to the Seminarians. He said he was born in Russia and educated everywhere, and went on to say that he is the only Russian Jesuit in America working for the Russian apostolate.

The bearded, youthful priest had celebrated the Liturgy according to the Byzantine rite for the monks and seminarians earlier the same day. The prayers were recited in Slavonic except the epistle which was said in Greek. Andrew Landay, a seminarian, assisted at the altar and answered the prayers.

This was the first time that an Oriental Liturgy had been celebrated in the Monastery church according to Very Rev. Martin Pollard, O.S.B., prior of Mt. Angel Abbey.

Men's Brotherhood Formed at Silverton
