Hodge-Wolf Wedding Nov. 26

Miss Eva Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wolf, was wed to Arthur Hodge, son of Mrs. John Hodge of Noville, Tenn., November 26, at a ceremony in the Shaw Catholic church with the Rev. Mr. Galinas officiating.

Given in marriage by her brother, Joseph Wolfe of Salem, the bride wore a white satin gown and a fingertip length veil, held in place with a head-dress of orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book with an orchid on top, orange blossoms being caught in the streamers.

Maid of honor for her sister was Mrs. Leonard Fleck of Salem. She wore a gown of fuchsia color and carried a nosegay of white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Emma Wolf and Miss Mary Ann Germond were the bridesmaids. They were attired in pink and blue gowns and carried nosegays of bronze, white and pink chrysanthemums. Beverly Wolfe was the flower girl. She wore a yellow taffeta frock and carried a basket of mixed chrysanthemums.

Leonard Fleck was best man. Ushers were Virgil Tomlison and Antone Wolf.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wolf wore a flowered black silk dress and a corsage of chrysanthemums.

A dinner was served in the Macleay hall following the wedding. Miss Margaret Weigel, Miss Harriet Weigel, Miss Vesta Garbe and Miss Theresa Garbe assisted with the serving.

The couple are to make their home at Valsetz.

THE YWCA is offering a two-week series in canasta, to be given at the YWCA December 13 and 15. This will be an evening class. Further information may be had by calling Miss Joyce Lamoreux, adult program director, at the YWCA. Those interested are urged to register as soon as possible.

Baked Potatoes with Mushroom Sauce

Ingredients: 2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1½ tablespoons flour, 1 cup less 1 tablespoon milk, salt and pepper (to taste), 4 hot baked potatoes.

Method: Wash and dry mushrooms before slicing both caps and stems. Heat butter or margarine in an 8-inch skillet; add mushrooms and cook over low heat, stirring frequently, for 5 to 10 minutes. Sprinkle with the flour stirring to coat mushrooms with it. Add the milk gradually, stirring well as you do so. Continue to cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until sauce is thickened and bubbly; allow to bubble for 1 or 2 minutes. Remove from heat, add salt and pepper to taste. Make two deep crosswise gashes in each potato and fill with mushroom sauce. Serve immediately. Makes 4 servings.
