Recipes

(By the Associated Press)

There are all kinds of recipes for "fried rice." Some have mushrooms with eggs, some soy sauce flavoring and some with chopped bacon. The one given here is fairly simple but has a combination of flavors always popular . . . ham and eggs.

Fried rice should not be allowed to stand, but must be served immediately after the eggs are cooked to be its best. A generous tomato salad with minced onions and a sharp French dressing is suggested to go with this dish. The addition of buttered green asparagus and hot rolls makes a complete easy-to-prepare meal.

Fried Rice

2 cups cooked rice
2 eggs
1 tablespoon oil (peanut oil or salad oil)
Ham, minced, 1/2 cup
Salt and pepper to taste

Preparing the Rice

Put 1 cup of rice, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 cups cold water in a two-quart saucepan. Cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils vigorously. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and simmer for 14 minutes more. During this time the rice will absorb the water and come out deliciously tender. Remove the lid to permit the rice to steam dry. Lift rice with a fork to test its consistency. Never stir rice while cooking—and the grains will be separate and tender. Makes approximately 3 cups rice. Keep left-over cooked rice in a covered bowl in refrigerator—you'll find it handy next time you're in a hurry to fix a quick meal.

Method

Fry the ham pieces in the oil in heavy frying pan, then add the rice and stir well. Add well beaten eggs and cook three minutes more, stirring constantly. Serve hot, as soon after cooking as possible. This will serve two or three persons.

Miss Jackson Recent Bride At Mill City Ceremony

Mill City—The wedding of Miss Virginia Lee Jackson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Jackson, Sr., and Delmar W. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Thompson of Marysville, Calif., was an event at the First Christian church in Mill City at 8 p.m., November 26. It was a candlelight ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums and a large white cross centered the rostrum.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids carried white testaments topped by gardenias and streamers. The matron of honor was attired in a rose colored gown and the other attendants in blue. The little flower girl wore a floor length white dress and she carried a white basket on which was tied a bow of white tulle.

The bride's mother wore a black gown and corsage of red carnations. The social rooms of the church were used for the reception immediately following the ceremony. Bouquets of pom-pom chrysanthemums decorated the rooms.

Preceding the ceremony Kirk Wirick of Eugene sang, accompanied by Miss Wanda Vandermeer, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown made with a draped neckline and a bustle back. Tiny buttons adorned the long tight sleeves and also extended down the back of the gown almost to the long train. The fingertip veil was held in place by a beaded tiara. The

The table was covered with a lace tablecloth and in the center was placed a bowl of orchid chrysanthemums guarded by tapers of the same color. The large four-tiered wedding cake was placed at one end of the table and at the opposite end was placed the coffee urn. The cake was cut by Mrs. A. J. Watters of Eugene, a cousin of the bride. Mrs. J. E. Swan poured and Mrs. George Stewart was at the punch bowl. Miss Marian King passed the guest book and Mrs. Cecil Baldwin and Lorraine J. McCann of Seattle, sisters of the bride, had charge of the gifts.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Kirk Wirick, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Watters and Larry Dean, and Mr. and Mrs. Ford E. Wilson of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Baldwin, Lorraine Jackson McCann and B. J. Lorenzen of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. T. R. Fryer, Donald and Alice, and Mrs. Richard Hansen of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whitford of Sutherlin and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, Jr., and Judith Anne of Astoria.

Following the ceremony and reception the young couple left for Canyonville, Ore., where they will reside. For going away the bride wore a Glen plaid suit to which she pinned an orchid. Her accessories were white.
