

Miss Eggens Wed Saturday At Methodist Church

White chrysanthemums, with accents of green and rose in the setting, decorated the First Methodist church for a candlelight wedding Saturday evening when Miss Mavis Arlene Eggens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Eggens, was married to John Owen Petty, Jr., son of Mrs. Maude Petty of Gladstone. Lighted candles also decorated the pews.

The service took place at 8 o'clock, with the Rev. Brooks Moore officiating.

Miss Frances Gilbert of Eugene and Mrs. Lewis Sturges of Albany lighted the tapers. Both wore gold taffeta frocks with flower wristlets, and bows were tied to their tapers.

For the music, Art Dimond sang, Miss Jessica Kinsey playing the organ.

The bridal gown was of white satin, fashioned with long sleeves that were pointed at the wrists; a narrow bertha edged in heavy lace, and hipline puffs from which was extended the long train. The fingertip length veil was arranged from a hat with satin brim and lace crown, orange blossoms trimming the front of the brim. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of white roses with a single white orchid in the center. Mr. Eggens gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Wayne Kunze of Orchard, Wash., was honor attendant. Her gown was of green satin and she carried a semicrescent bouquet of pink blooms with a lighted candle in the center.

Mrs. Richard Thurin of Portland and Miss Ramona Evans were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were designed alike. Mrs. Thurin's in a soft rose-mauve colored satin, Miss Evans' of satin in a brighter and deeper shade of rose. Their bouquets were like that carried by the honor attendant with the lighted candle in the center.

Jack Roake of Oregon City was best man for Mr. Petty. Ushering were Richard Thurin of Portland, Wayne Struble, Pat Blue and Roger Mockford, all of Eugene.

The bride's mother wore a deep blue satin gown and the bridegroom's mother a navy blue satin one. Both wore arrangements of pink flowers in their hair.

Following the service a reception was given in the Carrier room of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white satin cloth and with the chrysanthemums were tiny wedding slippers filled with forget-me-nots. Chrysanthemums decorated the reception room, carrying out the rose and green theme.

Mrs. Jay McDonald served the bride's cake. Mrs. O. E. Palmateer poured. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Wayne Struble of Eugene and Mrs. Richard Givens of Forest Grove. Miss Velma Davis had charge of the guest book and Miss Patricia Long was at the punch bowl.

For going away the bride wore a maroon gabardine suit, tailored and designed with long jacket; gray felt hat with feather accent, black coat and gray accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple plan to make their home in Portland.

OREGON GRAPE camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will meet Wednesday at 8 o'clock in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall for a business session. New officers will be elected. There will be formal initiation and refreshments are to be served.

State Regent At DAR Meet

A report on the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Washington, D.C. last spring was given by Mrs. Archie McKeown, Hood River, state DAR regent, when she visited Chemeketa chapter in Salem, Saturday afternoon. The local meeting was held at the home of Mrs. James G. Heitzel. Mrs. McKeown also told of DAR projects this year.

In other remarks, Mrs. McKeown gave highlights of her new book to be published this spring by MacMillan Publishing company. Mrs. McKeown professionally is Martha Ferguson McKeown, author of "The Trail Led North."

Other guests at the Saturday meeting of Monmouth, attending high school here while the family resided here three years during the time Captain Frank was stationed at Camp Adair.

DAR meeting were Mrs. Georgia C. Shane, member of the San Rafael chapter, Los Angeles, Mrs. Theodore Johnson of Moro, Mrs. James Lugenbeel, recently transferred from Sheridan, Wyoming chapter to Chemeketa chapter, Mrs. Paul E. Davis, recently of Ottawa, Kansas, Mrs. Clyde Williamson of Albany, who played several accordion numbers and sang her own compositions. Group singing of Christmas carols was enjoyed by the members.

Mrs. J. W. Nash, chapter chairman of American Indian, gave a report and announced that members are to take their gifts for the Chemawa Indian school students to the Scollars and Foley Insurance office by December 20. If wrapped, they are to be labeled whether for boy or girl. There is also a request for staple or canned foods for the Celilo Indians.

Tea followed the business session with Mrs. McKeown and Mrs. Ruth Herndon, chapter regent, pouring.

Luncheon for City Panhellenic

A city Panhellenic organization has many other interests and responsibilities besides "rushing," said Mrs. J. Allan Wickham, dean of women at the University of Oregon, in talking to Salem City Panhellenic at a luncheon meeting Friday at Chuck's Steak House.

Panhellenic groups have a real challenge in the educational field in promoting educational interests, this phase also including understanding among adults so they know what the fraternity world is and what are its place and program, Mrs. Wickham said.

Support of a real Panhellenic spirit and cooperation also were mentioned by the speaker. She quoted incidents to show how some situations had been worked out to the satisfaction of all groups through cooperation of all Panhellenic organizations. Lastly, there is a great field for service for Panhellenic groups to carry on, Mrs. Wickham stated. She told how many Greek letter society leaders had worked with other groups as consultants and advisers and had helped others to enjoy some of the opportunities provided for their own groups. Mrs. Wickham highlighted the rushing program among the UO sororities and some of the problems involved. The luncheon session was attended by 61. Mrs. George S. Hoffman, president, presided. Among guests were Mrs. Regina Ewall, dean of women at Willamette university; and Miss Roberta Batey, president of the Willamette university active Panhellenic council.

Club Event

Salem Heights — The Salem Heights Woman's club met Friday afternoon at the community hall, with Mrs. Lyle Bayne presiding. The club took a Christmas collection for the Children's Farm home near Corvallis. They voted to address envelopes for Easter seals, a youth conservation project. Plans were made for the club's plastic party which will be held at the hall on Dec. 6 and the rummage sale to be held Dec. 10 at the old Stevens jewelry store on Court street. The club plans to invite the Liberty Woman's club members as their guests in January, when Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliff will speak.

Rev. Dudley Strain of the First Christian church spoke on his trip and pilgrimage to the Holy Land, and wore the native costumes. On the refreshment committee were Mrs. William Gardner, chairman, with Mrs. A. A. Taylor, Mrs. Clarence Forbis and Mrs. William Neimeyer assisting.

WOODBURN—The Woodburn Junior Woman's club will hold its regular business meeting Wednesday evening, December 7 at the local library with Mrs. Lois Gaviola presiding. Mrs. Gordon Seely will be the program chairman and will present Mrs. Emry Ingahan, state junior

Phi Beta Kappa Event on Friday

The annual observance of the founding of Phi Beta Kappa will be held on Friday, December 9, at 8 o'clock in Failing Lounge, Linfield college. Dr. Norman Huffman of Willamette university, president of the Central Willamette Valley association of Phi Beta Kappa, announces that Dr. Ralph W. Macy, professor of biology at Reed college, will speak on the topic, "Living Cells in Action."

Several members of the Willamette Valley association from Salem will attend and any member of Phi Beta Kappa is invited to the observance in McMinnville. After the address, there will be a reception for association members and guests.

extension chairman, who will speak of club work. Mrs. Homer Wadsworth will be hostess.

Official to Visit—Mrs. Grace Drew, Coos Bay, state president of the auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will be in Salem Tuesday evening, December 6, honoring her local members are to sponsor a banquet at the Bright Spot at 6 o'clock, the meeting to follow. At the meeting the local group is to observe its 21st birthday anniversary. Charter members and past presidents will be honored.

Miss Frank Engaged

Monmouth—Captain and Mrs. Benjamin H. Frank of Fort Lewis, Wash., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lorraine Lee Frank, to Bernard Kyle Walmer, a lieutenant in the U.S. army. The engagement was announced at a party given at Koshien hotel in Kobe, Japan, Nov. 11. Captain and Mrs. Frank Fisher were hosts to a group of 75 guests.

Miss Frank is employed at the 8th army central exchange at Kobe and she remained overseas after Captain and Mrs. Frank returned to the states. Lt. Walmer is stationed at Kobe. The wedding will take place after the Christmas holidays. At present no date has been set.

Miss Frank is a former resi-

No-no-no! Mustn't Say It! Just Send It to STANDARD Cleaners and Dyers! For there soup to dessert spots are removed by scientific methods... the easy way! Our spotting experts tackle each spot with proper care and technique. Call 3-8779 today!

We Give S & H Green Stamps
Standard
Cleaners and Dyers
"For Better Appearance"
362 North Commercial

Dorothy Gray

NEW!

Golden Orchid

Cologne
Dusting Powder
Bubbling Bath Salts
$1.00
each—plus tax

A glamorous fragrance with rich, golden overtones. In distinguished white-and-gold packaging... very luxurious.

FOR GIFTS THAT ARE GAY
TRUST DOROTHY GRAY

CAPITAL DRUG STORE

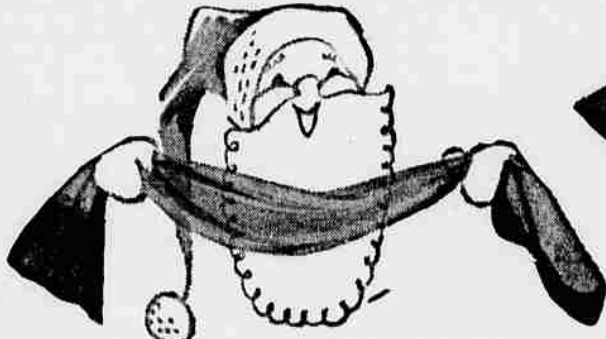

State & Liberty

"On the Corner"

THERE'S A GREAT DAY COMING!

Hosiery Bags $1.98

a
Hosiery Gift,
Please!

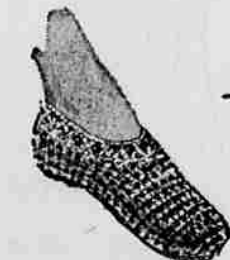

Cameo Nylon Hose
$1.35 pr.

A favorite sheer in new shades

Schiaparelli Nylon Hose
$2.00 pr.

Here are really gorgeous nylons! Of course, she'd like several pairs of this luxurious stocking.

Bed Sox $1.25 to $2.25

Always an acceptable gift! These bed sox come in assorted pastel shades.

... her proportioned size
Belle-Sharmeer Nylons

We have a record of her favorite shades... size... it's easy to buy her gift hose here.
$1.50 to $1.95

Theme Nylons
$1.35 to $1.65

Popular with Pacific coast women because it is made in the west. A very fine, smart fitting nylon.

Miller's

ALL GIFT
HOSIERY
APPROPRIATELY
GIFT WRAPPED
ALL ARE GUAR-ANTEED GOOD QUALITY