

Young GOP Convention Hears Idaho Woman Speak

Young Republicans of Oregon will hear an address by Louise Shaddock, executive secretary to the governor of Idaho and co-director of Region No. 9 for the National Young Republican Federation, at their annual convention to be held December 9, 10 and 11 at West Linn, announces Bill Ireland of Molalla, general convention chairman.

Outlook Bright For Linn Labor

Albany, Dec. 9.—Oregon State Employment service officials here painted an optimistic picture of the seasonal unemployment situation in western Linn county, despite the announcement by the state unemployment compensation commission that on a state-wide level November unemployment claims were up by 53 percent over last year.

Bill Sloan, manager of the Oregon State Employment Service office here, predicted that the western Linn area would ride out the winter months with less unemployment than last year. During November, he asserted, new applications for unemployment compensation were actually less than applications during the same period in 1948. "This does not mean that there is no unemployment here," he said, "but I don't think that the number of men thrown out of work last winter will be jobless this year."

Sloan based his prediction on the fact that nearly all logging operators in the area have reported they will operate throughout the cold months, unless shut down by bad weather. Most mills here, he said, have access to logs, unless mountain roads go out during bad weather. This area has yearly a natural slump of employment, due to the closing down of many seasonal industries, he said. But, he continued, he refuses to believe that unemployment this winter will be more than the natural seasonal drop off.

Merchants at Albany Change Store Hours

Albany — Agreement that local retail stores will remain open until 9 p.m., Friday and Saturday, December 9 and 10; Friday and Saturday, December 16 and 17, and Friday, December 23, was reported Wednesday from the Albany Retail Merchants' committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The agreement further provides that on the night of Saturday, December 23, stores will close at 5:30 p.m., but that every Friday thereafter the stores will remain open until 9 p.m., but close Saturdays at 5:30 p.m. These recommendations have

CROP Shipment Leaves Halsey

Albany—Linn county sent its CROP car, laden with 60-tons of barley, on its way this week following a brief dedication ceremony at Halsey. State Senator Orval Thompson of Albany gave the dedication address.

The railroad car, the first to leave Oregon with Christian Rural Overseas Relief foodstuffs, was expected to hook on to a Portland bound car Tuesday or Wednesday.

Burl Kelso, district CROP executive, stated following the ceremony that Linn's contribution is expected to top all other Oregon counties, and that Linn was the first to ship their commodity.

Hundreds of farmers from all over the county contributed barley, other marketable grains and seeds, and cash to make the CROP drive a success. The big car was loaded with enough grain for three ordinary cars, at the Frum warehouse at Halsey the first of the week.

More than $150 was left over, it was reported, to buy more grain, Macpherson, head of the Linn drive stated. This money will be thrown in with some other county to buy more food.
