Air Ace Breaks Record For Commercial Globe-Circling

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—Thomas G. Lanphier, Jr., a World War II air ace, arrived here Wednesday after a 22,180-mile journey which broke the record for circling the globe by regularly-scheduled commercial airlines.

He made the trip in four days, 23 hours and 47 minutes.

He took along one extra suit, on a hanger, and one extra pair of nylon socks, shorts, and a nylon shirt. He said he washed out his socks, shorts and shirt every day on the plane.

The greatest hazard encountered, Lanphier said, was the circling of buzzards over Karachi, Pakistan.

Lanphier was greeted at La Guardia airport by Col. Eddie Eagen of New York, who held the previous record of six days, three hours, and 15 minutes.

"This is not a personal accomplishment," Lanphier said. "It's an accomplishment of the airlines."

"Anyone can do it who has $1,545.75 for a ticket. I just climbed aboard a plane last Friday a little after noon and was scheduled to be here 10 minutes before noon today, and they delivered me."

Lanphier arrived at 11:55 a.m. EST. He had left at 12:08 p.m. Friday. The flight was sponsored by the Air Force association.

Lanphier flew on five planes and used three airlines. His stops were Gander, London, Brussels, Damascus, Basra, Karachi, New Delhi, Bangkok, Hong Kong, Okinawa, Tokyo, Midway, Honolulu, San Francisco, Chicago, and New York.

Lanphier, a lieutenant colonel in the army air force during the war, shot down the plane carrying Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto, commander in chief of the Japanese fleet, over Bougainville

Cross-fingered Optimism Seen At Manufacturers' Convention

By SAM DAWSON

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—There's an air of cross-fingered optimism at the Waldorf-Astoria today.

In its opulent grand ballroom, America's most glittering pageant of industrial might gets underway. And this time, as contrasted to last year, the boys attending the Congress of American Industry aren't scared half to death.

They were last year.

Most of the three thousand, top men in our manufacturing industries, who gather annually for the meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, were enjoying the very peak of record prosperity, when NAM met a year ago. But many of them were on record as warning that a bad slump could be expected in 1949.

You could fairly see the hair standing up on their heads.

This time, most of them admit 1949 turned out to be a pretty good year, after a bad start. And most of them appear to believe that 1950 will be a better one. Some even think a new boom may be starting.

Of course, there'll probably be a good deal of viewing with alarm during the next three days at the Waldorf—it's pretty hard for most manufacturers to face in the direction of Washington with composure. And NAM speakers will stress the things they think are wrong, dangerous or threatening in our economy, and list the things they'd like to see changed—particularly in taxes and governmental interference with business.

But as to business prospects, most manufacturers are reported to be expecting to do better in 1950, especially in the first half of the year. And in this optimism there is some evidence that manufacturers lead both wholesalers and retailers. The last is closer to the public, and more impressed by the tight string John Q. is keeping on his purse when he goes shopping.

Members of NAM are cheered by the quick recovery industry seems to be making after the steel and coal strikes, and by the higher than expected level at which industrial production held during the strikes.

The census bureau reports last week a half million increase in the number of employees in November, and a drop in the total of jobless. (The bureau doesn't count strikers as unemployed.) It is noted, however, that the jobless still totals 3.4 million, compared with 1.8 million just a year ago.

Paul G. Hoffman delicately brings up another thing. With notable restraint, the economic cooperation administrator, who was a manufacturer once himself, said in his prepared speech:

"There is no need for me to condemn Russian communism to you gentlemen. There are not now and never have been any communists in the NAM."

Dayton Civic Club Improves Building

Dayton — The Dayton Civic club held its regular meeting in the club rooms.

The kitchen has been painted and new linoleum put on the drain boards, floors waxed and new curtains to be put up soon.

Mrs. Zella Atkinson, Mrs. Sadie Edwards and Mrs. Lois Phelps did the work. Another committee has been appointed to redecorate the main room before the January meeting.

The committee prepared a program for the evening. Shirley Pennington and Stella Paris each spoke pieces on Christmas; Mary Merriman and Barbara McKinister sang.

Mrs. Paul Londershausen had charge of the Christmas gift exchange. Those in charge of refreshments were Mesdames Mildred Pennington, Nelle Abbott, Delia U'Ren, Paul Londershausen and Clara Hadaway. The next meeting will be Tuesday, January 3.

Junior Evangelical Aid Serves Dinner

Monmouth—The Junior Aid of the Evangelical church held its monthly meeting when 25 members were served a covered dish dinner in the church basement.

A feature of the dinner was a wedding cake, the 31st anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Lonsberry. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Ella Stebbins, Mrs. Ethyl Moreland and Mrs. Claude Boyd.

The afternoon was spent in marking articles to be sold at the annual bazaar, December 10, and Mrs. E. J. Halderman read a Christmas story. The next meeting will be January 5 with Mrs. W. A. Buss. The Martha class party will be held in the church basement December 12.
