Seminole Indians Relearn Lost Art of Pottery Making

Miami, Fla.—Seminole Indians are being re-taught their lost art of pottery making. A paleface, Vernon Lamme, is their instructor.

Florida's Seminoles came originally from the great Creek nation of Alabama and Georgia.

In early colonial days, when English Georgia frequently fought Spanish Florida, the Creeks became divided. Some wanted to join the English against the Spanish, while others declared the Spaniards were their allies.

Those Creeks who favored the Spanish broke away and came to Florida.

The name "Seminole" means, in the Creek tongue, "the breakaways" or "runaways."

Creek Indians made handsome pottery ware. But the Seminoles found no clay in south Florida suitable for firing. They used sea shells and gourds for utensils. Pottery making became a lost art to them.

Lamme decided that the Indians could attain an additional source of income if they returned to pottery making. With Mrs. Lamme, he first interested Josie Jumper, a Seminole living on the nearby Dania reservation, who became his principal assistant.

Men and women, young and old, took up the art. They are taught to mold, fire and glaze, but designing is left up to the Indians' natural talent. Clay is shipped in.

Now the Indian handiwork is being sold to tourists, and some is being sent to northern markets.

Boddy Turns Down Roosevelt

Los Angeles, Dec. 8 (AP) — Publisher Manchester Boddy of the democratic Los Angeles Daily News said in an editorial Wednesday that James Roosevelt is not familiar enough with California problems to become governor.

Roosevelt, eldest son of the late president, announced Nov. 15 he would seek the democratic gubernatorial nomination next year.

The publisher said the lanky, 42-year-old former New Yorker was "relatively new to California and has not lived with the peculiar problems of this state long enough to understand them."

"Indeed, if it were not for the name he bears," Boddy said, "I doubt if any voter would pick him as the man we should have as governor because of what he has accomplished as a Californian devoted to solving California's problems."

Shah, Party Go To Sun Valley

Burbank, Cal., Dec. 8 (AP) — The Shah of Iran took off Wednesday for a vacation in Sun Valley, Ida.

The youthful monarch, who completed a state visit to this country with a tour of southern California, took off from Lockheed air terminal in the Sacred Cow, state department plane in which he has been touring the country.

With him were a party of more than a dozen official aides and U.S. government representatives, who will spend one night as his guests at the Idaho skiing resort.

All but four of his retinue are scheduled to leave today to fly back to Washington, D.C.

Remaining with the Shah at Sun Valley will be his press representative, a boyhood friend who serves as gentleman-in-waiting, his physician, and his surgeon.

Before leaving Los Angeles, where he spent four days, he said he did not know how long he would stay at Sun Valley but that if the snow was good he probably would stay about a week.

The Shah wound up his tour with a state visit to Los Angeles. Only other official appearance he will make before returning to Iran is at a dinner with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in New York.

Need $7 Billion For U. S. Schools

Washington, Dec. 8 (AP) — Rep. Tom Steed (D-Okla.) said today it would cost American taxpayers $7,000,000,000 to put the American school system in tip-top shape.

But he said the benefits the nation would reap would far outweigh the cost.

Steed is a member of a house labor subcommittee which recently finished three weeks of hearings on school conditions in the southwest and west.

"There are very few school districts in the United States that, because of increased enrollment, aren't hurt," he told a reporter. "Some are desperate."

"It's a tragic situation—one that congress can't afford to overlook. The time for action is now—by the 81st congress at its next session."

Council Bans Parking at 'Y'

Mt. Angel — The city council has banned parking on the "Y" in front of the White corner except for one parallel line along the curb in front of the store as a safety measure. Center parking, as has been the custom for many years, is proving too hazardous.

Upon instruction of Mayor Jacob Berchtold, Tony Traeger will be on duty Sunday morning during church services to see that the new ordinance is obeyed.

Following protest of Cyril Walker, in behalf of residents of Sheridan and Taylor streets, Dr. Frank Neisius, city health officer, was ordered to inspect that area and remove animals and unsanitary conditions remedied. The protestants objected to the presence of goats and other animals.

Andy Schmidt, of the health committee, reported that a second baiting would be carried out soon as the first baiting in the rat extermination program was meeting with success.

The council also granted Don Cook permission to paint a yellow strip in front of the church to insure him a driveway free from automobiles parked by church goers and empowered the fire chief and street committee to inspect buildings and report back to the council. Beer licenses were granted the Hotel Fountain and Val Eberle in addition to a package and restaurant license for the former and a package store license to the latter.

Doug Harris, city attorney, reported that Church and West Church street crossings appear assured.

It is estimated there are 200,000,000 people in North America.

During World War II, some wilderness might sometimes get U.S. military manuals pointed food by catching and eating in-out that men stranded in the sects.
